WHEREAS certain Petitions have been presented to the House of Commons, praying that the Parties therein-named might be respectively admitted to oppose and defend the Right of Election of Members to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Liskeard, in the County of Cornwall, as such Right was stated and reported to the House, by a Select Committee of the House, on the 10th Day of March 1803:

Which said several Petitions were ordered to be taken into Consideration by the said House upon Tuesday the 10th Day of April next, at Three of the Clock in the Afternoon:

And whereas, by a subsequent Order of the said House made this Day, the said Petitions are appointed to be taken into Consideration upon Tuesday the 17th Day of April next, at Half an Hour after Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, I do hereby give Notice thereof.

Given under my Hand this 22d Day of March 1804,

CHAS. ABBOT, Speaker.

BY THE LORDS COMMISSIONERS OF HIS MAJESTY'S TREASURY.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for permitting certain Goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in Warehouse without Pay-

"ment of Duty," it is (amongst other Things) enacted as follows: "That it shall be lawful for the Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors, Consignee or Consignees, of any of the Goods, Wares, or Merchandize enumerated or described in the Table hereunto annexed, marked (A), and which shall be legally imported and brought into the Port of London, to lodge and secure the same under the Joint Locks of the Crown and the Merchant in any Warehouse or Warehouses situated at the Isle of Dogs, and belonging to the West India Dock Company, without Payment at the Time of the first Entry of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, of the Duties of Customs or Excise due on the Importation thereof, subject, nevertheless, to the Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions directed by this Act; provided always, that no such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize shall be so lodged or secured, unless and until such Warehouses, and other Works belonging or to belong thereto, shall be so far completed, that, in the Judgment of the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, the same shall be fit and proper in every Respect for the Reception of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, and wherein the same may respectively be safely and securely deposited, and remain under the Regulations and Directions of this Act; and the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, are hereby authorized and empowered, by Writing under his or their Hand or Hands, to certify and make known his or their Approbation of such Warehouses, which Certificate shall be published Three Times at least in the London Gazette, and in Two or more public Morning Newspapers then usually circulated in London."

We, the undersigned Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, do, in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, certify and make known, that the following Warehouses belonging to the West India Dock Company are so far completed, that in our Judgment the same are fit and proper in every Respect for the Reception of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize as are enumerated and described in the said Table annexed to the said Act of Parliament, marked (A), and wherein the same may respectively be safely and securely deposited, and remain under the Regulations and Directions of the said Act, viz. All these Thirteen Stacks of Warehouses adjoining each other, and situate on the North Side of the large Dock belonging to the West India Dock Company at the Isle of Dogs, forming the complete Range of Warehouses on the North Side of the said Dock, from the West End to the East End thereof, and we do hereby declare our Approbation of the said several Warehouses accordingly.

Perth, February 24, 1804.

Interlocutor by James Chalmers, Esq; Sheriff Substitute of Perthshire, in the Process at the Instance of William Taylor, Merchant in Sanderton, Yorkshire, and Thomas Gibson, Writer in Perth, his Mandatory against James Inches, Merchant in Dunkeld, Trustee for the Creditors of David Dow, some time Sadler in Dunkeld, now Abroad, and Charles Blair, Merchant in Dunkeld, and Patrick Robertson, Writer there, Cautioners for the said James Inches:

Having considered this Process, with the Productions, finds it admitted by the Defender, James Inches, that he sold Effects and collected Debts belonging to the Estate of David Dow, amounting to 118l. 6s. 11d.; finds it alleged by Mr. Inches, and not denied by the Pursuers, that he paid preferable or privileged Debts to the Amount of 5l. 6s. Sterling; modifies Mr. Inches's Claim for Trouble to 7l. 7s. and finds that, after these Deductions, the Balance due by James Inches is 105l. 13s. 11d. for which he and his Cautioners, Charles Elair and Patrick Robertson, are liable to the Pursuers and the other Creditors of David Dow; finds, that Twelve Months, from the Date of their Bond, was a reasonable Time within which the Funds ought to have been made effectual; and that the Defenders are liable, from the 13th of August 1799, in Interest upon the Balance, at the Rate of Three per Cent. until the 1st of December 1801, the Date of Citation in this Action; and that from and after that Period the Defenders must be liable for Interest, at the Rate of Four per Cent. till Payment: Appoints the Pursuers to cause Intimation be made in the Edinburgh and London Gazette to the Creditors of David Dow, to produce in the Hands of the Clerk of Court, betwixt and the 15th Day of April next, their Claims against David Dow, with the Grounds of Debt, and Affidavits thereon, so as they may be ranked upon the Funds recovered under the Authority of Court, certifying those who fail that they will be cut out of any Share of the Effects, as the same will then be divided among those who shall comply.

JAMES CHALMERS.

Whitehall, March 31, 1804.

THE following Dispatches have been received at the East India House from the Governor in Council at Bombay :

Extract of a Letter from the Governor in Council at Bombay, to the Court of Directors, dated 3d September 1803.

MAJOR-GENERAL WELLESLEY having commenced his Operations against the Forts of Ahmednagar, on the 8th of August, we had the Satisfaction to learn that the above-mentioned Forts fell into the Major-General's Hands on the 11th following. The Attainment of this Enterprise was attended with the Loss of several brave Officers and Men, as will appear by the List of the former inserted in the Margin * ; but the Acquisition of it is of great Importance, as it is considered to be one of the strongest Positions in that Country : On this Ground, therefore, General Wellesley has for the present taken Possession of the Fort and Districts dependent thereon, and placed them under the Management of Captain Graham, of the Madras Establishment, with Orders to collect the Revenues, and to render the Resources of that Acquisition as subservient as possible to the Objects of the Campaign. In advising of this Result, we beg Leave to offer to your Honorable Court our Congratulations on the distinguished and rapid Success which attended the British Arms under the Direction of the Honorable Major-General Wellesley, in the Reduction of Ahmednagar ; trusting also, that we shall shortly be enabled to report an equally favourable Result with respect to the Fort of Broach, the Measures for reducing of which are now in Progress.

Extract of a Letter from the Governor in Council at Bombay to the Court of Directors, dated 4th September 1803.

SINCE closing our general Address, under Date the 3d Instant, we have received from Lieuten-

* KILLED.

Captain Grant, of the 78th Regiment.

Captain Humberston, of Ditto.

Lieutenant Anderson, of Ditto.

Lieutenant Plenderleath, 1st Battalion of 3d Regiment, Madras.

WOUNDED.

Lieutenant Larkins, of 78th Ditto.

ant Colonel Woodington, the Officer commanding at Broach, the Dispatch of which a Copy is enclosed, advising of the Reduction of that Fort by Assault on the 29th Ultimo, an Attainment which has been accomplished with a Rapidity, Energy, and Success reflecting the highest Credit on that respectable Officer, and on the Officers and Men under his Command.

(ENCLOSURE.)

To the Honorable Jonathan Duncan, Esq. President and Governor, &c. &c. &c. in Council.

HONORABLE SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to enclose, for your Information, a Letter I have this Day addressed to the Honorable Major-General Wellesley, on the Capture of Broach.

I have the Honor to be, with the greatest Respect,
Honorable Sir,

Your most obedient

And faithful Servant,

(Signed) H. WOODINGTON, Lieut. Col.
Broach, 29th August 1803.

To Major-General Wellesley, Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to acquaint you, that at three o'clock, P. M. I stormed the Fort of Broach, and carried it with little Loss, although the Arabs made considerable Resistance, particularly on our entering the Breach. The Arabs have suffered very considerably, and we have taken a great many Standard of Colours. A more steep Ascent to the Breach, and of such Length, is seldom seen. I cannot express myself in sufficient Terms on the Gallantry of the Officers and Men I have the Honor to Command. I shall have the Honor to address you more fully To-morrow. I write this for your early Information, immediately after we have got Possession of the Place, which will, I hope, be an Excuse for Haste.

I have the Honor to be, Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

(Signed) H. WOODINGTON, Lieut. Col.
Broach, 29th August 1803.

(True Copies.)

(Signed) JAMES GRANT, Sec. to Gov.

Extract of a Letter from the Governor in Council at Bombay to the Secret Committee of the Court of Directors, dated 31 October 1803.

WE have now the Honor to forward an Official Report from Lieutenant Colonel Woodington, under Date the 21st Ultimo, of the Progress of the Siege, and subsequent Capitulation of the Garrison of Powanghur, preceded by a Letter from Colonel Murray to the Commanding Officer of the Forces at this Presidency, on that Subject, of the same Date.

Since that Period our President has received from the Honorable Major General Wellesley, a Dispatch of the 25th Ult. as per Copy enclosed. From the Report contained in it, your Honorable Committee will observe, that the General attacked the combined Forces of Dowlat Row Scindia and the Berar Rajah, on the 23d September, in the Vicinity of the Adjuty Pats, with the Division of the Army under his own immediate Command, and that the very obstinate Action that ensued terminated in the complete Defeat of the Confederates, with the Loss to them of 90 Pieces of Cannon, which the Honorable General Wellesley has captured. We have not received an Official Report of Casualties during the Engagement, but the General states our Loss of Officers and Men to have been great. As far as private Information has enabled us, we have endeavoured to supply this Deficiency, in the enclosed List of Killed and Wounded on that Occasion. It is considered to be incomplete, in not containing the Names of all the Officers who suffered; but, in other Respects, it is supposed to be correct.

From the most recent private Account from the Honorable Major-General Wellesley, it appears that Scindia and the Rajah of Berar had descended the Adjuty Ghaut, and that the British Forces were immediately to proceed in Pursuit of them, beyond the Nizam's Frontier.

To the Honorable Jonathan Duncan, Esq; President and Governor in Council.

HONORABLE S.R.,

THE enclosed is a Copy of a Letter from Colonel Murray, giving Cover to one from Lieutenant-Colonel Woodington, respecting the Capitulation of Powanghur.

No. 1.

SIR, Head Quarters, Banda, Sept. 21, 1803.

I HAVE the Honor to enclose a Letter which I received this Morning from Lieutenant-Colonel Woodington. It is necessary to inform you that the Delay of this important Communication arises from the Misfiring of the Colonel's Letter, although sent in Duplicate.

Colonel Woodington highly praises the Zeal and Activity of the Troops under his Command, and, to judge by their Success, the Praise is well merited.

Colonel Woodington has in a most particular Manner requested that I should lay the meritorious Services of Sergeant Moore, of His Majesty's 86th Regiment, before you. He led the forlorn Hope at the Assault of Broach, and behaved with the utmost Gallantry on that Occasion. Major Cuyler speaks highly in Favor of his general Character.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

J. MURRAY, Colonel.

To Major-General Nicolls.

(True Copy.)

J. C. HARRIS, Acting Mil. Secretary.

To Colonel Murray, commanding the Forces in the Guzerat.

SIR,

IN consequence of your Communication to me last Night that you had not received my official Communication on the Surrender of Powanghur by Capitulation, I have the Honor to address you again on the Subject.

After a Breach had been effected in the Wall of the inner Fort, as also that another was almost practicable in a Tower at the Angle of the outer Fort, the Garrison offered to capitulate on the Morning of the 24th, on Condition of being protected in their Persons and private Property.

To these Terms I agreed, on Condition of immediately taking Possession of the Breach in the inner Wall, with a Company of Sepoys. They, however, tacked other Stipulations to the Capitulation, viz that I should agree to pay them the Arrears due from Scindia, and that Two of the Commanders of the Gwalwar Cavalry with me (amounting to about Three Hundred Horse) should sign the Agreement. To those latter Articles I would on no Account agree; and it was not until Four P.M. when the found, from our continuing to batter, that I would admit of no Delays that they agreed to the original Terms, which were immediately carried into full Effect by their Evacuation of the Fort and Mountain, of which we took Possession.

If this had not taken place, I had made the necessary Arrangements for storming both Breaches on the Morning of the 25th; and I conceive that the Garrison were intimidated from a Knowledge that if they opposed us on our entering the Breaches, their Communication with the upper Fort would be cut off, and they had no other Way to escape than the Road which led down by our Battery.

Could they have obtained Possession of the Upper Fort, or Baba Killa, at the Top of the Mountain, I am inclined to think it utterly impregnable.

I have left Captain Cliffe, of the Engineers, to take a Plan and View of the Forts and Works on the Mountain, which I doubt not, from his known Abilities, will be ably executed.

It is with the greatest Pleasure that I embrace this Opportunity of submitting, for your Notice, the Merits, Zeal, and great Exertions of all Ranks on this Service.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

HENRY WOODINGTON,

Lieut. Col. &c.

SIR,

I ATTACKED the united Armies of Doulat Rao Sindia and the Rajah of Berar with my Division on the 23d, and the Result of the Action which ensued was, that they were completely defeated with the Loss of Ninety Pieces of Cannon which I have taken. I have suffered a great Loss of Officers and Men.

I enclose a Copy of my Letter to the Governor General, in which I have given him a detailed Account of the Events which led to, and occurred in, the Action.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

ARTHUR WELLESLEY.

Camp, Sept. 25, 1803.

To His Excellency the Governor General, &c. &c. &c.

MY LORD,

I WAS joined by Major Hill with the last of the Convoys expected from the River Kistna, on the 18th, and on the 20th was enabled to move forward towards the Enemy, who had been joined in the Course of the last Seven or Eight Days by the Infantry under Colonel Pohlman, by that belonging to Begum Sumroo, and by another Brigade, the Name of whose Commander I have not ascertained. The Enemy's Army was collected about Bakerdun, and between that Place and Jafferabad.

I was near Colonel Stevenson's Corps on the 21st, and had a Conference with that Officer, in which we concerted a Plan to attack the Enemy's Army, with the Divisions under our Command, on the 24th in the Morning; and we marched on the 22d, Colonel Stevenson by the Western Route and I by the Eastern Route, round the Hills between Beed Naporeh and Jalnah.

On the 23d I arrived at Naulaiah, and there received a Report that Sindia and the Rajah of Berar had moved off in the Morning with their Cavalry, and that the Infantry were about to follow, but were still in Camp, at the Distance of about six Miles from the Ground on which I intended to encamp. It was obvious that the Attack was no longer to be delayed, and having provided for the Security of my Baggage and Stores at Naulaiah, I marched on to attack the Enemy.

I found the whole combined Army of Sindia and the Rajah of Berar encamped on the Bank of the Kistna River, nearly on the Ground which I had been informed that they occupied. Their Right, which consisted entirely of Cavalry, was about Bakerdun, and extended to their Corps of Infantry, which were encamped in the Neighbourhood of Assye. Although I came first in Front of their Right, I determined to attack their Left, as the Defeat of their Corps of Infantry was most likely to be effectual; accordingly, I marched round to their left Flank, covering the March of the Column of Infantry by the British Cavalry in the Rear, and by the Mahratta and Mysore Cavalry on the Right Flank.

We passed the River Kistna at a Ford beyond the Enemy's left Flank, and I formed the Infantry immediately in two Lines, with the British Cavalry as a Reserve, in a Third, in an open Space between that River and a Nullah running parallel to it. The Mahratta and Mysore Cavalry occupied the Ground beyond the Kistna on our left Flank, and kept in check a large Body of the Enemy's Cavalry, which had followed our March from the Right of their own Position.

The Enemy had altered the Position of their Infantry previous to our Attack. It was no longer as at first, along the Kistna, but extended from that River across to the Village of Assye, upon the Nullah which was upon our Right. We attacked them immediately, and the Troops advanced under a very hot Fire from Cannon, the Execution of which was terrible.

The Picquets of the Infantry and the 74th Regiment, which were on the Right of the first and second Lines, suffered particularly from the Fire of the Guns on the Left of the Enemy's Position, near Assye. The Enemy's Cavalry also made an Attempt to charge the 74th Regiment, at the Moment when they were most exposed to this Fire; but they were cut up by the British Cavalry, which moved on at that Moment.

At Length the Enemy's Line gave Way in all Directions; and the British Cavalry cut in among their broken Infantry, but some of their Corps went off in good Order; and a Fire was kept up on our Troops from many of the Guns from which the Enemy had been first driven, by Individuals who had been passed by the Line, under the Supposition that they were dead.

Lieutenant-Colonel Maxwell, with the British Cavalry, charged a large Body of Infantry, which had retired, and was formed again, in which Operation he was killed; and some Time elapsed before he could put an End to the straggling Fire which was kept up by Individuals from the Guns from which the Enemy were driven. The Enemy's Cavalry also, which had been hovering round us throughout the Action, was still near us. At length, when the last formed Body of Infantry gave way, the Whole went off, and left in our Hands Ninety Pieces of Cannon. This Victory, which was certainly complete, has, however, cost us dear, your Excellency will perceive by the enclosed Return, that our Loss in Officers and Men has been very great, and in that of Lieutenant-Colonel Maxwell and other Officers, whose Names are therein included, greatly to be regretted.

I cannot write in too strong Terms of the Conduct of the Troops. They advanced in the best Order, and with the greatest Steadiness, under a most destructive Fire, against a Body of Infantry far superior in Numbers who appeared determined to contend with them to the last, and who were driven from their Guns only by the Bayonet; and, notwithstanding the Numbers of the Enemy's Cavalry, and the repeated Demonstrations they made of an Intention to charge, they were kept at a Distance by the Infantry.

I am particularly indebted to Lieutenant-Colonel Harniss and Lieutenant-Colonel Wallace, for the Manner in which they conducted their Brigades, and to all the Officers of the Staff for the Assistance I received from them.

The Officers commanding Brigades, nearly all those of the Staff, and the mounted Officers of the Infantry, had their Horses shot under them.

I have also to draw your Excellency's Notice to the Conduct of the Cavalry Commanded by Lieutenant-Colonel Maxwell, particularly that of the 19th Dragoons.

The Enemy are gone off towards the Adjuttee's Chant, and I propose to follow them as soon as I can place my captured Guns, and the Wounded, in Security.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

A DISPATCH, of which the following in an Extra, has been received this Day by His Excellency the Most Noble the Governor-General from His Excellency the Commander in Chief:

To His Excellency the Most Noble Marquis Wellesley,
Governor-General, &c. &c.

MY LORD,

I HAVE the Honor to inform your Lordship, that I attacked M. Peron's Force this Morning, which was strongly posted with their Right extending to the Fort of Ally Ghur, and their entire Front protected by a deep Morass, which obliged me to change my original Plan of Attack, and detour considerably to the Right to turn their Left Flank, which I completely effected, dislodging a Body of Troops which were posted in a Village in the Enemy's Front.

On moving forward with the Cavalry in Two Lines, supported by the Line of Infantry and Guns, the Enemy immediately retired after a very few Shot from the Cavalry Guns, which did some Execution.

Several Attempts were made to charge some considerable Bodies of Cavalry, who made an Appearance of standing, but the Rapidity of their Retreat prevented the Possibility of effecting it so completely as I could have wished, but I have Reason to believe that, in consequence of the Operations of this Day, many of his Confederates have left him.

My Loss in Men and Horses is very inconsiderable, and no Officer.

I have the Pleasure to assure your Lordship, that the Zeal, Activity, and Steadiness displayed by both Officers and Men, afforded me entire Satisfaction, and deserve my warmest Praise.

My Staff afforded me every Assistance, and I feel myself under great Obligations to them.

From every Information I can obtain, immediately upon our advancing, M. Peron, with his Body Guard, retired towards Agra, and has left Colonel Pedron in Charge of the Fort.

I am at present encamped to the Southward of the Fort, and the Town of Coel is occupied by one of my Battalions.

I have the Honor to be,

My Lord,
Your Lordship's most faithful
and humble Servant,

A DISPATCH, of which the following is an Extract, has been received this Day by His Excellency the Most Noble the Governor-General from His Excellency the Commander in Chief.

MY LORD,

IT is with infinite Satisfaction I inform your Lordship, that the Inhabitants of this Part of the Country are coming in fast, and manifest a Wish of being protected by the British Government; and that, in consequence of my having caused it to be made known to the Head Men of the Villages in this Neighbourhood, that it is not my Intention to molest either the Persons or Properties of such of the Inhabitants as shall claim my Protection, I have the Pleasure to say, that the People who had deserted the Town of Coel, on our Approach Yesterday are returning fast to their Houses, and the Town is nearly re-peopled. Indeed they have every Reason to be satisfied, as the Instant this Position was gained, a Battalion was posted in Coel, to prevent Plunder; by which Means very little Loss was sustained by the Inhabitants.

I learn from all Quarters that most of the Enemy's Cavalry, who opposed us Yesterday, have returned to their Homes, declaring their Inability to oppose the English.

From every Account I can receive, the Number of Cavalry opposed to us amounted to Fifteen or Twenty Thousand.

The Country in our Rear is in a State of perfect Tranquillity, nor has it been molested by a single Horseman. I have sent into the Fort a Summons in English and French, which will, I trust, have the desired Effect.

I have the Honor to be,

My Lord,

and humble Servant,

CHIPPENHAM RIGHT OF ELECTION PETITION.

Lune, 26^e Die Martij 1804.

JAMES HYATT, Robert Wharry, and Joseph Gale, having this Day presented their Petition to the House of Commons, setting forth,

That the Petitioners are Inhabitants of the Borough of Chippenham, in the County of Wilts, paying, or liable to pay Scot and Lot there; and that on the 5th and 6th Days of July 1802, an Election of Burgesses to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Chippenham was duly had; and that at the said Election, James Dawkins, Esquire, Charles Brooke, Esquire, and John Maitland, Esquire, were Candidates to serve in Parliament for the said Borough; that the Returning Officer of the said Borough afterwards upon the said Election, returned that James Dawkins, Esquire, and Charles Brooke, Esquire, were duly elected to serve in Parliament for the said Borough; and that against the Return of the said Charles Brooke, Esquire, Two Petitions were afterwards duly presented to the House, one on the Part of John Maitland, Esquire, and the other on the Part of certain Electors for the said Borough, complaining of the said Return; that thereupon a Select Committee of the House was afterwards duly struck, and sworn well and truly to try the Matters of the said Petitions, which said Select Committee, on the 11th Day of March 1803, duly met for the Purpose of trying and determining the same; and that it appeared to the said Select Committee, on the Hearing and Trial of the said Petitions, that the Merits of the said Petitions did depend upon the Right of Election, and therefore the said Committee did require the Counsel for the several Parties to deliver to the Clerk of the said Committee, Statements in Writing, of the Right of Election for which they respectively contended; and that in consequence thereof, the Counsel for the Petitioner John Maitland, Esquire, and also for the other Petitioners before mentioned, delivered in a Statement, stating the Right of Election for Burgesses to serve in Parliament for the said Borough to be in the Bailiff, Burgesses, and Freemen, being Household-ers of and resident in the antient Burgage Houses within the Borough of Chippenham; and that the Counsel for the Sitting Member, Mr. Brooke, delivered in a Statement, stating the Right of Election for Burgesses to serve in Parliament for the said Borough to be in the Bailiff and Burgesses at large (that is to say, being Inhabitants,) within the Borough, paying or liable to pay the Poor Rates; and that afterwards on the 14th Day of March, in the Year aforesaid, the said Select Committee did determine that the Right of Election for Burgesses to serve in Parliament was in the Bailiff, Burgesses, and Freemen, being Household-ers, and resident in the antient Burgage Houses within the Borough of Chippenham, which said Resolution was afterwards, on the 28th Day of March 1803, duly reported to the House, and by the House ordered to be entered in the Journals thereof; and that the Petitioners, with all due Deference to the said Determination of the said Select Committee, conceive that the Right of Election, as set forth in the said Statement delivered in by the Counsel for the said John Maitland, Esquire, and for the several other Petitioners before mentioned, and as determined by the said Select Committee as aforesaid, is not the Right of Election for the Borough of Chippenham, and therefore praying, that the House will admit them as Parties to oppose that Right of Election that has been deemed valid in the Judgment of the said Select Committee as aforesaid, and that the House will appoint as early a Day as possible to take the Premises into Consideration, and grant them such other Relief as to the House shall seem meet:

I do hereby give Notice, that the House has appointed Tuesday the 8th Day of May next, at Three of the Clock in the Afternoon, to take the said Petition into Consideration.

Given under my Hand, this Twenty-sixth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and four,
CHARLES ABBOT, Speaker.

Jovis, 29th Die Martij 1804.
WHEREAS at the last Election for the Borough of Liskeard, in the County of Cornwall, William Huskisson, Esquire, was, by a certain Indenture, returned a Burgess to serve in Parliament for the said Borough, and Thomas Sheridan, Esquire, was by another Indenture also returned a Burgess to serve in Parliament for the said Borough:

And whereas a Petition of the said William Huskisson, Esquire, complaining of the said double Return, has been presented to the House of Commons, and has been appointed by the said House to be taken into Consideration upon Monday the 9th Day of April next, at Three of the Clock in the Afternoon:

And whereas the said Thomas Sheridan, Esquire, hath this Day informed the said House, by a Declaration in Writing subscribed by him, and delivered in at the Table of the House, that it is not his Intention to defend his said Return:

I do hereby give Notice thereof, in pursuance of an Act passed in the Twenty-eighth Year of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the further Regulation of the Trials of Controverted Elections" or Returns of Members to serve in Parliament."

Given under my Hand this Twenty-ninth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and four,
CHARLES ABBOT, Speaker.

NEW MEDICINE DUTY.

THE Virtues and great Demand of that excellent Medicine called Dr. ANDERSON'S, or ENGLISH'S TRUE SCOTS PILLS, having tempted many Druggists, and other Dealers in Medicine in Town and Country, to prepare and offer for Sale a counterfeit Sort, to the great Injury of the Health of those who take them, as well as to the Prejudice of the sole Proprietor of the original Recipe, he now, in consequence, avails himself of the New Medicine Act (compelling every Box of Medicine to be inclosed in a Stamp in Red Ink), to request the Public will look for on such Stamp his Name, "B. H. ENGLISH," No. 165, Strand, opposite the New Church, the counterfeiting of which is Death, otherwise they will most likely be imposed upon.

For their further Information, the Bill underneath the Stamp, with his Signature and Arms (as above), contains every Particular relative to the Qualities of these Pills, and the numerous Complaints they are calculated to remove, and which he begs their Perusal of.

ROBERT SHAW, deceased.

London, March 31, 1804.

ALl Persons who have any Claims or Demands on the Estate of the late Robert Shaw, of Newgate-Street, Draper, deceased, are requested by his Executors to deliver in the same, within One Month from the Date hereof, at the Place of his late Residence, that the same may (if right) be paid off and discharged; and all Persons indebted to the said Estate are desired to pay the same within the same Time, or Actions will be brought against them for the Recovery thereof.

Rio Demerary, 30th of June 1803.

M. SMIT, in Quality as First-Marshal to the Honorable Court of Justice, in the Colony of Demerary, advertises by this for the First, Second, and Third Time, that by the Power of certain Sentence of the said Court, and thereon following Execution, he will sell here at public Vendue, by Execution, after the Expiration of one Year and Six Weeks, to be reckoned from the 13th Day of March 1803 the Sugar Estate called Crogg, situated on the East Side of this River, with all the Appurtenances, Buildings, Plantation, and further, all Dependencies thereof, belonging to M. T. McCragh, in Behalf of Jan Bonges, in Quality as general Attorney of Turing and Co. and the Heirs of Daniel Steven Schoorl.

The Inventory of the above Estate is daily to be seen at the Counting-Houses of Messrs. Turing and Co. at Middleburgh, and Lang, Turing, and Co. Finsbury-Square, London.

Three Months after the Day of Sale, being by the said Court of Justice to be decided the Prae and Concurrence of the Net Proceeds of the Price of Sale.

In consequence of which, all and every Person that may think to have any Right or Pretension, as well on the Proceeds or otherwise of this Estate, are summoned by me the First Marshall, in order to appear, or to send Attornies at the Time and Place aforesaid, against the first Session Day which shall be held here by said Court, in the Month of July 1804, in order to sustain their Right under the Penalty, that against the Non-Appearsers shall be proceeded according to Law. (Signed) MART. SMIT, First Marshall.

Rio Demerary, 30th June 1803.

Whitehall, April 3, 1804.

As several Artificers and Manufacturers, Subjects of Great Britain, have, from Time to Time, gone into Foreign Countries to exercise their several Callings, contrary to the Laws of these Kingdoms, the following Abstracts of Acts of Parliament of Their late Majesties King George the First and Second, and of His present Majesty, for preventing such Practices, are published, for the Information of all Persons who may be ignorant of the Penalties they may incur by Disobedience to them: And it will be observed, that such Penalties likewise extend to those who are in any ways concerned or instrumental in the Sending or Enticing Artificers or Manufacturers out of these Kingdoms, or in the Exportation of the Tools and Instruments used by them, as well as to the Artificers or Manufacturers themselves.

Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

IF any Person shall contract with, entice, or solicit, any Artificer in Wool, Iron, Steel, Brasses, or other Metal, Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer of Great Britain, to go into Foreign Countries out of the King's Dominions, and shall be convicted thereof, upon Indictment or Information in any of the Courts at Westminster, or at the Assizes or Quarter Sessions, he shall be fined any Sum not exceeding ONE HUNDRED POUNDS for the first Offence, and shall be imprisoned Three Months, and till the Fine be paid. And if any Person having been once convicted shall offend again, he shall be fined at the Discretion of the Court, and imprisoned Twelve Months, and till the Fine be paid.

If any of the King's Subjects, being such Artificers, shall go into any Country out of His Majesty's Dominions, to exercise or teach the said Trades to Foreigners; and if any of the King's Subjects in any such Foreign Country, exercising any of the said Trades, shall not return into this Realm within Six Months after Warning given by the Ambassador, Minister, or Consul of Great Britain, in the Country where such Artificers shall be, or by any Person authorized by such Ambassador, &c. or by one of the Secretaries of State, and from henceforth inhabit within this Realm; such Persons shall be incapable of taking any Legacy, or of being an Executor or Administrator, or of taking any Lands, &c. within this Kingdom, by Descent, Devise, or Purchase, and shall forfeit all Lands, Goods, &c. within this Kingdom, to His Majesty's Use, and shall be deemed Alien, and out of His Majesty's Protection.

Upon Complaint made, upon Oath, before any Justice of Peace, that any Person is endeavouring to seduce any such Artificer, or that any such Artificer hath contracted or is preparing to go out of His Majesty's Dominions, for the Purposes aforesaid, such Justice may send his Warrant to bring the Person complained of before him, or before some other Justice; and if it shall appear by the Oath of One Witness, or by Confession, that he was guilty of any of the said Offences, such Justice may bind him to appear at the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions: And if such Person shall refuse to give Security, the Justice may commit him to Gaol till the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions, and until he shall be delivered by due Course of Law. And if any such Artificer shall be convicted, upon Indictment, of any such Promise, Contract, or Preparation to go beyond the Seas, for the Purpose aforesaid, he shall give such Security to the King not to depart out of His Majesty's Dominions, as such Court shall think reasonable, and shall be imprisoned till Security given.

If any of the above Offences shall be committed in Scotland, the same shall be prosecuted in the Court of Justiciary or the Circuits there.

Statute 23 George II. Chap. 13.

IF any Person shall contract with, or endeavour to seduce any Artificer in Wool, Mohair, Cotton, or Silk, or in Iron, Steel, Brass, or other Metal, or any Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer in any other of the Manufactures of Great Britain or Ireland, to go out of this Kingdom or Ireland into any Foreign Country not within the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, and shall be convicted, upon Indictment or Information, in the Kings Bench at Westminster, or by Indictment at the Assizes or General Gaol Delivery for the County, &c. wherein such Offence shall be committed in England, or by Indictment in the Court of Judiciary or any of the Circuit Courts in Scotland, or by Indictment or Information in the King's Bench at Dublin, if such Offence be committed in Ireland; the Person so convicted shall, for every Artificer contracted with or seduced, forfeit FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, and shall suffer Imprisonment in the Common Gaol of the County or Stewartry wherein such Offender shall be convicted for Twelve Calendar Months, and until Forfeiture be paid: And in case of a subsequent Offence of the same Kind, the Persons so again offending shall forfeit, for every Person contracted with or seduced, ONE THOUSAND POUNDS, and shall suffer Imprisonment in the Common Gaol of the County or Stewartry wherein such Offender shall be convicted, for Two Years, and until such Forfeiture be paid.

If any Person in Great Britain or Ireland shall put on board any Ship or Boat, not bound directly to some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, any such Tools or Utensils as are commonly used in, or proper for the Preparing, Working up, or Finishing of the Woollen or Silk Manufactures, or any Part of such Tools, he shall, for every Offence, forfeit all such Tools, or Parts thereof, put on board, and TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered by Action of Debt, &c. in any Court of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Session in Scotland, or at any of the Four Courts in Dublin respectively, wherein no Essoin, &c. shall be allowed.

It shall be lawful for any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain, or for any Officer of the Revenue in Ireland, to seize and secure, in some of His Majesty's Warehouses, all such Tools or Utensils prohibited to be exported, as such Officer shall find on board any Vessel not bound directly to some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain; and all Tools so seized shall, after Condemnation, be publicly sold to the best Bidder; and one Moiety of the Produce shall be to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Officer who shall seize and secure the same.

If the Captain of any Vessel in Great Britain or Ireland knowingly permit any of the said Tools, prohibited to be exported, to be put on board his Vessel, he shall, for every such Offence, forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as the Penalties inflicted upon Persons exporting the Tools; and, if the Vessel belongs to His Majesty, the Captain shall not only forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, but shall also forfeit his Employment, and be incapable of any Employment under His Majesty.

If any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain or of the Revenue in Ireland, take, or knowingly suffer to be taken, any Entry outward, or sign any Cocket or Suffrance for the Shipping or Exporting of any of the said Tools, or knowingly suffer the same to be done, he shall forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as aforesaid, and also forfeit his Office, and be incapable of any Office under His Majesty.

One Moiety of the Forfeitures shall be applied to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Use of the Person who shall sue for the same.

Statutes 14, 21, 25, and 26 of His present Majesty.

BY these Statutes the like Penalties and Forfeitures as above-mentioned are extended to Persons packing or putting on board any Vessel, not bound directly for some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, any Machine, Engine, Tool, Press, Paper, Utensil, or Implement whatsoever, used in or proper for the working or finishing of the Cotton, Steel, or Iron Manufactures of this Kingdom, or any Part or Parts of such Machines or Implements, or any Models or Plans thereof; and all Captains of Ships and other Persons receiving or being in Possession of any such Articles, with an Intent to export the same to Foreign Parts, and all Custom-house Officers suffering an Entry to be made thereof, are respectively liable to the like Penalties as are above-mentioned, in the case of Tools and Utensils used in the Woollen and Silk Manufactures.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is a Copy, was this Day received by the Right Honorable Lord Hobart, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from the Honorable Frederick North, Governor of His Majesty's Possessions in the Island of Ceylon :

Lord Hobart, &c. &c. &c. One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, London.

MY LORD,

IT has pleased God to bless the Exertions of our small Force with the most extraordinary Success. Not more than eight Days ago, the King of Candy, at the Head of the most numerous Force which he could collect in his Dominions, burst into these Settlements at Sitawaca, and attacked the petty Forts of Hangwelle, at the Distance of eighteen English Miles from this City, which was defended by a small Garrison of Fifty Europeans, One Hundred and Sixty Sepoys, and Seventeen Gun Lascars, on the 3d, 4th, and 6th of this Month.

Of these Actions, the last was by far the most bloody and decisive. After a Combat of an Hour and a Half, the Candians were defeated with great Slaughter, their Guns taken, together with the royal Standard, and more than One Hundred and Twenty Bengal and Madras Lascars, who had been made Prisoners at Candy, and compelled to work at the Candian Guns, were brought back again to our Service. The King fled at the Beginning of the Action, and was followed by Leuke, Dessave of the Four Corles, and by the Maha Mohottiar, or Chief Secretary of State, both of whose Heads he ordered immediately to be struck off.

A Reinforcement was sent up on the Night after the Battle, consisting of Fifty Europeans, and Eighty Sepoys, under Captain Hankey, to join Captain Pollock, who had commanded on that Day, the ill Health of Lieutenant Mercer, who had hitherto defended the Place with great Vigour and Judgment, having rendered it necessary to relieve him from that fatiguing Command. Captain Pollock marched forward towards the Candian Frontier, on the Morning of the 9th, and, after overcoming all Opposition, arrived, on the Morning of the 13th, at Rovanelly, on the Calany Gunga, in the Candian Territory, where the King had formed his principal Magazine. Captain Buchan (who had proceeded with a Detachment from Negombo, through the Hina and the Hapittigam Corles) arrived there, at the same Time, on the other Side of the River ; the Enemy fled ; the Stores fell into our Hands, and have been brought away, and the Town, with the King's new Palace there, entirely burnt.

The Details of these important Occurrences are given at full Length in the enclosed Gazettes. The Districts of Galla and Matura, of Chilow and Putlam, are also delivered from the Enemy, and restored to perfect Obedience and Tranquillity, and the Increase of our Force, by the Recovery of the Malays, will enable me to send a small Body of Troops to Manaar, to protect the Northern Districts, of the Situation of which we have had no Information for these last three Weeks, as the Passage of the Mail has been intercepted.

Two Hundred of the 34th Regiment have been sent to Trincomale by the Madras Government, and will soon be relieved by Two Hundred and Fifty of the 10th ; and Lord Wellesley has destined the Battalion of Bengal Volunteers for this Island.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

FRED. NORTH.

P. S. Since I concluded my Letter, I have received Intelligence from Ensign Pendergast, commanding at Hambangtotte, that he had been blockaded in that new Colony from the 23d Ultimo, to the 9th of this Month, but had beat off the Enemy, and that His Majesty's Ship Wilhelmina had touched there with the Royal Artillery from Trincomale, destined for this Side of the Island, and left Eight Men there.

Extract from the CEYLON GOVERNMENT GAZETTE of 7th September 1803.

Head-Quarters, Colombo, Sept. 2, 1803

GENERAL ORDER. By Major-General Macdowall.

THE following Orders, by His Excellency the Governor, are published by his Desire to the Troops serving on Ceylon.

GENERAL ORDER. By the Governor.

THE Governor has observed with peculiar Satisfaction the rapid Series of well-judged and well-executed Operations by which Captain Herbert Beaver, of the 19th Regiment, has hitherto proceeded in recovering the important Province of Matura from the Candians, and in bringing back its deluded Inhabitants to their Duty. The indefatigable Activity, Zeal, and Ability which that Officer has displayed, since his Assumption of the Command in that District, has fully justified the high Opinion which His Excellency had formed of him from his former Services, and which induced him to appoint him to that arduous Station in a Time of such extreme Difficulty and Discouragement.

His Excellency is highly pleased with the firm, temperate, and humane Conduct of Captain James Shortt, of the 51st Regiment, at Belligham, and has no doubt but that so striking an Instance of Justice and Clemency at the present Moment will have the most beneficial Effect on the Native Inhabitants of these Settlements.

The Governor requests Captain Beaver to communicate his Thanks to the Officers under his Command, and to assure the Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates of his high Approbation of the Zeal, Activity, and Alacrity with which they have performed their late active Services.

By His Excellency's Command,

(Signed) R. ARBUTHNOT, Chief
Sec. to Government.

By Order of Major-General Macdowall,

(Signed) R. MOWBRAY, Acting
Dep. Adj. General.

5th September 1803.

GENERAL ORDER. By Major General Macdowall.

THE following Order, by His Excellency the Governor, is published by his Desire to the Troops serving on Ceylon.

GENERAL ORDER. By the Governor.

THE Governor requests Lieutenant Mercer to accept his Thanks for the great Ability, Firmness, and Intrepidity which he has displayed in the Defence of Hangwelle.

He regrets sincerely that the Health of that Officer has suffered by his successful and honorable Exertions, and considers it of too much Value to be endangered by a longer Continuance in so arduous and fatiguing a Command.

His Excellency has heard with great Pleasure how ably and effectually Lieutenant Mercer has been seconded by Lieutenant MacNeagh, of His Majesty's 77th Regiment, doing Duty with the 51st, and all the Officers of his Detachment, and highly approves of the spirited and zealous Conduct of the Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates.

By His Excellency's Command,

(Signed) R. ARBUTHNOT, Chief
Sec. to Government.

By Order of Major-General Macdowall,

(Signed) R. MOWBRAY, Acting
Dep. Adj. General.

Extract from the CEYLON GOVERNMENT GAZETTE of 14th September 1803.

13th September 1803.

G. O. By Major-General Macdowall.

THE following Order, by His Excellency the Governor, is published by his Desire to the Troops serving on Ceylon.

G. O. By the Governor.

CAPTAIN WILLIAM POLLOCK, of His Majesty's 51st Regiment, in Command of a Detachment from the Garrison of Colombo, having, by a rapid Succession of brilliant and important Victories, driven the Grand Army of the Candians, commanded by the King in Person, out of the British Territories, taken all their Artillery, and their Royal Standard, recovered from them many of the Malays and Gun Lascars, who were made Prisoners by Treachery at Candy, and finally seized the Magazines and Stores prepared by them at Roomally, within their own Limits, His Excellency the Governor is unable to express, in adequate Terms, his lively Sense of the great Services rendered to his Government by that distinguished Officer, and the small, but heroic Detachment which he commands.

He requests him, however, to accept his Thanks, and to communicate them to Captain John Buchan of His Majesty's Ceylon Native Infantry, Captain Frederick Hankey, of His Majesty's 19th Regiment, and all the Officers who have so nobly seconded his Exertions, as well as to Mr. John Orr, Assistant Surgeon of the Bengal Artillery, for the signal Service rendered by him in taking Charge of the Lascars whom we recovered from the Enemy.

His Excellency further desires Captain Pollock to assure the Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates of his high Approbation of their spirited and exemplary Conduct.

By His Excellency's Command,

(Signed) R. ARBUTHNOT, Chief
Sec. to Government.

By Order of Major-General Macdowall,

(Signed) R. MOWBRAY, Acting
Dep. Adj. General.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Pollock, commanding the Detachment on the Expedition to Rowanella, to Captain R. Mowbray, acting Deputy Adjutant-General, dated Avisavalle, 13th September 1803.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to report, for the Information of Major-General Macdowall, that I marched Yesterday Morning with the Detachment under my Command for Rowanella. I found the Enemy posted at all the Passes on the Road, and very strong Batteries erected for their Defence, from which they were driven with considerable Slaughter, and I am happy to say with only the Loss of One Gun Lascar Tindall wounded on our Side.

On arriving at the Rowanella River, we found the opposite Bank lined with Batteries, and several Pieces of Cannon, from which the Enemy kept up a heavy Fire of round and grape Shot, and a constant Fire of Musquetry; not being sufficiently acquainted with the State of the River, to attempt forcing it immediately, the Detachment were here obliged to halt a few Minutes, when a Ford was discovered; Captain Hankey and Lieutenant Mercer, with the Advance, instantly pushed over, and Captain Buchan, with his Detachment, appearing at this Moment on the Enemy's right Flank, they fled in all Directions.

I have the Honor to enclose a Return of Ordnance and Stores captured upon this Occasion, all of which I have brought off. I have much Pleasure in reporting the good Behaviour of the whole Detachment.

ment, and the Obligations I am under to Captain Buchan for the effectual Support he afforded me, notwithstanding the great Difficulties he had to encounter from the extreme Badness of the Road by which he advanced on the North Bank of the Calany Gungar. The two Detachments took up their Quarters for the Night in the Palace, and this Morning finding the Enemy had retreated into the Interior of their Territory, I ordered the Palace and Village of Rowanella to be burnt, which was completely done, and I returned here about Eleven o'Clock.

I shall proceed To-morrow Morning to Hangwelle, and there await Major General Macdowall's farther Orders.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

W. POLLOCK, Capt. 51st Reg.

A Return of the Ordnance Stores taken at Rowanella.

- 70 Hand Grenades.

(Signed) J. WORSLEY, Lieut. Royal Reg. Artillery, and commanding Artil.

Some Camp Equipage and an Elephant were also taken.

Accounts received from Major Evans and Captain Blackall, inform us, that the Districts of Putlang and Chilaw are restored to perfect Tranquillity.

The Candians have also entirely evacuated the District of Galle, and the Inhabitants of the Villages lately occupied by them have returned so effectually to their Duty, that they have invited the Renters to come back among them, and continue collecting their Rents.

The First Adigaar has retreated from the District of Matura, which is nearly reduced to Obedience, and the regular Communication is again established with Tangalle. Hambangtotte, it is supposed, has not been evacuated.

CEYLON INTELLIGENCE.

THE Consequences of the glorious Defence of Hangwelle, on the 6th of this Month, have been still more important than we had Reason to expect.

The King of Kandi was there in Person, but retreated with Precipitation as soon as the Firing began. In his Flight he was overtaken by Leuke Ralehamy, Dettave of the Four Corles, and the Maha Mohottiar, or Chief Secretary of State, both of whose Heads, in the Violence of his Indignation, he ordered to be immediately struck off, and left their dead Bodies unburied in a Ravine, near the Royberg. Nor did his Cruelty stop here; for a Number of Carcasses which passed down the River by Hangwelle, and since to the Great Pass near this Place, prove that the Execution of his own Subjects has been considerable and indiscriminate. The Slaughter made of them by our Troops was great indeed, as all the Roads near Hangwelle are represented as being strewed with the Slain, and our Coolies were employed in burying them during the two Days subsequent to the Battle.

On the 9th, in the Morning, Captain Pollock marched forward, accompanied by Captain Hankey, Lieutenants Mercer and McVeagh of the Infantry, and Worsley of the Royal Artillery, with a Detachment of Eighty R. and F. Europeans, and Seventy R. and F. Sepoys, with two small Cohorns, and a Party of Bengal Gun Lascars, and having driven the Enemy from the strong Post of Kallagalle, where they were stationed in considerable Force, under the Command of the new Dettave of the Four Corles, (lately of Oova,) passed the Royberg without Opposition, and halted for the Night at Aloet-Ambulam, about Six English Miles from Hangwelle.

On the 10th Captain Pollock proceeded by the very strong Post of Pooa-juttia (which the Enemy had abandoned) to Avifavella, and passing the River, entered the Candian Territory at Sitawaka. About Three Miles beyond the last-mentioned Place, he drove the Candians from a strong Battery at Appoola-pitty, where he passed that Night and the next Day, to give Time to Captain John Buchan, of His Majesty's Ceylon Native Infantry, who had passed with a Detachment from Negumbo through the Aloetcoer, Hapittigam, and Hina Corles, to arrive at Menegodde on the opposite Side of the Calany Gungar.

Captain Buchan had performed his March with considerable Difficulty from the Roads, (which he overcame with great Judgment and Perseverance,) but with little Opposition from the Enemy or the Rebels; near Moogoram-pitty he had been attacked but repelled the Assailants, killed Three of them, and took one Prisoner.

While he was on his March a Party of Thirty-six Malays (of those taken at Candy) came into him from the Army of the Second Adigaar, who was proceeding from the Seven Corles to join the King at Rowanally.

On the Morning of the 12th, both Detachments marched forward, and that of Captain Pollock, at a Place called Organda, about Five Miles from Appoola-pitty, fell in with the Remains of the Grand Army of the Candians which had been defeated at Hangwelle, reinforced by that which the Second Adigaar had brought from the Seven Corles. They seemed determined to make an obstinate Resistance, so much so, that Six-and-Twenty of their Men, including Two Moiares, were slain in the Battery. Their whole Army then fled, and Captain Pollock proceeded with little more Opposition to Rowanally, where he was joined by Captain Buchan.

That Village, the most commercial and populous in the Kingdom of Candy, then fell into our Hands, together with Magazines and Stores of Artillery, Ammunition, and Provisions, which the King of Candy had been long preparing for his late unfortunate Expedition, and a Palace which he had caused to be erected there, in a very elegant and sumptuous Style, according to the Cingalese Taste. This Palace, together with Eleven Hundred Houses, has been burned.

The Troops returned Yesterday Morning (13th) to Sitawaka.

Our Loss in all these Affairs has been exceedingly trifling, viz. at Hangwelle on the 6th, One Private of the 65th wounded; at Kalovagille, on the 9th, Two European Soldiers wounded; at Organda, on the 12th, One Gun Lascar wounded; in Captain Buchan's Detachment, One Lascar wounded.

We have recovered Sixty-two Malays, and a Hundred and Fifty Gun Lascars, Bengal and Madras.

Artillery taken at Hangwelle.

By Authority of the Right Honorable the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty for Scotland.

Notice is hereby given to all having Interest, that the Brig Pilger, of Bremen, Frederick Vilmer, Master, having arrived at the Port of Leith with a Cargo from Bremen, and after Discharge of said Cargo, having gone to St. Davids, in the Frith of Forth, to load Coals, was, on the 20th of January 1801, taken Possession of by the Commander of His Majesty's Gun-Boats, on Suspicion of belonging to the Enemies of Great Britain; that afterwards said Ship had been claimed, as having formerly been the Good Intent, of Sunderland, and an Action raised for Restitution, with Damages and Costs: And whereas, during the Dependence of said Action, the Ship being valued, was restored to the Master, for Behoof of his Owners, on Bond being granted, by sufficient Sureties, for the Amount of the Valuation; and on an Application made to the Court to have the said Bond cancelled and delivered up, Decrees or Sentence of Absolution from said Action of Restitution being obtained and therewith produced, the said Judge did thereon pronounce the following Deliverance:

Edinburgh, March 12, 1804.—“ The Judge Admiral, in respect of the Interlocutor of the 4th Day of April 1801, ordains Caution to be found, to be accountable, not to the Pursuers of the Action then depending only, but also to all others concerned, for the Sum of 1380l. Sterling; before Answer, ordains due Intimation to be made in the "Billsburgh and London Gazettes, setting forth the Nature of this Application, and requiring all that are, or may conceive themselves concerned, to appear and enter their Claim or Claims in the High Court of Admiralty in Scotland, within Three Months after the First Intention of such Advertisement, certifying that otherwise such Claimants will be considered as having forfeited the Benefit of the Bond, which, after the Lapse of the aforesaid Time, will be ordered to be delivered up."

Signed R. HODSHON CAY, J. A.

Agreeable, therefore, to this Order, all Persons having, or pretending to have, Interest in the forsaid Ship or Valuation thereof, after any Manner, or on whatsoever Pretence, Cause, or Occasion, are hereby required to assert their Claims and to enter Appearance for that Purpose, within Three Months from the Date of this Notification, under Certification that the Bond of Caution will then be given up.

Whitehall, April 9, 1804.

THE following Dispatches have been received at the East India-House from the Governor in Council at Bombay :

SECRET DEPARTMENT.

To the Secret Committee of the Honorable the Court of Directors for Affairs of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, London.

HONORABLE GENTLEMEN,

1. OUR Address to your Honorable Committee of the 14th Ultimo conveyed a Detail of the Events of the Mahratta War up to that Period.

2. Since the Date of that Dispatch we have received from the Supreme Government the Reports of General Lake's Operations before Agra, that are contained in the enclosed Dispatches from His Excellency the Commander in Chief, under Dates the 10th, 12th, 14th, and 18th of October, from the last of which it will appear that the important Fortrefs of Agra capitulated on the Night of the 17th of that Month, upon which the Place was immediately occupied by the British Troops.

3. To these Advices we have much Satisfaction in being able to add the further Reports annexed under Dates the 14th and 15th of October from Lieutenant Colonel Harcourt, containing a Detail of the Measures adopted by that Officer in the Course of the Expedition prepared under the Orders of the Supreme Government for the Occupation of the valuable Province of Cuttack, the Conquest of which appears to have been completed by the Siege and Assault of the Fort of Banabutty, an Event in reference to which His Excellency the Most Noble the Governor-General issued the General Orders under Date the 22d of that Month, of which a Copy will be found in the Voucher, No. 6.

4. On the Receipt of the Intelligence of the Reduction of the Fort and City of Broach by the Troops under the Command of Lieutenant-Colonel Woodington, His Excellency the Governor-General in Council issued General Orders, under Date the 14th of October, as per Copy enclosed, in which ample Testimony is borne to the Merits of the Officers and Troops employed on that important Service.

5. The Details of the splendid Victory obtained over the Enemy by the Troops under the personal Command of the Honorable Major-General Wellesley, at Assye, on the 23d of September, having been already submitted to your Honorable Committee, it remains now only to add a Copy of His Excellency the Governor-General's Orders, under Date the 30th of October, in Reference to that signal Event.

6. Among the Consequences derived from the Exertions of that Day, which terminated in the complete Defeat of the Combined Forces of Dowlut Row Sindiah, and of the Rajah of Berar, was an Overture from the Enemy's Camp, as received by General Wellesley on the 5th of October, requesting that a British Officer, together with an Officer of the Subahdar of the Dekan, might be dispatched to the Enemy's Camp, for the Purpose of negotiating Terms of Peace between the Allies and the Confederate Mahratta Chieftains.

7. Major General Wellesley did not, however, comply with this Request, but signified his Disposition to receive, at the British Camp, with every Mark of Honour and Respect, any Person duly empowered by direct Authority from Dowlut Row Scindia, or from the Rajah of Berar, to propose Terms of Peace to the Allied Powers.

8. Accordingly it appears that the former of those Chieftains has sent a properly accredited Agent into the Camp of the Honorable Major-General

Wellesley, and the enclosed Copy of a Dispatch from that Officer to our President, under Date the 24th ult., will shew that the Consequence of that Measure has been a Cessation of Hostilities between the British Forces and those of Scindiah; but the Terms of the Agreement concluded on that Occasion, do not include the Rajah of Berar's Forces or Territories, nor have we any further Information on the Subject of the important Event in question, than is contained in the Honorable Major General's Dispatch; but we trust, that this Approach towards an Accommodation, may be speedily followed by the Restoration of Peace to Hindostan and to the Deccan, a Result which the auspicious Progress of our Arms, in all Quarters of India, is so well calculated to accelerate.

9. Since writing thus far, we have received from Bengal the further important Intelligence contained in the accompanying Paper, advising of a glorious and important Victory, obtained on the 1st November near Cassowly in Hindostan, by the Army under the personal Command of His Excellency General Lake, over a very large Body of Dowlut Row Scindiah's regular Infantry and Cavalry, in which the Enemy were entirely defeated, with the Loss of all their Guns, Tumbrils and Baggage, though not without considerable Loss on our Part.

We have the Honor to be, with the greatest Respect, &c. &c. &c.

Bombay-Castle,
3d December 1803.

Jonathan Duncan, Esq.

SIR,
I HAVE the Honor to enclose a Letter which I have written to Colonel Murray, which I request you to forward, and to make known to the Colonel your Sentiments regarding the Order which I have given him.

I must beg Leave to delay, for a few Days, to make you acquainted with my Reasons for agreeing to this Cessation of Hostilities, as I am at present much pressed for Time.

I have the Honor to be.

SIR,

With great Respect,

Your most obedient humble Servant,
(Signed) ARTHUR WELLESLEY.

SECRET.

SIR,
I HAVE the Honor to inform you, that I have this Day concluded an Agreement with the Vakeel of Dowlut Rao Scindiah for a Suspension of Hostilities between the Troops under my Command, and those belonging to that Chief.

I shall hereafter have the Honor of transmitting you a Copy of this Agreement; in the mean Time I have the Honor to inform you, that the Articles of this Agreement, referable to the Troops in Guzerat, are, that the British Troops are not to advance beyond Dohud; and those in the Service of Dowlut Rao Scindiah are not to approach Dohud from the Eastward nearer than Twenty Cofs.

If you should have pushed your Corps or a Detachment from it beyond Dohud, I request you to draw it into that Place. If you should have drawn it off from Dohud, you will not advance it further towards Owjein than the Place at which this Letter will find you.

This Arrangement is liable to be broken off by either of the Parties, upon giving Notice of such Intention. I have the Honor to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient humble Servant,
(Signed) ARTHUR WELLESLEY.

This Agreement is applicable only to the Troops of Dowlut Rao Scindiah.

Copy of an Agreement, &c.

MAJOR GENERAL WELLESLEY, on the Part of the Honorable Company and their Allies, and Jeswunt Rao Goreparah, and Naroo Punt Nana, on the Part of the Maharaje Ali Jah Dowlut Rao Scindiah, having each communicated to the other their full Powers, have made the following Agreement:

1st. There shall be a Cessation of Hostilities between the Troops commanded by Major-General Wellesley, in the Deccan and in Guzerat, and those in the Service of the Maharajah Dowlut Rao Scindiah.

2d. To prevent Accidents, and in order to ensure the Execution of the 1st Article, it is agreed that there shall be an Interval of Twenty Cofs between the different British and Allied Armies and that of the Maharajah, and the Maharajah will march with his Army, and take up a Position Twenty Cofs to the Eastward of Oulpoor, and he will forage still further to the Eastward.

3d. In case the Operations of the British and Allied Armies against the other Enemies of the British Government should draw either of them nearer than Twenty Cofs to the Position which the Maharajah will have occupied according to the 2d Article, previous Notice of such Operation will be given, in order that the Maharajah may take timely Measures always to preserve an Interval of Twenty Cofs between his Army and the British and Allied Armies.

4th. In Guzerat the British Troops shall not advance beyond Dohud, those of the Maharajah on the Side of Guzerat shall not advance nearer to Dohud than Twenty Cofs.

5th. Notice must be given in case either of the Parties should be desirous to put an End to this Agreement.

6th. This Agreement is to be ratified by the Maharajah Dowlut Rao Scindiah, and his Ratification is to be given to Major General Wellesley in the Space of Ten Days from this Date.

BOMBAY COURIER EXTRAORDINARY.

Saturday, 3d December 1803.

IT is with infinite Satisfaction that we publish the following Intelligence, received this Day from Fort William, of an important and glorious Victory obtained on the 1st November 1803, near Cassowly in Hindostan, by the Army under the personal Command of His Excellency General Lake.

Barackpore, 13th Nov. 1803.

DISPATCHES have this Instant been received from his Excellency the Commander in Chief, by which it appears that a most complete and glorious Victory has been obtained on the 1st Inst. at Cassowly, over a Body of the Enemy, consisting of the Battalions detached in July from the Dekkan, with some Battalions which had escaped from Delhi, (amounting altogether to seventeen Battalions,) and a large Body of Horse. All the Enemy's Battalions were cut up or taken, and near Seventy Guns, their whole Baggage, Buzars, &c. are in our Possession. General Lake had for some Days been in Pursuit of the Enemy; on the Morning of the 31st October, the General had marched Twenty Miles, and hearing that the Enemy were halted at a considerable Distance at 12 o'Clock P. M. the Night of the 31st of October, he advanced Twenty Miles with the Cavalry, (making the whole Distance marched in Twenty-four Hours Forty Miles,) and came up with the Enemy at Day-break on the 1st. We immediately attacked, to detain them until the Arrival of the Infantry. This Plan succeeded completely. When the Infantry arrived, a general Attack was made on the Enemy, who, after a most desperate Resistance, were entirely defeated, but with a severe Loss on our Side. The Details of the Action are not yet received, but His Excellency states, that Major-General Ware, Colonel Vandeleure, Major Griffiths, Aide-de-Camp to the Governor-General, Major Campbell, Deputy-Quarter-Master-General, and Lieutenant Duval, Aide-de-Camp to the Commander in Chief, were killed. The General had Two Horses killed under him, and his Coat torn with a Grape Shot. Major Lake was wounded in the Knee with Grape Shot; he will not, however, lose his Leg.

GENERAL ORDERS by His Excellency the Most Noble the Governor-General and Captain-General of all the Land Forces serving in the East Indies.

Fort William, 13th Nov. 1803.

A Royal Salute and Three Volleys of Musketry, to be fired at all the Stations of the Army, in Honor of the glorious and important Victory obtained on the 1st November 1803, near Cassowly in Hindostan, by the Army under the personal Command of His Excellency General Lake over a large Body of the Enemy's regular Infantry and Cavalry, in which the Enemy were entirely defeated with the Loss of all their Guns, Tumbrils, and Baggage.

By His Excellency's Command,

(Signed) J. ARMSTRONG,
Acting Military Secretary.

THE London Extraordinary Gazette of Yesterday contained a Letter, dated December 3, 1803, from the Governor in Council at Bombay to the Secret Committee of the Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies.

Within the above-mentioned Letter were the following Enclosures :

(ENCLOSURE, No. I.)

To His Excellency the Most Noble Marquis Wellesley, Governor-General, &c. &c. &c.

MY LORD,

FINDING it impossible to make Approaches against this Place, as long as the Seven Battalions of the Enemy, who remained here, were in Possession of the Town of Agra, of an Encampment with a large Number of Guns on the Glacis, and of the Ravines with which the South and South-West Face of the Fort is surrounded, I determined to dislodge the Enemy from the Town, and occupy the Ravines this Morning, which will answer as Trenches, and afford complete Cover for carrying on our Works.

With this View I ordered Brigadier-General Clarke, who was encamped with his Brigade in the Rear of the Town, to take Possession of it at the same Time that Three Battalions advanced to occupy the Ravines.

The Attacks have succeeded, and the Town as well as the Ravines are now occupied by our Troops.

Lieutenant-Colonel M'Culloch, Major Haldane, and Captain Worfeley led the Battalion that advanced on the Ravines. Every Praise is due to those Officers, who performed every Thing required of them with the greatest Alacrity and Steadiness.

I am sorry to say that a Number of Men have been killed and wounded, as well as Officers, owing to their high Spirit and Anxiety to possess themselves of the Enemy's Guns; they quitted the Ravines and gained the Glacis, driving the Enemy from their Position; in effecting which, from being close under the Fort, they were exposed to a very heavy Fire.

My Thanks are due to the Honorable Major-General St. John, for his spirited Conduct in advancing at the Head of the 2d Battalion of the 2d Native Infantry, which I found it necessary to order up to support the Attack.

Brigadier-General Clarke, in his Attack on the Town, met with considerable Resistance, which, by the gallant Conduct of the Officers and Men under his Command, was at length surmounted. I feel myself under particular Obligations to Lieutenant-Colonel White, who commanded Five Companies of the 16th Regiment Native Infantry, for his judicious and gallant Conduct on this Day.

I feel myself under the greatest Obligations to Lieutenant-Colonel Gerrard, Adjutant General, who undertook to point out to Lieutenant-Colonel M'Culloch the Road he was to pursue, and I am sorry to report, that in the Performance of this Duty he received a very severe Contusion, but I trust it will not be attended with any serious Consequences.

Major Thomas, of the 14th Native Infantry, is, I am sorry to add; very severely wounded. His Exertions throughout this Day were most meritorious.

Lieutenant Hay of the Artillery, who went with a Detachment of that Corps to bring off the Enemy's Guns, merits my Approbation for his successful Exertions in this Service.

To Mr. Lucan's Information and Exertions on this Occasion, as well as on every other, I feel myself much indebted.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

MY LORD,

I HAVE the Satisfaction to inform your Lordship, that the Battalions, who were opposed to us in the Affair of the 10th Instant, came over last Night, and are now encamped near us.

Their Number is about Two Thousand Five Hundred.

I have Reason to believe that their Compliance with my Terms was chiefly owing to the severe Loss and complete Defeat they experienced in the Affair of the 10th Instant. By their own Accounts, the Loss they sustained was upwards of Six Hundred killed.

MY LORD,

I HAVE the Honor to inform your Lordship, that about Noon Yesterday I received Note, No. 1. addressed to the Officer commanding in the Trenches; in consequence of which I ordered all Firing to cease till Four in the Evening, and in my Answer, No. 2. desired a confidential Person might be sent to my Camp.

About Two o'Clock, Colonel Sutherland, whom they liberated from Confinement for that Purpose, arrived in my Camp with Letters, No. 3. and No. 4.

As it appeared their Wish that I should send an Officer into the Fort, I requested Captain Salkeld to accompany Colonel Sutherland thither with my Replies, No. 5. and No. 6. to explain to the Garrison the Terms on which they would be allowed to surrender.

Captain Salkeld saw all the Native Chiefs, and found that they were not decided in their Opinions on the Subject. They started several Difficulties, and whilst he was endeavouring to remove these, the Firing from the Fort recommenced, without any evident Cause, which induced him to return to Camp.

Being desirous, from Motives of Humanity, to induce them to listen to my Terms, a Messenger entrusted with a Letter from me was again sent this Morning. They have refused, however, all Inter-course, from which I am inclined to think that their only Object, Yesterday, was to gain Time.

My grand Batteries will open on the Morning of the 16th, and I have Reason to think that soon afterwards a practicable Breach will be effected.

SIR,

WE have the Honor to inform your Excellency, that notwithstanding the past violent and unwarrantable Proceedings of the People of the Fort, they have at last become a little more reasonable, from our repeatedly telling them that any further Resistance on their Part would avail them nothing, but, on the contrary, would exasperate your Excellency and the Troops under your Command so as to exterminate the Whole of them, if a Storm took Place. Their Commandants have consequently come to us this Forenoon in a Body, and requested of us to forward to your Excellency the accompanying Proposal for the Surrender of the Fort, to which their respective Names are affixed.

Should any unforeseen Deviation from their Proposal take Place, as we are still their Prisoners, we Hope your Excellency will not impute to us the Blame

Their Proposal is to deliver up the Fort, Guns, Stores, &c. to your Excellency, at any Time after the Receipt of this you may think proper; Protection to themselves and private Property, after delivering up the Sircar's Arms and Property; and be allowed to remain in the City, or to go wherever their Families may be.

No. 6

HIS Excellency General Lake engages that all the Officers and Sepoys, who are within the Fort of Akberabad, shall be allowed to proceed in the most honorable Manner, with their Clothes, whithersoever they may choose.—No Interruption whatever will be given to those Officers and Sepoys, their Families and Children. But all Arms and Military Weapons, Muskets, and Guns, Carts and Carriages, and Treasure which may be within the Fort, shall belong to the Company.

The Officers, &c. shall not be allowed to carry out of the Fort any Money or Effects of the above Description.

The Officers, &c. are required to specify in Writing the Hour at which they may determine with the Bearer of this Engagement, to surrender the Fort, in order that the British Troops may enter the Fort.

God is witness to the Sincerity of this Engagement.

To His Excellency the Most Noble Marquis Wellesley,
Governor-General, &c. &c. &c.

MY LORD,

I HAVE the Pleasure to inform your Lordship, that the important Forts of Agra, termed by the Natives The Key of Hindostan, capitulated last Night, and the Garrison, consisting of between Five and Six Thousand Men, marched out at Noon this Day, when the Place was immediately occupied by our Troops under the Command of Brigadier-General Macdonald.

The only Terms required by the Garrison, were Protection to their Persons and private Property, which was agreed to on my Part.

I attribute the early Surrender of this Place to the great Impression our Breaching Batteries, which opened Yesterday Morning within Three Hundred and Fifty Yards, made on the Walls, and which would have caused a practicable Breach in a few Hours more battering.

To Colonel Horsford of the Artillery, and Captain Wood of the Corps of Engineers, as well as to every other Officer in those two Corps, I feel myself under great Obligations for their unremitting Exertions on this Occasion, and to which I principally attribute my early Success against this Place.

I have the Pleasure to say, our Loss since the Construction of the Batteries has been very trifling. Three European Artillery Men, and Three Golumdauze killed, are the only Casualties.

A Return of the Ordnance, Stores, &c. found in the Fort, I shall have the Honor to forward for your Lordship's Information To-morrow.

SIR,

I REQUEST you will be pleased to state to His Excellency the Most Noble the Governor-General, that the Barabatty Fort has this Instant been taken by Assault.

Lieutenant Colonel Clayton, of the 20th Bengal Regiment, who commanded the Attack, not having yet made his Report to me, I am not enabled to forward to you for His Excellency's Information, the regular Details of this Success, but I understand his Conduct, and that of the Troops under his Orders, to have been most honorable and brilliant.

The Fortress is of considerable Strength, and was vigorously defended; added to which, every possible Obstruction was prepared by the Enemy.

Our Loss on this Occasion, I trust, has not been very considerable; but I shall have the Honor of forwarding to you, for His Excellency's Information, Returns of the Whole To-morrow.

(ENCLOSURE, No. VI.)

To Captain Armstrong, Adding Military Secretary to His Excellency the Most Noble the Governor-General

SIR,

I HAD the Honor of briefly stating to you Yesterday, for the Information of His Excellency the Most Noble the Governor General, that the Fort of Barabatty had been taken by Assault, by a Part of the Troops under my Command, directed to perform this Service under the Orders of Lieutenant-Colonel Clayton of the 20th Bengal Regiment. I now have the Honor to acquaint you, for His Excellency Information, with the further Details of this Operation.

On the Night of the 12th, a Spot was fixed on for a Twelve-Pounder Battery, distant about Five Hundred Yards from the outer Gate of the Fort. This Battery was completed on the Night of the 13th, and the Twelve-Pounder placed in it, together with two Howitzers, and two Six Pounders, the whole of which opened their Fire on the Morning of the 14th. By Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon most of the Defences on the South Face of the Fort, against which our Fire was directed, were taken off, the Enemy's Guns silenced, and every Appearance promised Success, upon which I directed Lieutenant-Colonel Clayton to advance with one Six-Pounder, and a Party of Artillery Men, Two Hundred Europeans from His Majesty's 22d, and the Madras European Regiment, and Four Hundred Sepoys from the 20th Bengal, and the 9th and 19th Regiments of Madras Native Infantry. The Party had to pass over a narrow Ridge, and under a very heavy but ill directed Fire of Musquetry from the Fort, to which they were exposed for Forty Minutes. They at length succeeded in blowing open the Wicket (the remaining Part of the Gate having been fortified with thick Masses of Stone). Having once accomplished this, the Party entered singly, and although they met with considerable Resistance whilst entering the Fort, and passing Two other Gates, the British Troops were soon completely victorious.

I cannot too highly praise the Conduct of Lieutenant-Colonel Clayton, and that of the Officers and Troops under his Command: the whole Party manifested a Degree of persevering Steadiness and Bravery that does them infinite Honor.

The Fort of Barabatty is of considerable Strength, and, with the Exception only of the Bridge over which our Party passed, is inaccessible, as it is surrounded by a Ditch from Thirty-five to One Hundred and Thirty-five Feet Broad, and Twenty Feet Depth of Water in it.

I am happy to acquaint you that our Loss has not been considerable, but I have to report with regret, that Captain Kenny of the 19th Regiment of Madras Infantry, Captain Hurlstone of His Majesty's 22d Regiment, and Lieutenant Faithful of the Bengal Artillery, are wounded, though not dangerously: their Conduct was highly meritorious, as well as that of every other Officer on the storming Party.

Returns of the Killed and Wounded are enclosed.

I cannot omit expressing in the strongest Manner the high Sense I entertain of the Services of Captain Blunt, Field Engineer, who has been throughout our Campaign indefatigably active; and of Captain Hetzler, of the Bengal Artillery, whose well directed Fire from the Battery was of eminent Service.

The Loss of the Enemy within the Fort was very considerable, and many were drowned in the Ditch when endeavouring to escape.

I should not omit mentioning, that a Stand of Colours of the Enemy was taken by the Detachment of His Majesty's 22d Regiment, a Second Stand of Colours by the 20th Bengal Regiment, a Third by the 9th Madras Native Regiment, and a Fourth by the 19th Madras Native Regiment; and for the Disposal of which I hope to be honored with his Excellency's Commands.

The zealous and efficient Services of Major of Brigade Thompson demand my warmest Acknowledgments, and I must further beg leave to report to you, for His Excellency's Information, that the general Conduct of the whole Force under my Command has been such as to merit the most favorable Representation of their Services to His Excellency's Notice.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

GENERAL ORDERS, by His Excellency the Most Noble the Governor-General in Council.

Fort William, October 22, 1803.

THE Governor-General in Council notifies to the Army his high Approbation of the meritorious Services of the Officers and Troops employed under the able Conduct of Lieutenant-Colonel George Harcourt, in the Expedition prepared under the special Orders of His Excellency in Council, for the Occupation of the valuable Province of Cuttack.

His Excellency in Council observed with great Satisfaction the Judgment, Skill, and Firmness manifested by Lieutenant-Colonel Harcourt, in directing the Movement of the Division of the Troops, which entered the Province of Cuttack from Ganjam.

The Difficulties opposed to the Progress of the Troops by the peculiar Nature of the Country, by the Period of the Season, and by the Resistance of the Enemy, were surmounted by Lieutenant-Colonel Harcourt, and by the brave Officers and Troops under his Command, with the same Spirit of Gallantry and Perseverance which has secured the Success of every Operation of the British Army in every Part of India during this glorious Campaign.

The Governor-General in Council highly approves the judicious Arrangements prepared by Lieutenant-Colonel Harcourt for the Siege and Assault of the Fort of Barabutty at Cuttack, and the spirited Exertion by which that important Service was executed with Success and Honor on the 14th instant.

His Excellency in Council directs Lieutenant-Colonel Harcourt to signify his distinguished Approbation of the Merits of Lieutenant-Colonel Clayton of the Bengal 20th Regiment Native Infantry, who commanded the Attack, and of the Steadiness and Bravery of all the Officers and Troops employed in the Assault of the Fort.

It affords considerable Satisfaction to the Governor-General in Council to remark, that this important Service has been effected with so little Loss, and His Excellency trusts that Captain Hurlstone of His Majesty's 22d Regiment, Captain Kenny of the 19th Regiment of Madras Native Infantry, and Lieutenant Faithful of the Bengal Artillery, will speedily be restored to the public Service, in which their Courage and Resolution have already been distinguished.

The Governor-General in Council expresses his Sense of the Activity, Zeal, and useful Services of Captain Blunt, Field Engineer in Cuttack, and also of the Conduct of Captain Hetzler of the Bengal Artillery.

The Colours taken in the Assault of the Fort of Cuttack by the Detachments of His Majesty's 22d Regiment, the 20th Bengal Native Regiment, and the 9th and 19th Madras Native Regiments, are to be publicly displayed in the Fort of Cuttack, and afterwards lodged in the principal Building in the Fort, with an Inscription signifying the Names of the Corps by which the Standards were respectively taken from the Enemy.

His Excellency in Council expresses the Satisfaction with which he has noticed the zealous and efficient Services of Major of Brigade Thompson.

During the Advance of the Force under the immediate Direction of Lieutenant-Colonel Harcourt from Ganjam, the Conduct of the Officers and Troops employed at Balasore under the Command of Captain Morgan of the 7th Bengal Native Regiment, and of that which marched from Jellalore under the Command of Lieutenant Colonel Ferguson of the same Regiment, merits the public Approbation of His Excellency in Council.

The Governor-General in Council particularly approves the firm and skilful Conduct of Captain Morgan, in directing the Disembarkation of the Troops at Balasore, and in the judicious Occupation and Maintenance of that Position. His Excellency in Council also expresses his just Sense of the meritorious and useful Assistance rendered by Captain P. Grant of the 16th Regiment of Bengal Native Infantry, in the Execution of every Branch of the Service at Balasore, and in aiding the Progress of Lieutenant-Colonel Ferguson's Detachment.

Great Advantage has been derived to the Success of our Arms in Cuttack from the Respect which has been uniformly observed by Lieutenant-Colonel Harcourt, and by all the Officers and Troops under his immediate Command, as well as by the Detachments co-operating from Balasore and Jellalore, towards the religious Establishments in Cuttack, and from the exemplary Humanity with which the Lives and private Property of the Inhabitants, and the Sanctity of the Temples and Institutions of the Brahmins have been protected from Violation.

The Governor-General notices with peculiar Pleasure the Merits of Lieutenant-Colonel Harcourt, and of the Officers and Troops serving in Cuttack in this respect, as tending to maintain the Honor of the British Character, and to conciliate the Confidence and Attachment of the Inhabitants of that valuable Province.

By Command of His Excellency the Most Noble the Governor-General in Council, L. HOOK, Secretary to the Govt. Mil. Dept.

HONORABLE SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to transmit, for your Information, Copy of my Letter of this Day's Date, with Inclosures to the Honorable Major General Arthur Wellesley.

We have taken at least Twenty Stands of Colours from the Arabs and Scindians. I have only been able to collect Ten, at present, which, together with the Colours of the Fort, I shall have the Pleasure to send to the Presidency by the earliest Opportunity.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

H. WOODINGTON, Lieut. Col. &c.
Baroach, Aug. 30, 1803.

P. S. Since writing the above, I have Three more Stands of Arab Colours brought to me, besides which I have, at Major Cuyler's particular Request, permitted the 86th Regiment to keep Two, making in all Fifteen.

To the Honorable Major General Arthur Wellesley, Commander in Chief of the British Forces on the Western-side of India.

SIR,

I WROTE you Yesterday Evening, after we had stormed and taken Possession of the Fort of Baroach. I have now the Honor of acquainting you more fully on the Subject.

The Breach was reported practicable by the Engineer at Eleven A. M. when I determined to storm, but delayed it until Three o'Clock, not only that I might benefit by the Assistance of the Fury and an armed Boat, which I expected would arrive in Time to take their Stations opposite the Fort, but as I thought that a very likely Hour to find the Enemy off their Guard.

The Vessel and armed Boat, however, did not arrive in Time to afford any Assistance.

The inclosed Orders for the Storm will inform you of the Disposition I made, as will the accompanying Profile and Elevation of the Western Front of the Fort.

The Enemy made a desperate Attack in opposing our Entrance into the Breach, but by the Valour and Spirit of the Troops were speedily repulsed, and my Orders were carried into full Execution. After Captain Richardson had obtained Possession of the first Gate, Major Cuyler pushed on so rapidly that he overtook the Arabs before the greatest Part, both Horse and Foot, could get out of the Gate, and put to Death about Two Hundred of them. Many Horses were also killed.

I beg leave to submit to your Notice the ready Co-operation of Major Cuyler throughout every Part of the Service, his Gallantry and Conduct in the Command of the Storm, as also of Captain Richardson who led.

The whole of the Officers and Men employed on this Service have conducted themselves so much to my Satisfaction, that I cannot express myself too strongly in their Commendation.

I am now employed in establishing some Order in the Fort, in getting the Eighteen Pounders, and every Thing we do not want to move with into it, also in burying the Enemy's dead, amounting to about Two Hundred and Fifty.

I have great Pleasure in informing you that our Loss is small. Captain MacLaurin, of His Majesty's 86th, the only Officer wounded, and not badly. A Return of the Killed and Wounded in the Storm, as also a general Return of the Killed and Wounded during the Siege, I enclose.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

HENRY WOODINGTON, Lieut. Col.
Baroach, August 30, 1803.

Baroach, Monday, August 29, 1803.

FIELD ORDERS, by Lieutenant Colonel Woodington.

Parole, Britannia—Counter-sign, Success.

Storming Party under the Command of Major Cuyler.

Forlorn Hope—A Serjeant, and Twelve Volunteers of His Majesty's 86th Regiment.

1st. Party to lead under Captain Richardson.

One Hundred Rank and File of His Majesty's 86th Regiment, including one Flank Company, and One Hundred Rank and File of the Grenadier Battalion, including one Flank Company.

2d. Party under Major Cuyler.

One Hundred and Fifty Rank and File of His Majesty's 86th Regiment, including one Flank Company, and One Hundred and Fifty Rank and File of the Grenadier Battalion, including One Flank Company: each Party to have Hoes, Pickaxes, and Crows with them, carried by Soldiers; the Scaling Ladders (to be used if necessary) to be also carried by Soldiers.

Reserve under Captain Bethune,

One Hundred Rank and File of His Majesty's 86th Regiment, and One Hundred Rank and File of the Grenadier Battalion.

These Parties will parade and be formed in the Streets the Troops occupy at Two o'Clock, and then be completed to Thirty-Six Rounds, and well flinted; after which they will be marched up to the Rear of the Battery, under Cover from the View of the Fort, and wait in the utmost Silence, until the Signal from Two Six-Pounders, fired quick one after the other, directs their Advance to storm the Breach. The Reserve will follow the Storming Party, and after having entered the Breach, Captain Bethune will immediately form his Men, and wait to act as Circumstances may direct. Twenty Boxes of Musket Ammunition to be taken in with Captain Bethune's Party.

On entering the Breach, Captain Richardson will turn to the Left, and march by the Works to take Possession of the Cutoopoor Gate. Major Cuyler's Party will follow, and push on also by the Works to take Possession of the Jaraseer Gate. When these Gates are obtained, the Works are to be cleared of any Parties of the Enemy in their Vicinity, and the Men to be kept under Arms, ready to act at a Moment's Warning.

MY LORD,

I HAVE the Honor to inform your Lordship, that in consequence of the Hour fixed upon by His Majesty, I Yesterday, attended by the Chief Officers of the Army, waited on His Majesty at his Palace in the Fort.

Akber Shah, His Majesty's eldest Son, came to my Camp to conduct me.

His Majesty received me seated on his Throne, when the Presents were delivered, and the Forms usual on those Occasions were observed.

His Majesty and his Whole Court were unanimous in testifying their Joy at the Change that has taken place in their Fortunes.

(ENCLOSURE, No. VIII.)

GENERAL ORDERS, by His Excellency the Most Noble the Governor-General in Council.

Fort William, October 14, 1803.

THE Governor-General in Council derives general Satisfaction from the Intelligence which he has received of the Reduction of the Fort and City of Baroach, on the 29th of August, and of the Ability, Promptitude, and Gallantry with which that important Service was accomplished by the brave Officers and Troops, under the Command of Lieutenant Colonel Woodington, of the Establishment of Bombay.

His Excellency in Council highly approves the Conduct of Lieutenant-Colonel Woodington, in his judicious and spirited Exertions for the early Reduction of the Place; in directing the Operations of the Siege; in his seasonable Determination to assault the Fort; and in the Disposition which he made of the Troops under his Command, with a View to secure the rapid Success of that gallant Attack.

The Governor-General in Council signifies his particular Approbation of the Valour and Judgment manifested by Major Cuyler, of His Majesty's 86th Regiment, throughout the Service at Baroach, and in commanding the Storm of the Fort, and by Captain Richardson, of the same Corps, in leading the Assault. His Excellency in Council also observes with particular Satisfaction the Conduct of Captain Cliffe, of the Engineers of Bombay.

To all the Officers and Troops, European and Native, employed on this honorable Occasion, His Excellency in Council signifies his high Commendation.

The Governor-General in Council laments the Loss of Captain W. Semple, of His Majesty's 86th Regiment, killed on the 25th of August, and of the few brave Men who fell before Baroach. It is a great Satisfaction however to observe, that an Acquisition so important should have been secured with the Loss of only one Officer, and of so few Soldiers.

In bearing a due Testimony to the Merits of the Officers and Troops employed in the Reduction of Baroach on the 29th of August, the Governor-General in Council remarks, that on the same Day, distinguished by the Commencement of the victorious Career of the Army of Bengal, under the personal Command of His Excellency General Lake, upon the Frontier of Oude, the Army of Bombay at the Western Extremity of the Peninsula of India, effected a Service of the most arduous Nature, with a similar Spirit of Alacrity and Courage.

In the Course of an extensive and complicated System of Military Operations, the glorious Success of our Arms since the Commencement of this War has been uniform in every Part of India: The able and gallant Officers and Troops of His Majesty's Service, and of the several Establishments of the Three Presidencies, have been actuated by equal Sentiments of public Spirit and Honor, and have co-operated with equal Ardour and Success, in an united Effort to accomplish the just Objects of the Allies. The Governor General in Council confides in the Justice of our Cause, in the unanimous Zeal of the Three Presidencies, and in the continued Co-operation of their respective Resources and Power, that the Views of the confederate Chieftains will be speedily frustrated by the complete Restoration of Peace and Tranquillity to the Provinces of Hindoostan and the Dekan, which have been disturbed by the Ambition and Violence of the Enemy.

The Governor General in Council directs, that Copies of this Order be transmitted to the Right Honorable the Governor in Council at Fort St. George, and to the Honorable the Governor in Council at Bombay, to be published to the Army of those Presidencies respectively.

By Command of His Excellency the most Noble the Governor-General in Council,

(ENCLOSURE, No: IX)

Fort William, November 1, 1801.

DISPATCHES have been received this Day from the Honorable Major General Wellesley, under Date the 6th of October 1803, containing Intelligence, that, on the 5th of October, Major General Wellesley had received a Letter from the Enemy's Camp, signed by Ballajee Khoonjur, One of the Ministers of Dowlut Row Scindiah, requesting that Major General Wellesley would dispatch a British Officer, together with an Officer of the Subahdar of the Dekan, to the Enemy's Camp, for the Purpose of negotiating Terms of Peace between the Allies, and the confederate Marhattah Chieftains.

Major General Wellesley had not complied with this Request, but had signified his Disposition to receive at the British Camp, with every Mark of Honor and Respect, any Person duly empowered by the direct Authority of Dowlut Row Scindiah, or of the Rajah of Berar, to propose Terms of Peace to the Allied Powers.

Published by Command of His Excellency the Most Noble the Governor General in Council.

J. LUMSDEN, Chief Sec. to the Gov.

GENERAL ORDERS, by His Excellency the Most Noble the Governor General in Council.

Fort William, October 30, 1803.

THE Governor General in Council has this Day received from Major General the Honorable Arthur Wellesley, the Official Report of the signal and splendid Victory obtained by the Troops under the personal Command of that distinguished Officer, on the 23d September, at Assye, in the Dekkan, over the Combined Armies of Dowlut Rao Scindiah and the Rajah of Berar.

At the Close of a Campaign of the most brilliant Success in every Quarter of India, this transcendent Victory demands a Testimony of public Honor, equal to any which the Justice of the British Government in India has ever conferred on the Conduct of our Officers and Troops, in the most distinguished Period of our military History.

The Governor General, in Council, highly approves the skilful Plan formed by Major General Wellesley on the 21st of September, for precluding the Escape of the Enemy, and for reducing their Combined Army to the Necessity of hazarding a general Action.

His Excellency, in Council, also signifies his most cordial Approbation of the Magnanimity, Promptitude, and Judgment with which Major-General Wellesley determined upon the instantaneous Attack of the Enemy on the 23d of September.

During the severe Action which ensued, the Conduct of Major-General Wellesley united a Degree of Ability, of Prudence, and of dauntless Spirit, seldom equalled, and never surpassed.

The Governor-General in Council signifies his warmest Applause of the exemplary Order and Steadiness with which the Troops advanced under a most destructive Fire, against a Body of the Enemy's Infantry, considerably superior in Number, and determined to oppose a vigorous Resistance to our Attack. The numerous Infantry of the Enemy were driven from their powerful Artillery at the Point of the Bayonet, with an Alacrity and Resolution truly worthy of British Soldiers, and the Firmness and Discipline manifested by our brave Infantry, in repelling the great Body of the Enemy's Cavalry, merit the highest Commendation.

The Governor-General in Council has remarked with great Satisfaction the gallant and skilful Conduct of the Cavalry, commanded by Lieutenant-Colonel Maxwell, and particularly of His Majesty's 19th Regiment of Light Dragoons, a Corps distinguished in India by a long and uninterrupted Course of arduous Service and of progressive Honor.

His Excellency in Council directs Major General Wellesley to signify to all the Officers and Troops employed on this glorious Occasion, and especially to Lieutenant-Colonel Harness and to Lieutenant-Colonel Wallace, who commanded Brigades, and to the Officers of the Staff, the high Sense entertained by the Governor General in Council of their eminent and honorable Services.

The important Benefits resulting from the Triumph of our Arms in the Battle of Assye are not inferior to the Splendor of the Action. The immediate Consequences derived from the Exertions of that Day, have been the complete Defeat of the Combined Army of the confederate Chieftains; an irreparable Blow to the Strength and Efficiency of their military Resources, especially of their Artillery, in the Dekkan; the Expulsion of an hostile and predatory Army from the Territory of our Ally the Subahdar of the Dekkan; and a seasonable and effectual Check to the Ambition, Pride, and Audacity of the Enemy.

The prosperous Result of these Advantages must be accelerated by the auspicious Progress of our Arms in other Provinces of India, and it may reasonably be expected that the decisive Victories gained at Delhi and Assye, on the 11th and 23d of September, will speedily compel the Enemy to restore Peace to Hindoostan and to the Dekkan.

The Achievements of our Commanders, Officers, and Troops, during this Campaign, and especially in the signal Victories of Delhi and of Assye, must inspire a general Sentiment of just Confidence in the Vigour of our Military Resources, and in the Stability of our Dominion and Power. Our uniform

Success in frustrating every Advantage of superior Numbers, of powerful Artillery, and even of obstinate Resistance, opposed by the Enemy, constitutes a satisfactory Proof of the established Superiority of British Discipline, Experience, and Valour; and demonstrates, that the glorious Progress of our Arms is not the accidental Result of a temporary or transient Advantage, but the natural and certain Effect of a permanent Cause.

From these Reflections Consolation is to be derived for the Loss of those lamented and honored Officers and Soldiers, who, animated by the gallant Spirit of their General, and emulating the noble Example of his Zeal and Courage, sacrificed their Lives to the Honor and Interests of their Country.

The Governor-General in Council greatly regrets the Loss of Lieutenant-Colonel Maxwell of His Majesty's 19th Dragoons, who fell at the Head of the British Cavalry, bravely charging a large Body of the Enemy's Infantry. With the utmost Concern his Excellency in Council records the Names of the valuable and excellent Officers who have fallen with Glory at the Battle of Assye, in achieving the complete Defeat of the Enemy, and in establishing the Triumphs of the British Arms in the Dekkan. Lieutenant Colonel Maxwell; Captains R. Boyle, H. Mackey; D. Aytone, A. Dyce, R. Macleod, and T. Maxwell; Captain-Lieutenants Steele and Fowler; Lieutenants Bonomi, Griffith, J. Campbell, J. M. Campbell, J. Grant, R. Nelson, L. Campbell, M. Morris, and J. Douglas; Lieutenants Brown, Mavor, Perrie; and Volunteer Tew.

In Testimony of the high Honor acquired by the Army under the personal Command of Major-General Wellesley at the Battle of Assye, the Governor-General in Council is pleased to order, that honorary Colours, with a Device properly suited to commemorate that signal and splendid Victory, be presented to the Corps of Cavalry and Infantry employed on that glorious Occasion. The Names of the brave Officers and Men who fell at the Battle of Assye will be commemorated, together with the Circumstances of the Action, upon the public Monument to be erected at Fort William, to the Memory of those who have fallen in the public Service during the present Campaign.

The honorary Colours granted by these Orders to His Majesty's 19th Regiment of Dragoons, and to the 74th and 78th Regiments of Foot, are to be used by those Corps while they shall continue in India, or until His Majesty's most gracious Pleasure be signified through his Excellency the Commander in Chief.

His Excellency the Most Noble the Governor-General, Captain General and Commander in Chief of all the Land Forces serving in the East Indies, is pleased to direct, that these Orders be publicly read to the Troops under Arms, at every Station of the Land Forces in the East Indies, and that the European Officers of the Native Corps do cause the same to be duly explained to the Native Officers and Troops.

By Command of his Excellency the Most Noble the Governor-General in Council,

L. HOOK, Sec. to Gov. Mil. Dep.

Major-General Nicolls.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to enclose a Letter which I received this Morning from Lieutenant-Colonel Woodington. It is necessary to inform you, that the Delay of this important Communication arises from the Misarrangement of the Colonel's Letter, although sent in Duplicate.

Colonel Woodington highly praises the Zeal and Activity of the Troops under his Command, and to judge by their Success, the Praise is well merited.

Colonel Woodington has in a most particular Manner requested, that I should lay the meritorious Services of Serjeant Moore, of His Majesty's 86th Regiment, before you. He led the Forlorn Hope at the Assault of Broach, and behaved with the utmost Gallantry on that Occasion. Major Cuyler speaks highly in Favor of his general Character.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

No. 2.

To Colonel Murray, commanding the Forces in the Guzerat.

SIR,

IN Consequence of your Communication to me last Night, that you had not received my official Communication on the Surrender of Powaughur by Capitulation, I have the Honor to address you again on the Subject.

After a Breach had been effected in the Wall of the inner Fort, as also that another was almost practicable in a Tower at the Angle of the outer Fort, the Garrison offered to capitulate on the Morning of the 17th, on Condition of being protected in their Persons and private Property. To these Terms I agreed, on Condition of immediately taking Possession of the Breach in the inner Wall with a Company of Sepoys: they however tacked other Stipulations to the Capitulation, viz. that I should agree to pay them the Arrears due from Scindiah, and that Two of the Commanders of the Guicawar Cavalry with me (amounting to about 300 Horse) should sign the Agreement. To these latter Articles I would on no Account agree, and it was not until Four P. M. when they found, from our continuing to batter, that I would admit of no Delay, that they agreed to the original Terms, which were immediately carried into full Effect, by their Evacuation of the Fort and Mountain, of which we took Possession.

If this had not taken Place I had made the necessary Arrangements for Storming both Breaches on the Morning of the 18th, and I conceive that the Garrison were intimidated from a Knowledge that, if they opposed us on our entering the Breaches, their Communication with the upper Fort would be cut off, and they had no other Way to Escape than the Road which led down by our Battery.

Could they have obtained Possession of the upper Fort, or Balla Killa, at the Top of the Mountain, I am inclined to think it utterly impregnable.

I have left Captain Cliffe of the Engineers to take a Plan and View of the Forts and Works on the Mountain, which I doubt not, from his known Abilities, will be ably executed.

It is with the greatest Pleasure, that I embrace this Opportunity of submitting for your Notice, the Merits, Zeal, and great Exertions of all Ranks on this Service.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

Rangoon, the 9th Instant.*

SIR,

I HEREWITH transmit, for their Lordships' Information, a Copy of a Letter which I have this Morning received from Rear-Admiral Thornbrough, inclosing one to him from Captain Hardinge, of His Majesty's Sloop the Scorpion, in which he reports the successful Issue of a most gallant and spirited Attack which was made by Captains Hardinge and Pelly with the Boats of the Scorpion and Beaver on the Dutch National Brig Atalante, at Anchor within the Vlie Roads, on the 31st of last Month.

Although the Brilliancy of this Service can receive no additional Lullre from any Commendation that it is in my Power to bestow, I obey the Dictates of both Duty and Inclination in recommending the distinguished Services of Captains Hardinge and Pelly, and of the Officers and Men employed under them on this Occasion, to the Consideration of their Lordships, who will not fail to observe the Delicacy with which Captain Hardinge refrains in his Narrative from any Mention whatever of himself, nor to recollect that Captain Pelly was promoted to the Rank of a Commander in consequence of his being most severely wounded in the Performance of his Duty before Boulogne.

I am, &c.

KEITH.

*Defence, 4th April 1804, Kykdon
East 8 Leagues.*

MY LORD,

I HAVE the Honor to inform your Lordship, that I detached the Scorpion Sloop on the 23th Ultimo to cruize off the Vlie Passage, in order to watch the Motions of the Enemy in that Quarter, having previously received Information that Two Dutch National Brigs were at Anchor in the Vlie Road. I have now the Satisfaction of stating to your Lordship, that I was Yesterday Afternoon joined by the Scorpion and Beaver Sloops, bringing with them the Atalanta Dutch National Brig, One of the Vessels above alluded to, and the Commodore of a small Squadron placed there, for the Protection of that Passage and Road, which they carried in the most gallant and spirited Manner, although she was fully prepared for the Contest, having Boarding Netting triced up, and defended in the most obstinate Manner; so determined was the Captain that he refused Quarter when most generously offered him, and fell in the Defence of his Brig: she carries Sixteen long Twelve Pounders, is the largest and finest Vessel of her Class I ever saw, is only Three Years old, and, in my Opinion, will make a most complete Sloop of War.

I have the Honor of enclosing to your Lordship a Copy of Captain Hardinge's Letter to me upon the Subject, and must beg Leave to remark, that both Captains Hardinge and Pelly were personally engaged in the Enterprize, which I trust will recommend them to your Lordship's Protection.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

His Majesty's Sloop Scorpion off the Vlie, 3d April 1804.

SIR,

HAVING reconnoitered the Position of the two Men of War Brigs in the Vlie, I resolved to attempt the Outermost on the first favourable Opportunity.

When accidentally falling in with His Majesty's Sloop Beaver in her Way to her Station, on the 31st Ultimo, Captain Pelly very handsomely volunteered the Assistance of himself and his Boats.

The Attack was made the same Night; the Intrepidity of British Seamen overcame every Obstacle, (she being in all Respects prepared with Boarding-Netting, &c.) and after a sharp Contest we were in full Possession of her. She proves to be the Dutch National Brig Atalante, Captain Crisp, mounting Sixteen long Twelve Pounders, and had on board Seventy-six Men.

She is one of the largest Brigs in the Dutch Navy, is a remarkable fine Vessel, and in my Opinion admirably calculated for His Majesty's Service.

I am happy to add, it has not been attended with the Loss of one Man on our Part, and only five wounded. I beg Leave to say how much I am indebted to the Zeal and Gallantry of Captain Pelly, Lieutenants Blunt, White, and Shields, with Messrs. Williams and Fair, Masters, and the rest of the Petty Officers and Men, for their cool, steady, and determined Conduct throughout the Whole, as from a Shift of Wind we were unable to bring her out for Three Days. I herewith return Lists of the Killed and Wounded. I have the Honor to be, &c.

SIR,

YOU will be pleased to acquaint their Lordships that I detained, and have since liberated, the Purser, Pilot, and the Captain's Servant, of the Dutch National Brig, Atalanta, captured by the Scorpion and Beaver Sloops; and that I charged the latter with the Effects of his Master to be delivered to Admiral Killkert, for the Benefit of his Relations; I availed myself of the Opportunity of writing to the Admiral, a Copy of which Letter I herewith inclose for their Lordships' Perusal, and which I trust will meet their Approbation.

I am, &c. EDW. THORNBROUGH.

His Majesty's Ship Defence, off the Texel, April 4, 1804.

SIR,

THE Chance of War having put into our Possession the Atalante, Dutch National Brig, and being desirous of paying every Attention to the Memory of Captain Carp, her Commander, who gallantly fell at his Post, in the Defence of the Ship entrusted to his Care, I have sent his Servant to you with his Effects, in order that they may be delivered to his Relatives.

The English not considering Persons serving on board Ships of War in civil Capacities, as liable to be made Prisoners, I have liberated and sent on Shore the Purser and Pilot, that were taken on board the Atalante, and have charged the former with the Delivery of this Letter to you. I feel great Concern at having been under the Necessity of sending the Surgeon and wounded Men belonging to the Brig, to England; the Dictates of Humanity would have induced me to send them to the Helder, could I have been assured that my Flag of Truce would have been respected, and the Officers permitted to return, which has ever been the Custom with civilized Powers at War, until the last Summer, when an English Officer, going to Helvoet under a Flag of Truce, was detained and sent Prisoner into France: Enclosed I have sent an Inventory of Captain Carp's Effects.

CHIPPENHAM RIGHT OF ELECTION PETITION NOTICE.

Veneris, 13^o Die Aprilis 1804.

A BRAHAM LLOYD EDRIAGE, Henry Guy, James Morris Coombs, and others, Burgesses and Freemen, being Householders of and Residents in Antient Burgage Houses within the Borough of Chippenham, in the County of Wilts, having this Day presented a Petition to the House of Commons, setting forth,

That the Petitioners observe, by the Votes of the House, that a Petition has been presented to the House, signed by James Hyatt, Robert Wharry, and Joseph Gale, praying that they may be admitted as Parties to oppose that Right of Election that has been deemed valid in the Judgment of a Select Committee of this House, duly struck and sworn on the Tenth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three, to try the Merits of Two Petitions presented to the House on the Part of John Maitland, Esquire, and certain Electors of the said Borough, complaining of the Return of Charles Brooke, Esquire, to serve in Parliament for the said Borough of Chippenham, namely, "That the Right of Election for Burgesses to serve in Parliament for the said Borough was in the Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Freemen, being Householders of and Resident in the Ancient Burgage Houses within the Borough of Chippenham;" and that the Petitioners are fully satisfied with the said Determination of the said Select Committee, having always understood that such was the Right of Election, and such as had, Time immemorially, been deemed and taken to be the Usage and Right of Election used and adopted in the said Borough; and that if such Determination is altered, and the Right of Election declared to be as the said James Hyatt, Robert Wharry, and Joseph Gale pray—"in the Bailiff and Burgesses at large, (that is to say,) being Inhabitants paying or liable to pay Poor Rates," the Petitioners apprehend the same will be an Infringement upon the Rights, Franchises, and Privileges of the Petitioners, and others the Burgesses and Freemen, being Householders of and resident in the Ancient Burgage Houses within the said Borough; and therefore praying the House to admit them as Parties to defend the said Right of Election, as determined by the said Select Committee, and that they may be heard by their Counsel against the Petition of the said James Hyatt, Robert Wharry, and Joseph Gale, and that such other Relief may be granted to them as to the House shall seem meet:

I do hereby give Notice, that the House has appointed Tuesday the Eighth Day of May next, at Three of the Clock in the Afternoon, to take the said Petition into Consideration.

Given under my Hand this Thirteenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and four,
CHARLES ABBOT, Speaker.

THE following Dispatches have been received at the East India-House by Way of Bagdad :

To His Excellency the Most Noble Marquis Wellesley,
&c. &c. &c.

Camp, Four Miles to the Westward of Caffowly, Nov. 1, 1803.

MY LORD,
 I HAVE the Honor to inform your Excellency that I marched from Agra upon the 27th ultimo, in Pursuit of the Mahratta Force, which was composed of the Brigades which had been detached from the Dekhan, in the early Part of the Campaign, and of a few Battalions which had effected their Escape from Delhi. I was the more anxious to defeat this Corps from its being furnished with a numerous Artillery. Owing to the Detention the Army met with from a heavy Fall of Rain, it was not until the 29th that it reached a Camp to the Westward of the Futtipoor. From Intelligence I received here of the rapid Manner in which the Mahratta Army was moving, I determined to leave the heavy Artillery, with a proper Detachment of Infantry, for its Protection, and to pursue the Enemy by forced Marches, in the Hope of being able the more speedily to come up with him. On the 31st the Army encamped at a short Distance from the Ground which the Enemy had quitted the same Morning. Possessed of this Intelligence, I resolved to make an Effort to overtake him with all the Cavalry of the Army, in the Intention of delaying him, by a light Engagement, until the Infantry should be able to come up. To this End the Cavalry marched at Twelve last Night, and having performed a Distance of more than Forty Miles in Twenty-four Hours, came up with the Enemy this Morning, soon after Day-break. From the sudden Manner in which I came upon the Enemy, I ventured to make an Attack with the Cavalry alone, supported by the Mounted Artillery; but finding him too advantageously posted to hope for complete Success without too much Risk, I drew the Cavalry out of Reach of Cannon Shot, and waited the Arrival of the Infantry. Soon after their Arrival I made a general Attack upon the Enemy's Position, the Result of which I have the Satisfaction of informing your Excellency has been a complete, though I sincerely lament to add, dear bought Victory.

The Enemy were totally defeated, with the Loss of all their Cannon, Tumbrils, and Baggage; but this important Advantage has only been gained by the Loss of many valuable Officers, the principal of whom are Major General Ware, Colonel Vandeleur, Major Griffiths, Major Campbell, the Deputy Quarter-Master General, and my Aide-de-Camp, Lieutenant Duval, who gloriously fell in this honourable Contest.

I have not been able to ascertain the exact Account of our Loss in Killed and Wounded, Returns of which, with a detailed Account of this important Affair, I shall have the Honor of transmitting to your Excellency by the first Opportunity.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

To His Excellency the Most Noble Marquis Wellesley,
&c. &c. &c.

MY LORD,

IN my Dispatch of Yesterday's Date I did myself the Honor to state, for your Lordship's Information, some Particulars of the March of the Army from Agra to the Camp it now occupies, together with the general Result of the Action, which took place Yesterday. I now have the Honor to send your Excellency a more detailed Account of that Affair.

After a forced March of Twenty-five Miles, which was performed by the Cavalry in a little more than Six Hours, I came up with the Enemy, who appeared to be upon their Retreat, and in such Confusion, that I was tempted to try the Effect of an Attack upon him with the Cavalry alone. By cutting the Embankment of a large Reservoir of Water, the Enemy had rendered the Road very difficult to pass, which caused a considerable Delay in the Advance of the Cavalry; of this the Enemy had availed himself to take an advantageous Post, having his Right upon a Rivulet, which we had to cross, and his Left upon the Village of Saswarce; the whole of his Front was amply provided with Artillery. I was prevented from discovering this Change in the Situation of the Enemy, by the Quantity of Dust, which, when once clear of the Water, totally obscured him from our Sight; I therefore proceeded in the Execution of my Design, by which I hoped to prevent his Retreat into the Hills, and secure his Guns; directing the Advanced Guard and first Brigade commanded by Colonel Vandeleur, upon the Point where I had observed the Enemy in Motion, but which proved to be the Left of his new Position; the Remainder of the Cavalry I ordered to attack in Succession, as soon as they could form after passing the Rivulet.

The Charge of the Advanced Guard under Major Griffith, and that of the First Brigade led by Colonel Vandeleur, was made with much Gallantry; the Enemy's Line was forced, and the Cavalry penetrated into the Village; they still however continued to be exposed to a most galling Fire of Cannon and Musquetry, which, as it was impossible under such Circumstances to form the Squadrons for a fresh Attack, determined me to withdraw them. The Guns which had fallen into our Hands, could not be brought away from the Want of Bullocks. In this Charge Colonel Vandeleur fell, mortally wounded; in him, the Service has lost a most valuable Officer.

The Attacks of the other Brigades were conducted with the same Spirit; but after taking several of the Enemies' Guns, being still fired upon without being able to discover the Enemy, they retired in good Order, retaining Possession of a Part of the Artillery. In the Performance of this Service, the Third Brigade, consisting of His Majesty's 29th Regiment, and the 4th Regiment of Native Cavalry, under the Command of that meritorious Officer, Colonel Macan, met my entire Approbation.

The Infantry having marched at Three A. M. arrived upon the Banks of the Rivulet about Eleven o'Clock. After so long a March it was absolutely necessary to allow some Time for the Men to refresh themselves, during which the Enemy sent in to say, that if certain Terms were allowed them, they were willing to surrender their Guns. Anxious to prevent the further Effusion of Blood, I directed a Letter to be written, acquiescing in their Proposals, and allowing them an Hour to decide. In the mean Time the several Columns for the Attack were formed. The Infantry formed in Two Columns upon the Left; the First, composed of the Right Wing, under the Command of Major General Ware, was destined to gain the Enemy's Right Flank, which he had thrown back since the Morning, leaving a considerable Space between it and the Rivulet, and to assault the Village of Safwaree; the Second, composed of the Left Wing under Major-General St. John, was to support the first Column; the Third Brigade of Cavalry, under Colonel Macan, was to support the Infantry; the Second Brigade, under Lieutenant-Colonel Vandeleur, was detached to the Right, to be ready to take Advantage of any Confusion in the Enemy's Line, and to attack him upon his Retreat. The Brigade under Colonel Gordon composed the Reserve, and was formed between the Second and Third Brigades. As many of the Field-Pieces as could be brought up with the Gallopers attached to the Cavalry, formed four different Batteries.

At the Expiration of the Time which I had allowed the Enemy to decide, I ordered the Infantry to advance; as soon as they became exposed to the Enemy's Guns, the four Batteries commenced their Fire, and continued to advance, though opposed by a great Superiority, both in Number and Weight of Metal.

When the 76th Regiment, which headed the Attack, had arrived at the Point from which I intended to make the Charge, they were so much exposed to the Enemy's Fire, and losing Men so fast, that I judged it preferable to proceed to the Attack with that Regiment, and as many of the Native Infantry as had closed to the Front, to losing Time in waiting until the Remainder of the Column should be able to form, the March of which had been retarded by the Impediments in the Advance.

As soon as this Handful of Heroes were arrived within Reach of the Enemy's Cannon Shot, a most tremendous Fire was opened upon them. The Loss they sustained was very severe, and sufficient alone to prevent a regular Advance. At this Moment the Enemy's Cavalry attempted to charge, but were repulsed by the Fire of this gallant Body: they, however, rallied at a short Distance, and assumed so menacing a Posture, that I thought it advisable to order them to be attacked by the Cavalry. This Service fell to the Share of His Majesty's 29th Regiment, commanded by Captain Wade (Major Griffith having at that Instant been unfortunately killed by a Cannon-shot), and was performed with the greatest Gallantry, and in a Manner which entitles Captain Wade, and every Officer and Soldier in the Regiment, to my warmest Acknowledgments. The Remainder of the First Column of Infantry arrived just in Time to join in the Attack of the Enemy's Reserve, which was formed in the Rear of his Line, with its Left upon the Village of Safwaree, and its Right thrown back.

About this Time Major-General Ware fell dead, his Head being carried off by a Cannon Shot. He was a gallant Officer, and one whose Loss I deeply lament. On his Death the Command of this Column devolved upon Colonel McDonald, who, though wounded, continued to acquit himself in this important Command, very much to my Satisfaction.

The Enemy opposed a vigorous Resistance to the last, and it was not until he had lost his Guns, that he abandoned his Post. Even then his Left Wing did not fly, but attempted to retreat in good Order; in this, however, they were frustrated by His Majesty's 27th Regiment, and the 6th Regiment of Native Cavalry, under the Command of Lieutenant-Colonel Vandeleur, who broke in upon the Column, cut several to Pieces, and drove the Rest in Prisoners, with the whole of the Baggage.

Severe as the Loss has been which we have sustained in the Achievement of this complete Victory, that of the Enemy has been far greater. With the Exception of upwards of Two Thousand, who have been taken Prisoners (of which Number I have only detained the principal Officers, amounting to Forty-eight), I have Reason to believe that very few escaped the general Slaughter.

It would be a Violation of my Feelings, were I to close my Dispatch, without bearing Testimony to the gallant Conduct of Major McLeod, and Captain Robertson of His Majesty's 76th Regiment, and of every Officer and Soldier of that inestimable Corps, in the Attack of the Village of Safwaree. Major Gregory too, at the Head of the 2d Battalion 12th Regiment of Native Infantry, in the same Service displayed a Conduct highly meritorious.

In the List of those Officers who particularly distinguished themselves, I cannot omit the Names of Lieutenant Wallace of His Majesty's 27th Regiment, who was entrusted with the Command of a Battery of Gallopers, nor that of Lieutenant Dixon of the 6th Regiment Native Cavalry, who was employed in the same Service.

The whole of my Staff upon this, as upon every former Occasion, are entitled to a large Share of Praise, and to my warmest Gratitude. The Zeal which they displayed upon this memorable Day, is too plainly proved by the enclosed Returns of the Killed and Wounded. I have sustained a great Loss by the Death of Major William Campbell, the Deputy Quarter Master General, and by that of my Aid-de-Camp, Lieutenant Duval, of His Majesty's 19th Light Dragoons, who was a young Man of great Promise.

Herewith I have the Honor to enclose Returns of the Ordnance and Colours which were captured upon this Occasion.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

Head-Quarters, Camp near Sawwaree,

November 2, 1803.

P. S. In the Hury which I wrote my Dispatch of Yesterday's Date, I fear I did not explain to your Lordship, that the Enemy's Corps, which we have defeated, comprised the Whole of the Fifteen Regular Battalions, which had been sent from the Decan, under the Command of Monsieur Duderneq, and Two Battalions of the same Description, which had escaped from Delhi. I therefore have the Satisfaction of congratulating your Excellency, upon the Annihilation of the Whole of the Regular Force in Sindiah's Service, commanded by French Officers.

4 Brass Six-Inch Ditto.

1 Brass Five-Inch One Eighth Ditto.

1 Brass Five-Inch One Eighth Ditto.

1 Brass Five-Inch One Quarter Ditto.

2 Brass Five-Inch One Half Ditto.

The Whole of the above mounted on Field-Carriages, with Limbers and Traces complete.

71 Pieces of Cannon of different Calibres.

64 Tumbrils complete, laden with Ammunition, and 44 Stand of Colours.

Complete Tumbrils blown up in the Field of Battle, the Number not ascertained.

The Whole of the above mentioned Ordnance appears serviceable, with the Exception of those mentioned in the Remarks.

The Iron Guns are of European Manufacture. The Brass Guns, Mortars, and Howitzers have been cast in India; One Dutch Six-Pounder excepted. The Dimensions are in general those of the French: The Mortars and Howitzers are furnished with elevated Screws, made, by a simple and ingenious Adjustment, to give either of them the Double Capacity of Mortar and Howitzer. The Ammunition is made up in the same Manner as that taken at Delhi.

Fifty-seven Carts or Hackries, laden with Matchlocks, Muskets, and Stores; also Twelve Artificer's Carts.

Extract of a Letter from the Governor in Council at Bombay, to the Secret Committee of the Court of Directors of the East-India Company, dated Nov. 14, 1803.

THE Official Advices here enclosed, convey the important Intelligence of Colonel Stevenson's having taken Possession of the City of Berhampore, on the 15th of October, of his having marched to Asseer Ghur, a strong Fort in that Vicinity, on the 17th, taken the Pettah on the 18th, opened a Battery against the Fort on the 20th, and obtained Possession of it in the Morning of the 21st. General Wellesley's Dispatch, of the 6th Instant, contains a Detail of these Operations, and of Circumstances connected with them.

(ENCLOSURE, No. I.)

Letter from Major-General Wellesley to His Excellency the Governor-General; dated Camp at Ferdapoor, 24th October 1803, of which the following is an Extract:

I HAVE the Pleasure to inform your Excellency, that Colonel Stevenson took Possession of the City of Berhampore, without Opposition, on the 15th Instant; he marched to Asseer Ghur on the 17th; took Possession of the Pettah on the 18th; opened a Battery against the Fort on the 20th, and obtained Possession of it on the Morning of the 21st. I have not yet received a detailed Account of the Manner in which Colonel Stevenson obtained Possession of this important Fortrefs, or whether he sustained any Loss in the Attack of the Pettah on the 18th, or of the Fort.

After I had arrived at Phoolmurry, about Sixteen Miles North from Aurungabad, I found that the Enemy did not advance to the Southward, as I had been informed they first intended; and on the Night of the 15th, I received a particular Account of the Disposition of their Troops, Baggage, &c. which convinced me that they intended to endeavour to interrupt Colonel Stevenson's Operations at Asseer Ghur.

I therefore marched on the 16th to the Northward and descended the Ghaut of Adjuttee on the 19th; Sindia had moved to the Northward, but he halted as soon as he found that I had returned, and he was Yesterday at Ahoonah on the Taptee. The Raja of Berar has separated from him, and, it is said, gone towards Chandore. I suspect that Report has been circulated with a View to draw me to the Southward again; but as Colonel Stevenson has got Possession of Asseer Ghur, and is fully equal to any Thing that can be sent against him, it is my Intention to re-ascend the Ghaut immediately.

Sixteen Officers and Serjeants belonging to the Campoos have joined Colonel Stevenson under your Excellency's Proclamation of the 29th August; I will hereafter send a List of their Names, and an Account of the Pay which each is to receive. The Infantry returned towards the Nerbudda when Colonel Stevenson approached Burhanpoor, and by all Accounts, it is completely destroyed and disorganized; it is impossible to form it into Corps again, and it is not probable that it ever will be of any Service to Dowlut Row Sindia.

I have directed Colonel Stevenson to place a Garrison in Asseer Ghur, and to deliver the Districts depending upon that Fortrefs to the Charge of the Servants of the Soubah of the Deckan. Your Excellency will observe that this is the Last of the Possessions of Dowlut Row Sindia in the Deckan; and the Operations of the Troops will now be directed against those of the Rajah of Berar.

(ENCLOSURE, No. II.)

Letter from Major-General Wellesley to His Excellency the Governor-General, dated Camp, November 6, 1803.

MY LORD,

I NOW proceed to give your Excellency a detailed Account of Colonel Stevenson's Operations against Asseer Ghur.

On the 17th of October, he advanced to Asseer Ghur, and encamped Three Miles South of the Fort; the Remains of the Enemy's Infantry had fled toward the Nerbuddah, on the preceding Day, in the State in which I reported them to be in my Letter of the 24th of October, and Colonel Stevenson, therefore, determined to attack Asseer Ghur.

On the 18th, he reconnoitred the Fort, attended by a Squadron of Cavalry, and the Julien Pickets of the Infantry; and having seen a favourable Opportunity, attacked the Pettah, and carried it, and made a Lodgement within One Hundred and Fifty Yards of the lower Wall of the Fort. In the Evening, he reinforced the Troops in the Pettah, by a Battalion.

On the 19th, all the Preparations were made for carrying on the Siege, and two Batteries were ready to open at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon of the 20th, one to break the upper Wall, and another of Four Brads Twelve Pounders, to destroy the Defences of the lower Wall.

On the 18th, Colonel Stevenson had sent a Flag of Truce to the Killedar, to summon him to surrender the Fort, to which Message he did not receive a decided Answer.

The Communication was continued, but Colonel Stevenson did not relax his Operation against the Fort, as there was Reason to believe, that the Negotiation was carried on only to give Time to Dowlut Row Scindia to come to its Relief. Before opening his Batteries, Colonel Stevenson apprized the Killedar of the Terms on which he should surrender the Fort; which were, that the Garrison should march out with their private Property, and be allowed to go where they might think proper, and that their Arrears should be paid to the Amount of Twenty Thousand Rupees.

After the Batteries had opened about an Hour, a White Flag was shewn from the Walls of the Fort, which was the Signal which had been agreed upon, in case the Terms should be accepted; Hostages were sent down, and an Engagement made, that the Fort should be delivered up on the following Morning. It was accordingly evacuated; the Garrison carried off their Property in Security, and received the Sum agreed to be paid to them.

Colonel Stevenson mentions, in high Terms, the Conduct of the Officers and Troops under his Command; and I cannot omit to take this Opportunity of expressing to your Excellency, my Sense of the Merits of Colonel Stevenson, and of the Body of Troops under his Command. Upon every Occasion I have received the most cordial and zealous Assistance, and the Troops under his Command are in the highest State of Discipline and Order, and fit for any Service on which they can be employed.

On the 16th, Nine Officers, Four Serjeants, and One Matros, formerly in the Service of Dowlut Row Scindia, delivered themselves up to Colonel Stevenson, under your Excellency's Proclamation of the 29th of August.

I have the Honor to enclose a List of their Names, and a Copy of the Order issued by Colonel Stevenson, to provide for their Subsistence. Lieutenant Stuart also delivered himself up at Poona, in the End of the last Month. I have called for Accounts of the regulated Pay and Allowances which those Persons received, in the Service of Dowlut Row Scindia, which I shall hereafter have the Honor of transmitting to your Excellency.

I have the Honor to enclose a Return of the Killed and Wounded, of the Troops, under the Command of Colonel Stevenson, during the Operations against Asseer Ghur. Hereafter I shall have the Honor of transmitting a Return of the Ordnance Stores, Grain, and other Articles, captured in the Fort.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

ARTHUR WELLESLEY.

London, April 13, 1804.

Notice is hereby given, that an Extraordinary Court or General Meeting of the West India Dock Company will be held at the London Tavern, on Friday the 27th Day of April instant, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, for the Purpose of considering the Propriety of raising a further Sum towards defraying the Expence of completing the Works at the Isle of Dogs as authorised by Parliament; and of the Ways and Means of raising the same.

By Order of the Court of Directors,
THOS. MARSHAM, Secretary.

The Chair will be taken at Two o'Clock precisely.

Office of Ordnance, March 31, 1804.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give Notice, that Proposals will be received at their Office, in St. Margaret's-Street, Westminster, on or before Monday the 23d of April next, from such Persons as may be willing to undertake the Supply of Ironmongery Articles for the Service of this Department, upon Contract for a Period of Three Years.

Patterns of the Articles to be supplied may be viewed at the Principal Storekeeper's Office, at the Tower, and the Terms, Conditions, and other Particulars of the Contract may be known upon Application at the Secretary's Office, in St. Margaret-Street, any Day between the Hours of Ten and Four o'Clock, where the Proposals are to be delivered, sealed up, and marked on the Outside "Proposals for the Supply of Ironmongery. Articles for the Service of the Ordnance Department," but no Proposal can be admitted after the said 23d of April.

By Order of the Board,

R. H. Crew, Secretary.

Navy Office, April 16, 1804.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Wednesday the 9th of May next, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon, Commissioner Hope will expose to Sale at his Office, in His Majesty's Yard at Chatham, several Lots of Old Stores, consisting of Old Rope, in Paper-Stuff,

Ditto, in Junk,
Shakings, Roundings, &c.
Hemp Rubbish, and Tar Barrels,

all lying in the said Yard, where any Persons, wishing to become Purchasers, may have the Liberty of viewing the same during the common working Hours of the Yard, until the Day of Sale.

Inventories and Conditions of Sale may be had here and at the Yard.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

Exchequer-Bill Office, April 16, 1804.

All Exchequer-Bills dated on or before the 30th March 1803,

TO BE PAID OFF.

THE Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having given Directions for paying off the Principal of the above-mentioned Exchequer-Bills, with the Interest thereon, at the Exchequer-Bill Office in St. Margaret's-Street, between the Two Palace-Yards, Westminster, on Monday the 30th Day of April 1804, Attendance will be given daily (Sundays and Holidays excepted) until Thursday the 26th Instant, inclusive, from Ten o'Clock in the Morning till One in the Afternoon, for the Purpose of receiving the same: And, for the greater Dispatch, the bearers of the said Bills are desired to bring Lists thereof, containing the Numbers in Numerical Order, according to the Value of the said Bills and Times of Commencement of Interest, with the Principal Sums and Interest due thereon, computed from the Days on which they are respectively dated, exclusive to the said 30th Day of April 1804 inclusive, when the Interest will cease; and they are desired to write their Names and Places of Abode on such Lists, and indorse their Names on the said Bills.

If any of the Holders of the aforesaid Bills should be desirous of receiving Payment of the Principal and Interest, previous to the said 30th Day of April, they may be accommodated, on computing the Interest to the Day on which they wish to be paid, and leaving the said Bills for Examination One Day prior thereto.

Such Persons as may be desirous of having New Exchequer-Bills in Part Payment, upon mentioning the Amount at the Bottom of their Lists delivered on or before the 26th Instant, may be accommodated with New Bills carrying an Interest of Three Pence Halfpenny by the Day on every One Hundred Pounds, which said New Bills will bear Date the said 30th Day of April 1804, and will be delivered on Wednesday the 2d May, and the following Days.

N. B. All Exchequer Bills dated prior to March 1803 have been advertised to be paid off, and the Interest thereon has ceased.

Mo. 15694.

D

COUNTY OF LANCASTER.

Preston, April 18, 1804.

SEVERAL of the Deputy Lieutenants of this County having expressed a Wish, through the Deputy Commissary General of the District, (and which has been transmitted to the Lord Lieutenant by the Direction of His Royal Highness Prince William Frederick,) that the Rates of Land and Water Carriage for conveying Troops and public Stores should be settled and made known by Advertisement in the County Papers, I am commanded by the Right Honorable the Earl of Derby to summon a General Meeting of the Lieutenancy of the said County, to be held at Garth's, the Bull Inn, in Preston, on Monday the 7th Day of May next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, to consider the Business above-mentioned, and to determine and settle the same as far as such Meeting is empowered so to do.

Thomas Wilson, Clerk of the General Meetings of Lieutenancy for the County of Lancaster.

And do hereby order and direct, that the said General Average Prices be published in the London Gazette once in Four several Weeks immediately succeeding this present Session.

By the Court,
THOMAS SHELTON.
Clerk of the Peace.

SCHOOL OF PHYSIC IN IRELAND.

WHEREAS, by an Act of Parliament passed in Ireland in the Twenty-fifth Year of His present Majesty, intitled "An Act for establishing a complete School of Physic in this Kingdom," it is enacted "That several Professorships shall be established:" And whereas the Professorship of Materia Medica and Pharmacy has become vacant by the Decease of the late Doctor Edmund Cullen, Notice is hereby given, that the Election of King's Professor of the Materia Medica and Pharmacy in the City of Dublin, on the Foundation of Sir Patrick Dunn, will be held at the House of the President of the King and Queen's College of Physicians, on Saturday the 21st Day of July next ensuing, at the Hour of Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, after such previous Examination as the Electors shall require.

The following Emoluments and Advantages attend this Professorship:—The Professor will receive the yearly Sum of One Hundred Pounds, to commence at the Time of his Election; and also may charge reasonable Fees, to be paid by all such Persons as attend his Lectures, the said Fees to be paid on Admission, and to be from Time to Time regulated by the President and Fellows of the King and Queen's College of Physicians in Ireland.

The Lectures are to commence on the first Monday in November, and to continue until the End of April, and are to be given four Days in the Week, at least, in Trinity College, Dublin; they are also to be delivered in the English Language, unless it be otherwise ordered by the President and Fellows of the King and Queen's College of Physicians.

This Professorship is open to Persons of all Nations, provided they have taken Medical Degrees, and will become vacant at the End of Seven Years from the Date of the Election; but at the Expiration of the said Seventh Year the same Professor may be again elected.

The Electors are bound to the strictest Impartiality, by an Oath required by the said Act to be taken by every Elector previous to the Election.

It is desired that all Persons intending to offer themselves as Candidates for said Professorship do, within Two Months from the Date hereof, send their Names, and also an Account of the Place of their Education, of the Universities in which they have taken Medical Degrees, and of the Places in which they have practised, to the Rev. John Barrett, D.D. Trinity College, Dublin, and to Thomas Herbert Orpen, M.D. No. 3, South Frederick-Street, Dublin, who will give any further Information on the Subject that may be necessary.

(Signed) JOHN BARRETT, Reg. T. C. D.
THOMAS HERBERT ORPEN, Reg.
College of Physicians.

A PROCLAMATION

For a General FAST.

GEORGE R.

WE, taking into Our most serious Consideration the just and necessary War in which We are engaged, and putting Our Trust in Almighty God that He will graciously bless Our Arms both by Sea and Land, have resolved, and do, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, hereby command, That a public Day of Fasting and Humiliation be observed throughout those Parts of Our Kingdom called England and Ireland, on Friday the Twenty fifth Day of May next ensuing, that so both We and Our People may humble Ourselves before Almighty God, in order to obtain Pardon of Our Sins, and in the most devout and solemn Manner send up our Prayers and Supplications to the Divine Majesty, for averting those heavy Judgments which Our manifold Provocations have most justly deserved; and for imploring His Blessing and Assistance on Our Arms for the Restoration of Peace and Prosperity to Us and Our Dominions: And We do strictly charge and command, that the said Public Fast be reverently and devoutly observed by all Our loving Subjects in England and Ireland, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and would avoid His Wrath and Indignation; and upon Pain of such Punishment as We may justly inflict on all such as contemn and neglect the Performance of so religious and necessary a Duty: And, for the better and more orderly solemnizing the same, We have given Directions to the Most Reverend the Archbishops, and the Right Reverend the Bishops of England and Ireland, to compose a Form of Prayer suitable to this Occasion, to be used in all Churches, Chapels, and Places of public Worship, and to take Care that the same be timely dispersed throughout their respective Dioceses.

Given at Our Court at the Queen's Palace, this Twenty-third Day of April, One thousand eight hundred and four, in the Forty-fourth Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION

For a General FAST.

GEORGE R.

WE, taking into Our most serious Consideration the just and necessary War in which We are engaged, and putting Our Trust in Almighty God that He will graciously bless Our Arms, both by Sea and Land, have resolved, and do, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, hereby command, That a public Day of Fasting and Humiliation be observed throughout that Part of Our Kingdom of Great Britain called Scotland, on Thursday the Seventh Day of June next ensuing, that so both We and Our People may humble Ourselves before Almighty God, in order to obtain Pardon of Our Sins, and in the most devout and solemn Manner, send up Our Prayers and Supplications to the Divine Majesty, for averting those heavy Judgments which Our manifold Provocations have most justly deserved; and for imploring His Blessing and Assistance on Our Arms, for the Restoration of Peace and Prosperity to Us and Our Dominions: And We do strictly charge and command, That the said Public Fast be reverently and devoutly observed by all Our loving Subjects in Scotland, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and would avoid His Wrath and Indignation; and upon Pain of such Punishment as We may justly inflict on all such as contemn and neglect the Performance of so religious and necessary a Duty,

Our Will is, therefore, and We charge, that this Our Proclamation seen, ye forthwith pass to the Market Cross of Edinburgh, and all other Places needful, and there, in Our Name and Authority, make Publication hereof, that none pretend Ignorance: And Our Will and Pleasure is, that Our Solicitor do cause printed Copies hereof to be sent to the Sheriffs of the several Shires, Stewarts of Stewartries, and Bailiffs of Regalities, and their Clerks, whom We ordain to see the same published; and We do appoint them to send Copies hereof to the several Parish Churches within their Bounds. that upon the Lord's Day immediately preceding the Day above mentioned, the same may be published, and read from the Pulpits, immediately after Divine Service.

Given at Our Court at the Queen's Palace, this Twenty-third Day of April One thousand eight hundred and four, in the Forty-fourth Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 23d of April 1804,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for permitting, until the Fifth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and five, the Importation of Hides, Calf Skins, Horns, Tallow, and Wool (except Cotton Wool), in Foreign Ships, on Payment of the like Duties, as if imported in British or Irish Ships;" it is enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by His Order in Council, from Time to Time, when and as often as it shall be judged expedient, to permit, until the Fifth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and five, any Hides, Pieces of Hides, dressed or undressed, Calf-Skins, or Pieces of Calf-Skins, dressed or undressed, Horns, or Pieces of Horns, Tallow and Wool (except Cotton Wool), to be imported in any Foreign Ship or Vessel, and to be admitted to Entry in any Port or Place in the United Kingdom, on Payment of such and the like Duties of Customs and Excise as are due and payable on the like Goods when imported in any British or Irish-built Ship or Vessel; any Thing contained in any Act to the contrary notwithstanding: His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance of the Powers vested in His Majesty by the above-recited Act, to allow, and doth hereby allow, during the Space of Three Months from the Date of this Order, the Importation of any Hides, Pieces of Hides, dressed or undressed, Calf-Skins, or Pieces of Calf-Skins, dressed or undressed, Horns, or Pieces of Horns, Tallow, and Wool (except Cotton Wool), in any Foreign Ship or Vessel; and that on the Arrival at any Port of the United Kingdom of any Foreign Ship or Vessel with any of the Articles above mentioned, the said Goods shall be admitted to Entry on Payment of the same Duties of Customs and Excise as are due and payable on the like Goods when imported in any British or Irish-built Ship or Vessel.—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions accordingly. Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 23d of April 1804,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it has been represented to His Majesty in Council, That in His Majesty's Order in Council of the Twenty-ninth of July One thousand eight hundred, appointing the Places for the Performance of Quarantine by Ships and Vessels bound to the several Ports of this Kingdom, Lamlash, in the Island of Arran, is mentioned as the Place for the Performance of Quarantine by Vessels arriving at the Port of Greenock liable thereto; and that Holy Loch, in the Firth of Clyde, is a more convenient Place for the Performance thereof, His Majesty is therefore pleased, with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, as it is hereby ordered, that all such Ships or Vessels as are or shall be bound to the Port of Greenock, or any Member or Creek thereof, or other Place therein, from any Place or Places from whence Quarantine is required to be performed, shall perform their Quarantine in Holy Loch, in the Firth of Clyde, in place of Lamlash, in the Island of Arran; and that all Goods imported on board such Ships shall be aired at the same Place.—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Steph. Cottrell.

ADMIRALTY OFFICE, April 23, 1804.

THE King has been pleased to appoint George Martin, Esq; Sir Richard John Strachan, Bart. and Sir William Sidney Smith, Knt. to be Colonels of His Majesty's Marine Forces, in the Room of Sir Edward Pellew, Bart. William Domett, Esq; and Sir Thomas Troubridge, Bart. appointed Flag Officers of His Majesty's Fleet.

Downing Street, April 22, 1804.

DISPATCHES, of which the following are Copies, were this Day received by the Right Honorable Lord Hobart, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from Colonel John Frazer, Commandant of the Settlement of Goree, on the Coast of Africa:

MY LORD, Goree, Africa, 5th Feb. 1804.

ON the 17th of January, about Noon, a Negro arrived from Yoff, and reported that a Fleet had been seen from thence that Morning, at Day light, and appeared to be standing for Goree.

Before Two o'Clock Vessels were seen from the Hill behind Cape Emanuel; near Four they came round the Cape; the Squadron consisting of One Ship, carrying a Commodore's Pendant, and Five Armed Schooners, with Pendants, all shewing French Colours, and with large Boats towing after them.

The Commodore fired a Gun, and hoisted a Red Flag at his Foremast Head, which we have since learnt was meant as a Signal to us, that in case of Attack during Night, no Quarter would be given.

About Sunset the Squadron tacked, and before dark was near the Anchorage, standing in.

The Inhabitants having agreed to assist in defending the Island against any Attempt that should be made from Senegal, and being of Opinion that the present Force was of that Nature, such Measures were taken as appeared most likely to prevent the Enemy from Landing during the Night: All the Arms that could be procured were accordingly issued to the Inhabitants, who, with the Garrison, were stationed at the different Posts round the Island.

The Moon set at Eleven, and Affairs remained in the Situation described until about Three o'Clock on the 18th; when shortly after I had returned to the Beach Battery from visiting the Posts, a fresh firing commenced on the East Side of the Island from Boats, and at the same Instant a Schooner came in Sight, standing directly for the Beach; a strong and well directed Fire of great Guns and Musketry was immediately opened upon her, and the People on-board, being either wounded or driven below, she drifted on shore.

In the mean Time the Boats, to the Number of Eight, full of Troops, had unfortunately effected a landing on the Rocks to the East Side of the Town, where the Surf happened to be unusually low, and having overcome the Force which was opposed to them, they had penetrated through the Town as far as the Main Guard, of which, after being once repulsed, they gained Possession, making some Prisoners.

The Inhabitants having given way nearly on all Sides, and the Enemy being now in such Force on our Right, it appeared adviseable to form a Junction with the Soldiers in the North-Point Battery, where we should retain the Command of the Beach, and be ready to check any further Attempt to land, until some Information could be received of the Strength and Situation of the Enemy, to enable me to judge what ought to be done.

The Firing continued until towards Six o'Clock, when being yet uncertain what Number had landed, and in hopes that the Main Guard was the only Post held by the Enemy, I directed that it should be attacked by the Soldiers I had with me, which was executed with great Alacrity, and the Post carried, with considerable Loss on the Part of the Enemy; on our Side it was less as to Numbers, but I lost the Assistance of a very gallant Officer, Doctor Huddle, being shot through the Breast in the Attack, when Captain Lloyd was also slightly wounded.

We now learned that the Enemy had Possession of the Hill, where Captain Lloyd proposed to attack them, a Measure I should gladly have adopted; but the Day beginning to break, we had the Mortification to see them appear in such Numbers as left no Room to suppose there was any Probability of Success, our Force being reduced, by Killed, Wounded, and Prisoners, to about Twenty-five Soldiers, Captain Lloyd, Lieutenant Christy, and myself.

At this Time the Enemy's Vessels were standing closer in, apparently to land a Reinforcement; and the Inhabitants, seeing French Colours on the Hill, came to me, asking Leave to treat.

Under these Circumstances, and exposed to the Enemy's Fire on all Sides, further Resistance appeared vain; I therefore felt it my Duty to comply with the Request of the Inhabitants, and sent an Officer with them, proposing Terms of Capitulation for the Garrison.

The Officer who commanded the Storming Party having been killed, the annexed Terms were verbally agreed to with the Senior who survived, to be communicated to the Commandant of the Squadron; until his Answer should be received firing ceased, and we continued to occupy the Battery.

The Terms of Capitulation being confirmed by the Commandant Mahé, the Soldiers grounded their Arms, and the Place was surrendered.

We were informed that the Enemy's Force consisted of Four Schooners, which had been fitted out at Cayenne, and supplied with Soldiers for the Purpose of attacking Goree; that they had touched at Senegal, where they had been furnished with additional Boats, Pilots, a Reinforcement of Soldiers, and another Schooner and where they had been joined by the Ship, which happening to call at Senegal was put in Requisition for this Expedition: The Squadron altogether carried upwards of Sixty Guns, and Six Hundred Men, about Two Hundred and Forty of whom had been landed; the Whole under the Command of Monsieur Mahé, Lieutenant de Vaisseau, the Commodore's Pendant having been hoisted only while coming in, by the Captain of the Ship, who had held that Rank in their Navy during the late War.

On the Evening of the Action we had Fifty-four white Men, including Officers, and although the Serjeant-Major was the only one who was not able to come upon the Batteries, when it is considered, that several of the Men, worn out by Disease, and disabled by Accidents, were incapable of making any great Exertion, that uncertain where an Attack might be made in the Night, it was necessary to divide our Force very much to occupy the different Posts, I hope and trust it will appear to our King and to our Country, that the Garrison I had the Honor to command, did not submit without discharging its Duty like British Soldiers.

Our Loss consists of 1 Drummer, 8 Rank and File, killed; 2 Officers, 8 Rank and File, wounded.—Total 19.

Of the Enemy, according to the most correct Accounts I can procure, 3 Officers and 40 Men, killed, or since dead; 2 Officers and upwards of 30 Men, wounded.—Total 75.

Captain Lloyd, who has already on several Occasions been mentioned as a deserving Officer, both here and at Sierra Leone, continues to merit very great Praise.

Doctor Heddle having proposed some Time back to do military Duty, I gladly accepted his Offer, and he has given me great Assistance; his Wound, which was at first thought be mortal, having taken a favourable Turn, I am now happy to think he will recover, and I earnestly wish to recommend him to your Lordship's Notice, as distinguished by his Conduct on this Occasion, and also by his Attention to his medical Duties since we came to Africa.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) JOHN FRASER.

Right Hon. Lord Hobart, &c. &c. &c.

TRANSLATION.

Gorée, Africa, January 18, 1804.

THE French being in Possession of the Hill, the Squadron being ready to land more Troops, a considerable Number of Men being killed and wounded on both Sides, and farther Resistance offering only the Prospect of occasioning an unnecessary Effusion of Blood, the following Terms of Capitulation were agreed to:

Art. I. The Island of Gorée, with its Dependencies, shall be delivered up to the French Government as it now stands.

Art. II. The British Garrison having laid down their Arms in the North Battery, which they continue to occupy, shall be furnished without Delay with a sufficient Vessel as a Cartel, to carry them to Great Britain, Colonel Fraser giving his Parole of Honor for himself, his Officers, and Soldiers, not to serve during the present War, against the French Republic, or its Allies, until regularly exchanged.

Art. III. The Officers and Soldiers shall preserve their Baggage and Effects, which shall be embarked with them.

Art. IV. The Inhabitants shall retain Possession of their Properties, without Prejudice however to any Orders to the contrary which may hereafter be given by General Blanchot, Commandant and Administrator General of Senegal, and its Dependencies.

Agreed upon and executed in two Copies, to be exchanged between us, the Day and Year already mentioned.

(Signed) JOHN FRASER, Col Afr Corps
MAHE, Lieut de Vaisseau, and commanding the Division.

MY LORD,

ON the 19th of January, in the Evening, the British Soldiers were embarked on board the French Squadron, until a Cartel should be made ready for them.

On the 23d, the Officers and Soldiers went on board a Sloop which was sent as a Cartel to Senegal, where a larger Vessel was preparing to carry them to England.

I am very sorry to add, that notwithstanding the Articles of Capitulation, the Inhabitants, Officers, and even Soldiers, have been shamefully pillaged.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

JOHN FRASER.

A PROCLAMATION

For a General FAST.

GEORGE R.

WE, taking into Our most serious Consideration the just and necessary War in which We are engaged, and putting Our Trust in Almighty God that He will graciously bless Our Arms both by Sea and Land, have resolved, and do, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, hereby command, That a public Day of Fasting and Humiliation be observed throughout those Parts of Our Kingdom called England and Ireland, on Friday the Twenty-fifth Day of May next ensuing, that so both We and Our People may humble Ourselves before Almighty God, in order to obtain Pardon of Our Sins, and in the most devout and solemn Manner send up our Prayers and Supplications to the Divine Majesty, for averting those heavy Judgments which Our manifold Provocations have most justly deserved; and for imploring His Blessing and Assistance on Our Arms for the Restoration of Peace and Prosperity to Us and Our Dominions: And We do strictly charge and command, that the said Public Fast be reverently and devoutly observed by all Our loving Subjects in England and Ireland, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and would avoid His Wrath and Indignation; and upon Pain of such Punishment as We may justly inflict on all such as contemn and neglect the Performance of so religious and necessary a Duty: And, for the better and more orderly solemnizing the same, We have given Directions to the Most Reverend the Archbishops, and the Right Reverend the Bishops of England and Ireland, to compose a Form of Prayer suitable to this Occasion, to be used in all Churches, Chapels, and Places of public Worship, and to take Care that the same be timely dispersed throughout their respective Dioceses.

Given at Our Court at the Queen's Palace, this Twenty-third Day of April, One thousand eight hundred and four, in the Forty-fourth Year of Our Reign.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 23d of April 1804,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for permitting, until the Fifth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and five, the Importation of Hides, Calf Skins, Horns, Tallow, and Wool (except Cotton Wool), in Foreign Ships, on Payment of the like Duties, as if imported in British or Irish Ships;" it is enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by His Order in Council, from Time to Time, when and as often as it shall be judged expedient, to permit, until the Fifth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and five, any Hides, Pieces of Hides, dressed or undressed, Calf-Skins, or Pieces of Calf-Skins, dressed or undressed, Horns, or Pieces of Horns, Tallow, and Wool (except Cotton Wool), to be imported in any Foreign Ship or Vessel, and to be admitted to Entry in any Port or Place in the United Kingdom, on Payment of such and the like Duties of Customs and Excise as are due and payable on the like Goods when imported in any British or Irish-built Ship or Vessel; any Thing contained in any Act to the contrary notwithstanding: His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance of the Powers vested in His Majesty by the above-recited Act, to allow, and doth hereby allow, during the Space of Three Months from the Date of this Order, the Importation of any Hides, Pieces of Hides, dressed or undressed, Calf-Skins, or Pieces of Calf-Skins, dressed or undressed, Horns, or Pieces of Horns, Tallow, and Wool (except Cotton Wool), in any Foreign Ship or Vessel; and that on the Arrival at any Port of the United Kingdom of any Foreign Ship or Vessel with any of the Articles above mentioned, the said Goods shall be admitted to Entry on Payment of the same Duties of Customs and Excise as are due and payable on the like Goods when imported in any British or Irish-built Ship or Vessel.—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions accordingly.

Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 23d of April 1804,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it has been represented to His Majesty in Council, That in His Majesty's Order in Council of the Twenty-ninth of July One thousand eight hundred, appointing the Places for the Performance of Quarantine by Ships and Vessels bound to the several Ports of this Kingdom, Lam-lash, in the Island of Arran, is mentioned as the Place for the Performance of Quarantine by Vessels arriving at the Port of Greenock liable thereto; and that Holy Loch, in the Firth of Clyde, is a more convenient Place for the Performance thereof, His Majesty is therefore pleased, with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, as it is hereby ordered, that all such Ships or Vessels as are or shall be bound to the Port of Greenock, or any Member or Creek thereof, or other Place therein, from any Place or Places from whence Quarantine is required to be performed, shall perform their Quarantine in Holy Loch, in the Firth of Clyde, in place of Lamash, in the Island of Arran; and that all Goods imported on board such Ships shall be aired at the same Place.—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

Whitehall, April 27, 1804.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is a Copy, has been received at the East-India House:

To His Excellency the Most Noble the Governor-General in Council.

My LORD, Camp at Parterly, Nov. 30, 1803.

HAVING found that the Rajah of Berar was moving towards his own Territories, that the Body of Troops he had with him was but small, and decreasing in Numbers daily, and not likely to do much Mischief to the Territories of the Soubah of the Dekan, I descended the Ghauts by Rajoora on the () in order to support and cover Colonel Stevenson's Operations against Gawilghur in Berar.

Colonel Stevenson had equipped his Corps at Aseer Ghur for the Siege of that Fort, and had marched to Ballapore, where he was joined on the 24th by the Brinjaries, and other Supplies which had been saved from the Enemy by Captain Baynes's Affair at Amber, and he marched forward on the 26th.

Your Excellency has been informed that, on the 23d, I had consented to a Suspension of Hostilities with the Troops of Dowlut Rao Scindiah in this Quarter and Guzerat. The Condition on which this Agreement depended, viz. that Scindiah should occupy a Position Twenty Cofs to the East of Elichpour had not been carried into Execution; and Scindiah was encamped at Serfooly, about Four Miles from the Camp of Munnoo Bappoo*, which was at this Place. The Army of the former consisted only of Cavalry; that of the latter was Cavalry; a great Part, if not the Whole of Ragojee Bhooallah's Regular Infantry, and a large Proportion of Artillery.

In the Course of the 28th the Vakeels from Dowlut Rao Scindiah urgently pressed me not to attack these Troops; but I informed them repeatedly that there was no Suspension of Arms with Ragojee Bhooallah, and none with Scindiah till he should comply with the Terms of his Agreement; and that I should certainly attack the Enemies of the Company wherever I should find them.

* Brother to the Rajah of Berar.

Colonel Stevenson's Division and mine both marched to this Place Yesterday; the Colonel having, with great Prudence and Propriety, halted on the 28th at Hattee Andoral, to enable me to co-operate in the Attack of the Enemy. We found on our Arrival that the Armies of both Chiefs had decamped; and I could perceive, from a Tower in Partly, a confused Mass, about Two Miles beyond Serfooly and Scindiah's old Camp, which I concluded to be their Armies in March.

The Troops had marched a great Distance on a very hot Day, and therefore I did not think it proper to pursue them; but shortly after our Arrival here, Bodies of Horse appeared in our Front, with which the Myfore Horse skirmished during a Part of the Day; and when I went out to push forwards the Picquets of the Infantry to support the Myfore Cavalry, and to take up the Ground of our Encampment, I could perceive distinctly a long Line of Infantry, Cavalry and Artillery, regularly drawn up on the Plains of Argaum, immediately in Front of that Village, and about Six Miles from this Place, at which I intended to encamp.

Although late in the Day I immediately determined to attack this Army. Accordingly I marched on in One Column, the British Cavalry leading, in a Direction nearly parallel to that of the Enemy's Line, covering the Rear and Left by the Mogul and Myfore Cavalry.

The Enemy's Infantry and Guns were in the Left of their Centre, with a Body of Cavalry on their Left. Scindiah's Army, consisting of One very heavy Body of Cavalry, was in the Right, having upon its Right a Body of Pindaries and other light Troops. Their Line extended above Five Miles, having in their Rear the Village and extensive Gardens and Enclosures of Argaum, and in their Front a Plain, which, however, was much cut by Water-Courses, &c. &c.

I formed the Army in Two Lines: the Infantry in the first, the Cavalry in the second, and supporting the Right; and the Mogul and Myfore Cavalry the Left, nearly parallel to that of the Enemy, with the Right rather advanced to press upon the Enemy's Left. Some little Time elapsed before the Lines could be formed, owing to a Part of the Infantry of my Division which led the Column having got into some Confusion. When formed the Whole advanced in the greatest Order; the 74th and 78th Regiments were attacked by a large Body (supposed to be Persians) and all these were destroyed. Scindiah's Cavalry charged the 1st Battalion 6th Regiment, which was on the Left of our Line, and were repulsed; and the whole Line retired in Disorder before our Troops, leaving in our Hands Thirty-eight Pieces of Cannon and all their Ammunition.

The British Cavalry then pursued them for several Miles, and destroyed great Numbers, and took many Elephants and Camels, and much Baggage. The Mogul and Myfore Cavalry also pursued the Fugitives, and did them great Mischief. Some of the latter are still following them; and I have sent out this Morning all the Myfore, Mogul, and Mahratta Cavalry, in order to secure as many Advantages from this Victory as can be gained, and complete the Enemy's Confusion.

For the Reasons stated in the Commencement of this Letter the Action did not begin till late in the Day, and, unfortunately, sufficient Daylight did not remain to do all that I could have wished; but the Cavalry continued their Pursuit by Moonlight, and all the Troops were under Arms till a late Hour in the Night.

I have the Honor to enclose a Return of our Loss in this Action. The Troops conducted themselves with their usual Bravery. The 74th and 78th Regiments had a particular Opportunity of distinguishing themselves, and have deserved and received my Thanks. I am also much indebted to Colonel Stevenson for the Advice and Assistance I received from him; to the Honorable Lieutenant-Colonel St. Leger, for the Manner in which he led on the British Cavalry; and to Lieutenant-Colonels Wallace, Adams (who commanded Lieutenant-Colonel Harnes's Brigade, the latter being absent on account of severe Indisposition), Haliburton, Maclean, Pogson, and Major Huddleston, who commanded Brigades of Cavalry and Infantry; to Major Campbell, commanding the 94th Regiment; to Captain Beauman, commanding the Artillery with the Division under my immediate Command; to Captain Burke, commanding the Artillery with the Subsidiary Force; and to the Officers of the Staff with my Division, and belonging to the Subsidiary Force.

I have also to inform your Excellency, that the Mogul Cavalry under Solabut Khan, and the Myfore Cavalry under Bissnapah Pundit, distinguished themselves. The former took a Standard from Scindiah's Troops.

The Mahratta Cavalry were not engaged, as the Person who went to them with Orders missed his Road. Amrut Rao was not in the Action, as he had encamped some Distance in my Rear on the 28th, and he could not march the whole Distance to Partly Yesterday Morning; but he sent for Orders as soon as he heard that I intended to attack the Enemy.

I propose to march To-morrow towards Gawilghur, and I shall lose no Time in attacking that Place.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

Dep. Adj. Gen. Myfore.

Downing-Street, April 27, 1804.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is a Copy, was this Day received by the Right Honorable Lord Hobart, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from Captain Dickson, commanding His Majesty's Ship Inconstant:

His Majesty's Ship Inconstant, Goree,

My LORD, Africa, 15th March 1804.

I BEG Leave to acquaint your Lordship with the Recapture of the Island of Goree, and I have the Honor to inclose you the Articles of Capitulation.

I have appointed Captain William Murray, the Senior Officer of the African Corps, Commandant of Goree, until His Majesty's Pleasure is known; and as I had not any Directions relative to the Cargo of the Eagle, Store-Ship, I took the Liberty to open the Letter addressed to Colonel Frazer, from your Lordship, and have given it to Captain Murray, and ordered him to follow, as close as possible, the Directions contained therein. The very ample supply of Stores and Provisions this Vessel appears to have brought out, and the great Strength of the Garrison at present, enables me to assure your Lordship of its perfect Security.

Mr. Charles Pickford, my First Lieutenant, an intelligent and deserving Officer, and whom I beg leave to recommend to your Lordship, will have the Honor of presenting this Letter. He will be able to inform you very fully of every Particular relative to Goree and its Dependencies.

I hope the Arrangement I have made will meet your Lordship's Approbation.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

EDW. STERLING DICKSON.

Right Honorable Lord Hobart,

&c. &c. &c.

ARTICLES of CAPITULATION between Lieutenant Charles Pickford, of His Majesty's Ship Inconstant, on the Part of His Britannic Majesty and Citizen Montmayeur, Resident Commandant of the Island of Goree, for the French Republic.

Art. I. The French Garrison at the Island of Goree, shall be allowed to leave it, Drums beating, and with the Honors of War.

Art. II. The Effects, Baggage, and Arms of the Troops shall be given up to them, as well as the Private Property of the Officers, the Commandant of the Garrison, Officers of Administration, Guards of Artillery, and other Public Employments.

Art. III. The Convalescents and Sick, in a State to be sent to Senegal with the Troops, also such French Citizens as wish to leave the Island, with their Property, shall be permitted to enjoy the same Privilege.

Art. IV. The Vessels, Stores of all Kinds, Guns, Musquets, Powder, Bullets; &c. shall be put in the Possession of Lieutenant Pickford, with the Forts, Batteries, Barracks, Hospitals, and all the Dependencies of the Island, and thereunto belonging.

Art. V. The Property of the Inhabitants of what Nature soever, shall be respected and preserved.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Edward Sterling Dickson, Commander of His Majesty's Ship the Inconstant, to William Marsden, Esq; dated at Goree, the 15th March 1804.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to acquaint you, for the Information of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, of the Arrival of His Majesty's Ship under my Command, and the Vessels named in the Margin* off the Island of Goree, on the Morning of the 7th March: but, conceiving it possible that it might be in the Possession of the Enemy, (although English Colours were hoisted on the Citadel, and Sentinels clothed in Red placed on the different Batteries,) I brought to with the Convoy, and directed Mr. Charles Pickford, my First Lieutenant, to proceed on Shore in the Cutter, and if he found it in the Hands of the English, to make the Signal I established for that Purpose. At Sun-set, not any Signal having been made, nor the Appearance of the Boat, I came to Anchor with the Convoy a little out of Gun shot; and deeming it highly necessary to gain some Information with respect to the Situation of the Garrison, I ordered, at Ten o'Clock, P. M. Three Boats, manned and armed, under the Direction of Mr. Runciman, Midshipman, to proceed into the Harbour, and cut out any of the Vessels he could find, which he did in a gallant Manner, by bringing out a Ship, under a heavy Fire, from the Batteries, which sunk our Cutter, and wounded one Man. From her I learned, that the French had been in Possession of Goree since the 18th of January, and that they had Three Hundred White and Black Troops in the Garrison.

On the 8th Instant, at Daylight, I weighed and stood to the Westward of the Island, to prevent any Succours being thrown in by Sea from Senegal; and, on the Evening of the same Day, being determined to attack it, having ordered Scaling-Ladders to be made for that Purpose, at Nine P. M. anchored, and ordered all the Boats of the Convoy to be sent on board the Inconstant, and after embarking as many Troops as they could possibly stow, I found they would not carry a sufficient Number to promise Success; I therefore postponed the Attack until the Arrival of one of our Convoy, which was in Sight, standing into the Bay, as her three Boats could carry from Thirty to Forty more Men; at Daylight in the Morning of the 9th Instant, we were agreeably surprized by seeing the English Colours hoisted over the French, and shortly after I received Information from Lieutenant Pickford, that the Garrison had capitulated with him; I instantly stood into the Harbour with the Convoy, anchored, and disembarked the Troops. Conceiving it of Importance that His Majesty's Ministers should be made acquainted as soon as possible with the Recapture of this Island, I have purchased a small Brig, and sent my First Lieutenant, Mr. Charles Pickford, an intelligent and deserving Officer, to England, who will have the Honor to present my Dispatches; and I beg Leave to recommend him in the strongest Manner to their Lordships' Favor.

I have appointed Captain William Murray, Senior Officer of the Troops, to be Commandant of Goree, till His Majesty's Pleasure is known, and Mr. William Arnold, Master's-Mate, to be Lieutenant of the Inconstant, vice Pickford, and hope it will meet their Lordships' Approbation.

The Moment I can get a sufficient Supply of Water and Provisions landed, and put the Island into a proper State of Defence, I shall proceed, and put their Lordships' Orders into Execution.

I cannot conclude my Letter, without assuring their Lordships that the greatest Cordiality existed between the Officers, Seamen, and Soldiers, and had an Attack been found Necessary, from the handsome manner they volunteered their Services, I am persuaded they would have done Honor to their Country.

Inclosed are the Articles of Capitulation†, and the Account of the Ordnance and Military Stores found in the Garrison.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

E. S. DICKSON.

Admiralty-Office, May 1, 1804.

THE following are Copies of Letters which have been received at this Office from Commodore Hood, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at the Leeward Islands:

*Centaur, Diamond Rock, off Martinique,
SIR, February 6, 1804.*

I HAVE the Satisfaction to acquaint you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, of the Capture of the Curieux French Corvette, early in the Morning of the 4th Instant, of Sixteen long French Six-Pounders, and had on board upwards of One Hundred Men when attacked by Four Boats of the Centaur, containing Sixty Seamen and Twelve Marines, under the Command of Lieutenant Robert Carthew Reynolds; she was laying close under Fort Edward at the Entrance of the Careenage, Fort Royal Harbour, Martinique; he boarded on the Quarters in a most gallant Manner, and was well aided by Lieutenant Bettelworth, and Mr. Tracey, my Secretary, with the other Officers and Men; the Enemy made a warm Resistance at the first Onset, but the spirited and superior Valour of this brave Officer and his Supporters drove them forward, where a Second Stand was made, which was carried with equal Gallantry: her Captain Cordier leaped overboard, after receiving Two Sabre Wounds, and saved himself, with some of the Men, in a Boat that lay under her Bows, and got on Shore; only one French Officer escaped being either killed or wounded, and he was below; fortunately this brilliant Service was performed with only the enclosed List of Wounded in the Boats. I am sorry to add, Lieutenant Reynolds is of the Number, severely, with Five Wounds; also Lieutenant Bettelworth and Mr. Tracey, though not badly.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

Sir Evan Nepean, Bart.

SAM. HOOD.

*Centaur, Diamond, off Martinique,
Feb. 21, 1804.*

SIR, I HAVE the Honor to enclose you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, Two Letters from Captain Nourse, and Two from Captain Shipley, of His Majesty's Sloops Cyane and St. Lucia, stating the Capture of Four of the Enemy's Privateers. I cannot too much commend the Activity of those Officers in their Exertions in the Protection of the Trade.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

Sir Evan Nepean, Bart.

SAM. HOOD.

*His Majesty's Sloop Cyane, at Sea,
27th Jan. 1804.*

SIR, I BEG leave to inform you His Majesty's Sloop, under my Command, in the Lat. 15 Deg. 23 Min. North, Long. 65 Deg. 30 Min. West, captured L'Harmonie, French Privateer Schooner, of Twelve Guns, and Eighty-two Men on board; out Thirty-four Days from Guadaloupe, and had taken the Mercury, a Scotch Ship, late from New York, laden with Lumber, Provisions, &c. bound to Demerara.

I am, Sir, &c.

JOSEPH NOURSE.

N. B. The Mercury recaptured by the Hippomenes.

To Commodore Hood, &c. &c. &c.

His Majesty's Sloop St. Lucia, Barbadoes, SIR, 28th January 1804.

I BEG leave to inform you, that on the 25th, being off the Granadines, I captured Le Furet, a fast sailing Privateer, of Four Guns, and Forty-five Men, belonging to Guadaloupe. After landing the Prisoners I shall prosecute your Orders.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

To Samuel Hood, Esq; Commodore and Commander in Chief. &c. &c. &c.

*His Majesty's Sloop St. Lucia, Carlisle Bay,
SIR, February 18, 1804.*

I HAVE the Pleasure to inform you, that on the 16th Instant, His Majesty's Sloop under my Command captured, off Grenada, Le Bigou French Pri-rateer, of Six Guns, and Sixty Men, Twenty of which she had put in Prizes as per Margin.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

*His Majesty's Sloop Cyane, at Sea,
February 14, 1804.*

SIR,

I BEG leave to inform you His Majesty's Sloop under my Command fell in with, and, after a Chase of Eight Hours, captured Le Recompence French Schooner Privateer, of Ten Six-Pounders, and Seventy Men, out Fifty-five Days, and had captured the Mariana*, from Glasgow, bound to Barbadoes. The Recompence was taken about Thirty Leagues to Windward of Barbadoes; her Guns thrown overboard during the Chase.

I am, Sir, &c.

JOSEPH NOURSE.

To Commodore Hood, &c. &c. &c.

*Centaur, Diamond, off Martinique,
February 27, 1804.*

SIR,

I BEG leave to enclose you Copy of a Letter I have received from Lieutenant Carr, commanding His Majesty's Schooner L'Eclair, giving an Account of a most spirited Action he fought in the said Vessel, of Ten Guns and Sixty Men, against the Grande Decidé French Ship Privateer, of Twenty-two Guns and Two Hundred and Twenty Men, out of Guadaloupe. I cannot sufficiently extol the brilliant and gallant Conduct of this Officer and Crew.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

To Sir Evan Nepean, Bart.

SAM. HOOD.

His Majesty's Schooner L'Eclair, Tortola, 10th February 1804.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to acquaint you, that on my Return from conveying the Packet to the Northward in His Majesty's Schooner under my Command, on the 5th Instant, at Three P. M., the Island of Tortola bearing South, distant about Sixty-eight Leagues, saw a strange Sail to the Southward, suspecting her to be an Enemy, made all sail in Chase; at Half past Three observed her to be a Ship standing towards us; at Four made the Signal, No. 275 to her, which not being answered, shortened Sail and cleared for Action; at Half-past Four, being within Musket-shot on our Weather-Bow, she hauled up her Courses, hove to, and hoisted French National Colours, when I discovered her to be a Ship apparently just out of Port, mounting Twenty-two Guns, and conclude, from the Number of Men seen on her Decks, as also her Tops, there could not be less than Two Hundred. When we came within Pistol-Shot, she commenced the Action by firing her Larboard Broadside and a heavy Fire of Musquetry, which we returned with the Weather Broadside and Musketry; wore round, hove to, and fired the Starboard Broadside; the Fire was kept up without Intermission on both Sides until a Quarter past Five, when the Enemy began to slacken her Fire, filled, bore up, and endeavoured to rake us, but upon observing our Preparations to board her, by manning the Rigging, she ceased Firing, and made all sail to the Northward, on which we filled and made sail after her, keeping up a Fire of Musquetry; at Seven found her getting fast away; at Half past Eight lost Sight of her; seeing there was no Possibility of coming up, at Ten gave over the Chase, found great Part of the standing and running Rigging shot away, the Bulwark, Masts, Yards, &c. much damaged, One Marine killed, and Four Seamen wounded, though the Loss on the Part of the Enemy, I believe, from their apparent Confusion, must be greater.

And, Sir, when I reflect on the Superiority of the Enemy in point of Force, I cannot say enough in Praise of those brave Officers and Men I have the Honor to command, and from whose gallant Conduct and Zeal on the Occasion, particularly when ordered to prepare to board, I felt perfectly confident of carrying the French Ship in a few Minutes, on the Second Attack, had not her superior Sailing frustrated our Intentions.

I should feel unmindful of my Duty, was I to omit representing to you the great Assistance I received from Mr. Salmon the Master, on this, as well as on every other Occasion.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

W. CARR.

*Commodore Hood, Commander in Chief,
&c. &c. &c.*

P. S. Upon my Arrival at Tortola, I had Information of the exact Particulars of the French Ship from the President, which he assured me was well ascertained at St Thomas's, from which Place she sailed on the 4th Instant, about Twenty-eight Hours before we fell in with her. She proves to be the Grande Decide, Captain Guay, from Guadaloupe, carrying Twenty-two Nine-Pounders, and Two Hundred and Thirty Men, Eighty of which were Soldiers.

*Centaur, Carlisle Bay, Barbadoes,

SIR,

THE enclosed is a Copy of a Letter I have received from Captain Bland, of His Majesty's Ship Heureux, giving an Account of the Capture of a French Privateer to Windward of Barbadoes, with which I beg you to acquaint the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

Sir Evan Nepean, Bart.

SAM. HOOD.

His Majesty's Ship L'Heureux, at Sea, 26th February 1804.

SIR,

I BEG to inform you, that this Day, in the Latitude of Barbadoes, and Forty Leagues to Windward, His Majesty's Ship under my Command fell in with, and, after a long Chase, took Possession of the French Armed Schooner Flebustier, pierced for Fourteen Guns, had Six French Sixes, and Sixty-eight Men on board; she is new, sails remarkably fast, and was stowed for a long Cruise, from Guadaloupe; out Fifteen Days, and I could not learn she had made a Capture.

I am, Sir, &c.

LOFTUS OTWAY BLAND.

*Commodore Hood, Commander in Chief,
&c. &c. &c.*

* Retaken by the Heureux.

Centaur, Carlisle-Bay, Barbadoes, 22d March 1804.

SIR,

I BEG leave to enclose you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, an Account from Captain O'Bryen, of His Majesty's Ship Emerald, and Lieutenant Forrest, of the Capture of the Mofambique French Schooner Privateer, of Ten Eighteen Pounder Carronades, from under the Batteries, near the Pearl, which was executed in a most spirited and steady Manner by Lieutenant Forrest, and those that accompanied him in the Fort-Diamond, on this Service.

I also send Copy of a Letter from Captain Ferris, acting in His Majesty's Ship Blenheim, giving an Account of Two Boats of that Ship, under Lieutenant Furber, attacking the Curieuse French National Schooner, moored, and, I have since learned, chained to the Beach, under a Battery at St. Pierres.

I likewise subjoin the Copy of a Letter from Lieutenant King, First of this Ship, now acting in His Majesty's Sloop Drake, to Captain Nash, commanding the Blockade of the North Part of the Island of Martinique, giving an Account of his carrying, with Thirty Men only, the Fort at Trinite, when opposed to much superior Force.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

William Marsden, Esq.

SAM. HOOD.

His Majesty's Sloop Drake, off Trinitie, 25th February 1804.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to acquaint you, that on the Night of the 19th Instant, Lieutenant Compston and Mr. Robson, Master, voluntarily offered to bring out of the Harbour of Trinitie, Three American Vessels, that were taking in Cargoes, in Defiance of the Blockade, which they attempted in a very gallant Manner, having Possession of Two Brigs and a Schooner, under the Fire of the Fort, for a considerable Time, but from having no Wind, could succeed only in bringing out the Schooner.

The Anchorage being within Pistol-Shot of the Fort, I saw no Probability of Success if another Effort was made, unless the Fort was reduced; for which Purpose I, last Night, landed with Thirty Men, including Nine Marines, and succeeded in spiking the Guns, Three Thirty-two-Pounders, and Two Field-Pieces, which commanded the Entrance into the Fort.

I am sorry to add, One Seaman expired from his Wound this Morning, and that Lieutenant Compston and One Seaman, are each wounded in the Arm, but are doing very well, which are all that were hurt on the Occasion.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

SAM. W. KING.

Captain Nash, &c. &c. &c.

SIR,

Blenheim, March 5, 1804.

I BEG Leave to acquaint you, Two Boats (the Barge and Pinnace) of His Majesty's Ship under my Command, with Fifty Officers and Men, under the Orders of Lieutenant Furber, on the Night of the 4th, made a most gallant, but unsuccessful Attempt, to cut out a French National Schooner, laying close under a Fort at the Town of St. Pierre. She had made formidable Preparations; her Boarding Nettings being traced up to the lower Mast

Heads, and so fastened, that it was almost impossible to get in, and her Sweeps rigged out on each Side; notwithstanding all this, and the Beach lined with Soldiers, the Forts, an armed Sloop, and several other small Vessels near, keeping up a heavy Fire of Guns and Musquetry, those brave Officers and Men in the Two Boats, persevered and cut her Cables, but it being perfectly calm, she swung and grounded on the Beach, when all Hopes of bringing her out were given up, and from the Number killed and wounded, as per enclosed List, the Commanding Officer very properly ordered the Boats off.

I lament sincerely our Loss, but I trust you, Sir, will think the Character of British Seamen was well supported on this Occasion, for surely never was greater Spirit displayed.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

W. FERRIS.

*Commodore Hood, Commander in Chief,
&c. &c. &c.*

Blenheim's Boats.*

1 Seaman and 2 Marines, killed; 5 Officers, 11 Seamen (Three of which severely), and 3 Marines, wounded; 3 Seamen, missing.

*Off St. Pierre's, Martinique, Emerald,
March 12, 1804.*

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to enclose you a Letter I have received from Lieutenant Forrest, First Lieutenant of His Majesty's Ship under my Command, who I this Morning sent, accompanied by Thirty Volunteers, on board the Fort-Diamond Armed Sloop, with Directions to work to Windward Seas, to enable the Sloop to Weather the Pearl Rock, and to bear down on an Armed Schooner, which had, finding it impossible to get into St. Pierres, this Ship being to Leeward, anchored close in Shore, under the Cover of the Battery at Seron. I at the same Time sent the Boats of this Ship in a different Direction, in order to take off the Attention of the Battery from the Manœuvre in Contemplation, to be performed by Lieutenant Forrest.

It affords me particular Satisfaction to bear Testimony to the handsome and gallant Manner in which this Service was performed, Lieutenant Forrest having laid the National Schooner on board under a heavy Fire from her and the Battery.

In the Performance of this Service great Judgment was exhibited, as, by the Mode of doing it, a Chain, by which she was fastened to the Shore, was broke, Twenty Feet of which is now hanging to the Schooner's Bow. The Crew of this Vessel, finding it impossible to withstand British Intrepidity, jumped overboard and swam ashore, which they were enabled to do from her being moored close to it.

It affords me particular Pleasure to inform you, Sir, that this gallant Service was performed without any Loss on our Part, Two Men only being slightly wounded. I have been rather more circumstantial in this Detail, than perhaps the mere Capture of a Privateer justifies, but I feel I should not do Justice to the gallant Conduct of Lieutenant Forrest, the Judgment he exhibited, the brave and cool Conduct of the petty Officers and Men under his Command, which he speaks of in high Terms, had I neglected relating every Circumstance that took place, which has excited Admiration and Emulation in the Breast of the Spectators, and, Sir, I must beg to add, that the general Conduct of this Officer, ever since he has been under my Command, has been such as to entitle him to my Approbation. This captured Schooner, whose Name I can only guess at from a Letter found on board, the only Paper left, is the Mosambique, commanded by Citizen Vallentes, pierced for Fourteen Guns, Ten Carronnades Eighteen-Pounders only mounted; she is from Guadeloupe, and is fitted for a 'Three Months' Cruise, to all Appearance perfectly new, Copper bottomed and taitened, sails apparently well, and seems calculated for the King's Service.

His Majesty's Ship the Pandour hove in Sight, and closed in sufficient Time to send Two Boats to join in the Diversion intended to be made by those from the Ship. I have the Honor to be, &c.

JAMES O'BRYAN.

S. H. O., Esq; Commodore, and Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c.

SIR, Fort Diamond, March 13, 1804.

I HAVE the Honor to inform you that, acting according to your Directions, in His Majesty's Armed Sloop Fort-Diamond, I had the good Fortune to succeed in bringing out the Enemy's Privateer Schooner Mosambique from under the Batteries contiguous to the Pearl; she is pierced for Fourteen Guns, and mounted with Ten Eighteen-Pounders; On seeing us determined to board, her Crew deserted her, after discharging her Broadside and Musquetry; and I observed about Sixty Whites and Blacks in the Water after I had gained Possession; but as you were an Eye-witness to the Service, I can do no more than recommend the Officers and Men you did me the Honor to place under my Command to your most particular Notice, for their gallant and intrepid Conduct, while standing through the Enemy's Fire, and their Activity and orderly Behaviour after Possession. I found her secured with Two Cables and a Chain to the Shore; the former we cut, and the latter the fortunately broke by the Shock in boarding. I have the Happiness to inform you, that we have suffered no Loss.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

THO. FORREST.

SCHOOL OF PHYSIC IN IRELAND.

Whereas, by an Act of Parliament passed in Ireland in the Twenty-fifth Year of His present Majesty, intitled "An Act for establishing a complete School of Physic in this Kingdom," it is enacted "That several Professorships shall be established:" And whereas the Professorship of Materia Medica and Pharmacy has become vacant by the Decease of the late Doctor Edmund Cullen, Notice is hereby given, that the Election of King's Professor of the Materia Medica and Pharmacy in the City of Dublin, on the Foundation of Sir Patrick Dunn, will be held at the House of the President of the King and Queen's College of Physicians, on Saturday the 21st Day of July next ensuing, at the Hour of Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, after such previous Examination as the Electors shall require.

The following Emoluments and Advantages attend this Professorship:—The Professor will receive the yearly Sum of One Hundred Pounds, to commence at the Time of his Election; and also may charge reasonable Fees, to be paid by all such Persons as attend his Lectures, the said Fees to be paid on Admission, and to be from Time to Time regulated by the President and Fellows of the King and Queen's College of Physicians in Ireland.

The Lectures are to commence on the first Monday in November, and to continue until the End of April, and are to be given Four Days in the Week, at least, in Trinity College, Dublin; they are also to be delivered in the English Language, unless it be otherwise ordered by the President and Fellows of the King and Queen's College of Physicians.

This Professorship is open to Persons of all Nations, provided they have taken Medical Degrees, and will become vacant at the End of Seven Years from the Date of the Election; but at the Expiration of the said Seventh Year the same Professor may be again elected.

The Electors are bound to the strictest Impartiality, by an Oath required by the said Act to be taken by every Elector previous to the Election.

It is desired that all Persons intending to offer themselves as Candidates for said Professorship do, within Two Months from the Date hereof, send their Names, and also an Account of the Place of their Education, of the Universities in which they have taken Medical Degrees, and of the Places in which they have practised, to the Rev. John Barrett, D.D. Trinity College, Dublin, and to Thomas Herbert Orpen, M.D. No. 3, South Frederick-Street, Dublin, who will give any further Information on the Subject that may be necessary.

(Signed) JOHN BARRETT, Reg. T. C. D.
THOMAS HERBERT ORPEN, Reg. College of Physicians.

30th April 1804.

THE Trustees of Messrs. Strange, Dashwood, and Co. late of New Bond-Street, Bankers, particularly request the Creditors of their Joint Estate will meet them on Friday the 18th Day of May next, at Twelve o'Clock, at the Crown and Anchor Tavern in the Strand, on very special Affairs, then to be submitted to their Consideration.—The Chair will be taken at One o'Clock precisely.

TO CREDITORS AND DEBTORS.

ALL Persons having Demands on the late Copartnership of Batterley and Adderton, of Lower Shadwell, in the County of Middlesex, Ship-Chandlers, are desired to send the Particulars, without Delay, to the Office of Mr. Nind, in Great Prescot-Street; and all Persons indebted to the said Copartnership are desired forthwith to pay the Debts to Mr. Nind, who is duly authorized to receive the same.

TO be sold by Auction, before the major Part of the Commissioners named and authorized in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Richard Yarwood, now or late of Stockport, in the County of Chester, Spademaker, Dealer and Chapman, at the Red-Lion Inn, in Heaton-horris, in the County of Lancaster, on Monday the 21st Day of May 1804, at the Hour of Four in the Afternoon, (subject to such Conditions as will be then and there produced,) the following Estate of Inheritance, late of the said Bankrupt, situate in Gorton, in the County of Lancaster, and in the following Lots, viz.

Lot 1. All that Messuage or Dwelling-House, now occupied as a Farm-House, and in the Possession of Samuel Wild; and also all those Two Cottages adjoining thereto, with the Gardens thereto belonging, now in the several Possessions or Occupations of Joseph Gough and Thomas Hobson; and also all those Three several Closes, Fields, or Parcels of Meadow Land, called the Back-Door Meadow and the Horse Meadow, late in the Possession of the said Bankrupt, and the Little Meadow, now in the Occupation of Ellen Hardy, Widow, containing together 6 Acres 2 Roods 17 Perches, or thereabouts, of the Lancashire Measure.

Lot 2. All that Messuage or Dwelling-House, with the Stable and Orchard thereunto belonging, now in the Possession of John Knowles; and also all those Two other Messuages or Dwelling-Houses, adjoining to the last mentioned premises, but yet unfinished.

Lot 3. All those Three several Closes, Fields, or Parcels of Meadow Land, called the Overstones, containing together 7 Acres 6 Perches, of like Measure, or thereabouts, late also in the Possession of the said Bankrupt.

Lot 4. All those Two several Closes, Fields, or Parcels of Land, called the Great Meadow and the Clover Field, containing together 5 Acres 4 Perches, of the like Measure, or thereabouts, and now in the Possession or Occupation of the said Ellen Hardy.

Lot 5. All those Two several Closes, Fields, or Parcels of Meadow Land, called the Rushy Field and the Hard Field, containing together 6 Acres 1 Rood 26 Perches, of the like Measure, or thereabouts, late also in the Possession of the said Bankrupt.

N. B. The Tenanted Parts of the Premises above-mentioned are leased at Will, or from Year to Year, and the Whole are distant from Manchester about Four Miles, and from Stockport about Three Miles; the Stockport Branch of the Manchester and Ashton Canal also runs through a considerable Part of the Estate; and the Orchard in the 2d Lot lies conveniently for a Coal or other Wharf. The Lands have been very lately laid down with Clover and Grass Seeds, and are in a good State of Cultivation, and abound throughout with excellent Brick Earth and Marl; and from recent Experiments there is every Reason to believe that a valuable Seam of Coal runs under the Whole of the Estate, and that the same may be easily got at and worked to great Advantage.

And also to be sold by Auction, before the same Commissioners, and at the same Time and Place, the following Chancel Interests late of the said Bankrupt, viz.

Lot 6. All those Two Messuages or Dwelling-Houses, with Two large Workshops underneath, fit for Hatters, Weavers, or Smiths, but at present untenanted, together with Two Gardens adjoining, in the Possession of Mr. William Barlow, and a small Close of Land, late in the Possession of the said Bankrupt, situate at the Upper End of the Churchgate, in Stockport, in the County of Chester, containing in the Whole nearly 1800 Square Yards of Land, and holden by Lease granted originally by the Rector of Stockport, for a Term of 99 Years, which commenced the 17th Day of August 1797; and also all that yearly Rent of 5l. 14s. issuing out of a Plot of Land, containing 684 Square Yards, lately Part of the Field last above-mentioned, and sold by the said Bankrupt to the said William Barlow, for the Remainder of the said Term of 99 Years, subject to the Payment of the said Rent of 5l. 14s.

The Buildings comprised in this Lot have been lately erected, and the Gardens and Field lie conveniently for building upon, and in an improving Part of the Town of Stockport; and the Whole are subject to a clear yearly Rent of 12l. 12s.

Lot 7. The Beneficial Estate and Interest of the said Bankrupt of and in Five several Closes of Land, situate in Edgeley, within Cheadle Bulkeley, in the said County of Chester, now in the Possession of James Moorhouse and James Bowers, holden by Lease granted by Messrs. Ollivant to the said Bankrupt for a Term of 14 Years, of which nearly Nine are unexpired, under the Rent of 75l. 14s. and which have been since assigned by the said Bankrupt unto the said James Moorhouse and James Bowers, for the Remainder of the said Term, under the yearly Rent of 116l. payable to the said Bankrupt, thereby producing a Profit to him of 40l. 6s. per Annum.

Lot 8. The Beneficial Interest of the said Bankrupt, consisting of One Share, in a Certain Club or Society, called the Edgeley Club, associated for the erecting of a Dwelling-House for each of the Members on Land in Edgeley aforesaid, and towards the Expence whereof the Bankrupt has already paid nearly 40l.

Lot 9. The Beneficial Interest of the said Bankrupt, consisting of One Share in a certain Club or Society, called the Drabank Club, associated for the erecting of a Dwelling-House for each of the Members thereof, on Land situate at the End of Chettersgate, in Stockport aforesaid, and towards the Expence whereof the Bankrupt has paid nearly 50l.

The Tenants of the respective Premises will shew the same, and further Particulars may be had from Mr. Thomas Alban Owen, of Stockport, one of the said Bankrupt's Assignees, or at the Office of Messrs. Lingard and Dale, Solicitors, in Heaton-norris aforesaid.

A PROCLAMATION

For a General FAST.

GEORGE R.

WE, taking into Our most serious Consideration the just and necessary War in which We are engaged, and putting Our Trust in Almighty God that He will graciously bless Our Arms both by Sea and Land, have resolved, and do, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, hereby command, That a public Day of Fasting and Humiliation be observed throughout those Parts of Our Kingdom called England and Ireland, on Friday the Twenty-fifth Day of May next ensuing, that so both We and Our People may humble Ourselves before Almighty God, in order to obtain Pardon of Our Sins, and in the most devout and solemn Manner send up our Prayers and Supplications to the Divine Majesty, for averting those heavy Judgments which Our manifold Provocations have most justly deserved; and for imploring His Blessing and Assistance on Our Arms for the Restoration of Peace and Prosperity to Us and Our Dominions: And We do strictly charge and command, that the said Public Fast be reverently and devoutly observed by all Our loving Subjects in England and Ireland, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and would avoid His Wrath and Indignation; and upon Pain of such Punishment as We may justly inflict on all such as contemn and neglect the Performance of so religious and necessary a Duty: And, for the better and more orderly solemnizing the same, We have given Directions to the Most Reverend the Archbishops, and the Right Reverend the Bishops of England and Ireland, to compose a Form of Prayer suitable to this Occasion, to be used in all Churches, Chapels, and Places of public Worship, and to take Care that the same be timely dispersed throughout their respective Dioceses.

Given at Our Court at the Queen's Palace, this Twenty-third Day of April, One thousand eight hundred and four, in the Forty-fourth Year of Our Reign.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 23d of April 1804,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS be an Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, intitled "An Act for permitting, until the Fifth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and five, the Importation of Hides, Calf-Skins, Horns, Tallow, and Wool (except Cotton Wool), in Foreign Ships, on Payment of the like Duties, as if imported in British or Irish Ships;" it is enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by His Order in Council, from Time to Time, when and as often as it shall be judged expedient, to permit, until the Fifth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and five, any Hides, Pieces of Hides, dressed or undressed, Calf-Skins, or Pieces of Calf-Skins, dressed or undressed, Horns, or Pieces of Horns, Tallow, and Wool (except Cotton Wool), to be imported in any Foreign Ship or Vessel, and to be admitted to Entry in any Port or Place in the United Kingdom, on Payment of such and the like Duties of Customs and Excise as are due and payable on the like Goods when imported in any British or Irish-built Ship or Vessel; any Thing contained in any Act to the contrary notwithstanding: His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance of the Powers vested in His Majesty by the above-recited Act, to allow, and doth hereby allow, during the Space of Three Months from the Date of this Order, the Importation of any Hides, Pieces of Hides, dressed or undressed, Calf-Skins, or Pieces of Calf-Skins, dressed or undressed, Horns, or Pieces of Horns, Tallow, and Wool (except Cotton Wool), in any Foreign Ship or Vessel; and that on the Arrival at any Port of the United Kingdom of any Foreign Ship or Vessel with any of the Articles above mentioned, the said Goods shall be admitted to Entry on Payment of the same Duties of Customs and Excise as are due and payable on the like Goods when imported in any British or Irish-built Ship or Vessel.—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions accordingly.

Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 23d of April 1804,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it has been represented to His Majesty in Council, That in His Majesty's Order in Council of the Twenty-ninth of July One thousand eight hundred, appointing the Places for the Performance of Quarantine by Ships and Vessels bound to the several Ports of this Kingdom, Lampath, in the Island of Arran, is mentioned as the Place for the Performance of Quarantine by Vessels arriving at the Port of Greenock liable thereto; and that Holy Loch, in the Firth of Clyde, is a more convenient Place for the Performance thereof, His Majesty is therefore pleased, with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, as it is hereby ordered, that all such Ships or Vessels as are or shall be bound to the Port of Greenock, or any Member or Creek thereof, or other Place therein, from any Place or Places from whence Quarantine is required to be performed, shall perform their Quarantine in Holy Loch, in the Firth of Clyde, in place of Lampath, in the Island of Arran; and that all Goods imported on board such Ships shall be aimed at the same Place.—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 3d of May 1804,

P R E S E N T,

The Lords of His Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council.

THIS Majesty having been pleased to appoint A Charles Cameron, Esq; Captain-General and Governor in Chief of the Bahama Islands, he this Day took the Oaths appointed to be taken by the Governors of His Majesty's Plantations.

Westminster, May 3, 1804.

THIS Day the Lords being met, a Message was sent to the Honorable House of Commons by Sir Francis Molyneux, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorized by virtue of His Majesty's Commission for declaring His Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate Attendance of the Honorable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

An Act for raising the Sum of Eight Millions by Loans or Exchequer-Bills, for the Service of Great Britain for the Year One thousand eight hundred and four.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 8th of

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS Day the Right Honorable Sir James Mansfield, Knight, Lord Chief Justice of His Majesty's Court of Common Pleas, was, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

His Majesty, in Council, was this Day pleased to appoint Thomas Holmes, of Beoley, Esq; to be Sheriff of the County of Worcester for the Year One thousand eight hundred and four, in the Room of Edward Knight, of Woolverley, Esq.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Twenty-first of December last, to prohibit, until the Thirty-first Day of March then ensuing, the Exportation of the several Articles of Provision mentioned in the said Order; and also to permit, for and during the like Term, the Importation, Duty free, of the several Articles of Provision also specified in the said Order, which expired on the Thirty-first of March last; And whereas it is judged expedient that the Permission to import certain Articles of Provision free of Duty should be revived, and be in Force for some Time longer, His Majesty, in virtue of the Powers vested in His Majesty by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue several Laws relating to the suspending the Operation of Two Acts of the Fifteenth and Seventeenth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty for restraining the Ne-gociation of Promissory Notes and Bills of Exchange, under a limited Sum, in England; and to the prohibiting the Exportation from, and permitting the Importation to, Great Britain, of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision, without Payment of Duty, until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and five; and to the regulating the Trade and Commerce to and from the Isle of Malta, until Six Months after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace;" is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to allow, and doth hereby allow, for and during the Space of Three Months from the Date of this Order, the Importation into any Port or Place of Great Britain of any Beans called Kidney or French Beans, Tares, Lentiles, Calavancies, and all other Sorts of Pulse; and also Bulls, Cows, Oxen, Calves, Sheep, Lambs, and Swine; Beef, Pork, Mutton, Veal, and Lamb, whether salted or otherwise; Bacon, Hams, Tongues, Butter, Cheese, Potatoes, Sago, Sago-Powder, Tapioca, Vermicelli, Millet-Seed, Poultry, Fowls, Eggs, Game, and Sour Crout, in any British Ship or Vessel, or in any other Ship or Vessel belonging to Persons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majesty, and navigated in any Manner whatever, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever; provided that a due Entry shall be made of all such Articles as aforesaid, that shall be so imported, with the proper Officers of the Customs at the Port where the same shall be imported, under the Penalties and Forfeitures mentioned and referred to in the said above-recited Act.—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

TO OFFICERS ON HALF PAY.

War-Office, May 10, 1804.

ALL Officers on the Half Pay of the Land Forces, whether resident in Great Britain, Ireland, or the adjacent Islands, are hereby required immediately to transmit to the Secretary at War, an Account, in Writing, of their Age, past Services, Rank, and present Place of Abode; and such as think themselves, from Age or Infirmities, unfit for further Service, even in this Country, are to accompany their Reports with sufficient Vouchers of their Inability, and the Causes thereof.

The Officers on Half Pay who are serving in the Militia, Fencibles, or Volunteers, are to specify the Commission, which they respectively hold, and those otherwise employed under Government, the Nature of the public Situation, which they possess.

Every such Officer who shall neglect to make his Report within one Month from the Date hereof, will be considered as otherwise provided for, or dead, and his Name will be struck off the Half Pay List accordingly.

By His Majesty's Command,

C. BRAGGE.

IMPROVEMENT of the PORT and HAR-BOUR of BRISTOL.

Bristol Dock Company's Office, Broad-
Bristol, 1st May 1804.

WHEREAS by virtue of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the Forty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for improving and rendering more commodious the Port and Harbour of Bristol," it is enacted, "That from and after the Expiration of Twelve Calendar Months next after the Works thereby authorised to be made and formed shall have been begun, and Notice thereof given in the London Gazette and Two Bristol Newspapers, there shall be payable and paid to the said Company, or their Collectors or Deputies, for their Use, certain Rates on the Tonnage of every Ship or Vessel entering into the Port of Bristol, (except as in the said Act excepted,) and also for all Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, and Commodities whatsoever imported from Parts beyond the Seas, but not brought Coastwise, or by Inland Navigation, into the said Port of Bristol (except as therein excepted); and also, that it shall be lawful for the Justices of the Peace in and for the said City and County of the City of Bristol, at their General Quarter Sessions after the Feast of the Holy Trinity in every Year, and they are hereby empowered and required to order and appoint the further Sum of Two Thousand and Four Hundred Pounds to be raised and levied by a Rate or Payment of all

"Lands, Houses, Tenements, or Hereditaments within the said City of Bristol (as in the said Act is mentioned); and the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of each respective Parish and Precinct are thereby required to collect, account for, and pay over the Money apportioned on their Parishes and Precincts respectively to the said Director, or any Five or more of them, or to the Treasurer or Person appointed to receive the same (as in the said Act is mentioned): Provided that nothing in the said Act contained shall authorise the said Dock Company to take or receive any of the said Rates or Duties by the said Act imposed, until the said Company shall have expended and laid out, under the Provisions of the said Act, or some of them, or in carrying the same into Execution, the Sum of One Hundred Thousand Pounds, if such Sum shall not have been expended before the Expiration of Twelve Calendar Months, as in the said Act mentioned."

And whereas, by virtue and in pursuance of the Power and Authority by the said Act given to the said Company, and in execution thereof, the Directors appointed to conduct and manage the Affairs and Business of the said Company, have this First Day of May in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and four, begun the Works authorised by the said Act to be made and formed, and have ordered and appointed as the undersigned Clerks to the said Dock Company to give Notice thereof in the London Gazette and Two Bristol

Newspapers, pursuant to the Directions of the said Statute.

In pursuance, therefore, of the Directions of the said Act, and by Order of the Directors of the said Dock Company, we the undersigned Clerks to the said Dock Company do hereby give Notice, that on Tuesday the First Day of May in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and four, the Works authorized by the said Act to be made and formed were begun.

By Order of the Directors,
GEO. WEBB HALL,
JOHN OSBORNE,
Clerks to the Dock Company.

LONDON.

At the General Session of the Peace of our Lord the King, holden for the City of London, at the Guildhall within the said City, on Monday the 9th Day of April, in the Forty-fourth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Third, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland King, Defender of the Faith, before John Perring Esq; Mayor of the City of London, Sir William Curtis, Baronet, one of the Aldermen of the said City, John Silvester, Esq; Recorder of the said City, John Ashley, Esq; Thomas Rowerott, Esq; other of the Aldermen of the said City, and others their Fellows, Justices of our said Lord the King, assigned to keep the Peace of our said Lord the King within the said City, and also to hear and determine divers Felonies, Trepasses, and other Misdemeanors committed within the said City;

BE it remembered, That the Inspector of Corn Returns hath, in open Court, presented and delivered to the Lord Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen, assembled at this present Session, a certain Book, into which the States or Accounts of the Aggregate Quantities, Prices, and Average Prices of English Barley, Beans, Pease, Rye, Wheat, Rape Seed, and Oats, bona fide sold and delivered between the 7th Day of November last and the 11th Day of February last, by each and every Person carrying on the Trade or Business of a Corn-factor in the City of London or Suburbs thereof, have been made up, formed, computed, and distinguished, and fairly and properly inserted; and hath verified upon his Oath, that the same have been fairly, correctly, and properly made up, formed, and computed, to the best of his Power, Skill, and Judgment, and according, so far as in him lay, to the true Intent and Tenor of the Acts of Parliament in that Behalf: And the General Average Prices of each of the said respective sorts of Corn and Grain thereby appearing to the said Lord Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen, they do hereby, in pursuance of the said Act, deem and certify the same to be as follows, that is to say,

Barley - - -	1	3	11	Average Price per Quarter on the last Six Weeks.
Beans - - -	1	11	9
Pease - - -	1	17	7
Rye - - -	1	12	8
Wheat - - -	2	11	8
Rape-Seed - -	3	14	0	Average Price per Quarter on the last Twelve Weeks.
Oats - - -	1	4	3

And do hereby order and direct, that the said General Average Prices be published in the London Gazette once in Four several Weeks immediately succeeding this present Session.

By the Court,

THOMAS SHULTON,
Clerk of the Peace.

Messrs. Douglas, Heron, and Co. late Bankers in Agt.

Notice is hereby given, that all those who have hitherto appeared with legal Demands as Creditors of the said Company, have received Payment of their Debts.

ON THE BOXES.

NEW MEDICINE DUTY.

THE Virtues and great Demand of that excellent Medicine called Dr. ANDERSON's, or ENGLISH's TRUE SCOTS PILLS, having tempted many Druggists, and other Dealers in Medicine in Town and Country, to prepare and offer for Sale a counterfeit Sort, to the great Injury of the Health of those who take them, as well as to the Prejudice of the sole Proprietor of the original Recipe, he now, in consequence, avails himself of the New Medicine Act (compelling every Box of Medicine to be inclosed in a Stamp in which the Proprietor's Name is to be expressed) on such Stamp, his Name, "B. H. ENGLISH," No. 105, Strand, opposite the New Church, the counterfeiting of which is Death, otherwise the Law will most likely be imposed upon.

For their further Information, the Bill underneath the Stamp, with his Signature and Arms (as above), contains every Particular relative to the Qualities of these Pills, and the numerous Complaints they are calculated to remove, and which he begs their Perusal of.

TO be sold by Auction, by Mr. Howton, on Thursday the 31st Day of May instant, between the Hours of Two and Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the House of John Rus, the Sign of the Royal Oak Inn, Devizes, in the County of Wilts, (by Order of the Assignees of Richard Salisbury, late of the City of Bath, Coach-Master, a Bankrupt) subject to such Conditions as will be then and there produced:

TO OFFICERS ON HALF PAY.

War Office, May 10, 1804.

ALL Officers on the Half Pay of the Land Forces, whether resident in Great Britain, Ireland, or the adjacent Islands, are hereby required immediately to transmit to the Secretary at War, an Account, in Writing, of their Age, past Services, Rank, and present Place of Abode; and such as think themselves, from Age or Infirmities, unfit for further Service, even in this Country, are to accompany their Reports with sufficient Vouchers of their Inability, and the Causes thereof.

The Officers on Half Pay who are serving in the Militia, Fencibles, or Volunteers, are to specify the Commission, which they respectively hold, and those otherwise employed under Government, the Nature of the public Situation, which they possess.

Every such Officer who shall neglect to make his Report within one Month from the Date hereof, will be considered as otherwise provided for, or dead, and his Name will be struck off the Half Pay List accordingly.

By His Majesty's Command,
C. BRAGGE.

Whitehall, May 15, 1804.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented to the King, that, on the 17th of March last, between the Hours of Eight and Nine o'Clock in the Evening, as Benjamin Skene, an Officer employed under Captain Birchall, on the Service of raising Men for the Fleet at the City of Chester, was conducting, in a peaceable Manner, one Edward Jones, whom he had impressed, along Bridge-Street, in the said City, assisted by George Marshall (one of the Men employed under Captain Birchall on the above mentioned Service), who was walking behind him, a Stone was thrown by some Person unknown, which struck the said George Marshall on the Left Side of his Head, and fractured his Skull, and that he died in consequence thereof on the 30th Day of April last;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in this atrocious act, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One or more of the Offenders (except the Person who actually threw the said Stone) who shall discover his or their Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HAWKESBURY.

And the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty do hereby offer a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS to any Person or Persons (except as is before excepted) who shall apprehend, or cause to be apprehended, any of the said Offenders, to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of them by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy.

N. B. One James Fleming, who had been impressed, and was afterwards discharged on the Ground of his being an Apprentice, was in Company with the above named Edward Jones at the Time he was impressed, and having left Chester on the Night the Blow was given, and not having been since heard of, strong Suspensions are entertained that he was the Person who threw the said Stone.

Bank of England, May 12, 1804.

THE Court of Directors of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, with the Approbation of His Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, having caused Dollars to be stamped at Mr. Boulton's Manufactory with His Majesty's Head and an Inscription, "Georgius III. Dei Gratia Rex," on the Obverse; and Britannia, with the Words "Five Shillings Dollar Bank of England, 1804," on the Reverse; which they propose to issue instead of the Dollars which have been lately stamped at His Majesty's Mint at the Tower, the latter of which it is expedient to withdraw from Circulation, hereby give Notice, that those Dollars which have been stamped at the Tower since the 1st Day of January last, and which are now in Circulation, will not be Current, nor will be received at the Bank at the Rate of 5s. each, after the 2d Day of June next; and that from and after the 2d Instant, until the said 2d Day of June inclusive, they may be exchanged for Dollars with the new Stamp, or for Bank Notes, after the Rate of 5s. for each Dollar. Attendance will be given at the Bank for this Purpose on Monday the 21st Instant, and the following Days, (Sundays and Fast Day excepted) until Saturday the 2d Day of June inclusive. But, to avoid Confusion from a Crowd of Persons applying at the same Time, the Court finds it necessary to give Notice, that smaller Sums than Eight Dollars cannot be exchanged at the Bank.

Robert Bell, Secretary.

Navy-Office, May 11, 1804.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Wednesday the 23d Instant, at Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon, Commissioner Sir Charles Saxton, Bart. will expose to Sale at the Pay-Office, in His Majesty's Yard near Portsmouth, several Lots of Old Stores, consisting of

ORDER OF THE BATH.

GEORGE R.

GEORGE the Third, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland King, Defender of the Faith, &c. and Sovereign of the Most Honorable Military Order of the Bath, to all to whom these Presents shall come, Greeting: Whereas, by the Statute of Our said

Most Honorable Military Order of the Bath, it is provided, that We, the Sovereign thereof, have the Power of adding to the same from Time to Time, and of explaining any Particular therein, as to Us shall seem expedient, all which Additions and Explanations, under Our Sign Manual, are to be taken as Part and Parcel of the Statutes of our said Order: And whereas, in and by the Eighteenth Statute, it is (amongst other Things) declared to be the Duty of the Genealogist of the said Order to examine and enter the Pedigrees of the respective Persons then already elected, and of such as might hereafter be elected into the said Order, and of their Esquires, Governors, and of the Young Esquires, with their several Coat-Arms; and that he was likewise fairly to enter the same into Books, to remain to Posterity for the Memorial of their Families: And whereas certain Differences have arisen between Our Servants the King's Heralds and Pursuivants of Our College of Arms, and the Genealogists of the said Most Honorable Order, respecting the Exercise of the Duties, which by the said Eighteenth Statute are assigned to Our said Genealogist, for the Adjustment of which a Chapter of the said Most Honorable Military Order was held on the 10th Day of June last: And whereas it was by the said Chapter resolved, That as it appeared to the Chapter to be the Opinion of the Law Officers of the Crown, that the Heralds, (that is to say, Our Servants the King's Heralds and Pursuivants of Our College of Arms,) have the Original Cognizance of Pedigrees and Coat-Armour, and that the Genealogist cannot properly receive any Evidence of Pedigree or Coat-Armour to be entered in his Books in pursuance of the Statutes, except from the College of Arms, The Chapter therefore humbly recommended to Us, that We would be pleased to command, that the Pedigrees and Arms of the Knights and Esquires of this Order should be recorded in the College of Arms, upon Payment of the accustomed Fees, and that Copies of such Pedigrees and Arms be communicated to the Genealogist of the Order, who shall enter the same in Books of the Order to be provided for that Purpose; and that We would also be graciously pleased to determine such Fees as the said Genealogist should be entitled to for making such Transcripts in those Books: And whereas at a Chapter of Our

College of Arms, held at Our said College on the Twenty-third Day of January One thousand eight hundred and four, it was ordered, That the Treasurer of Our said College should provide, at the Office Expence, a Book to be used only for the Entry of the Pedigrees and Arms of the Knights Companions of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, and another for those of their respective Esquires; and that of every Entry so to be made, and for which the accustomed Fees shall have been paid to the College, the Register shall, upon the Application of the Genealogist of the said Order for the Time being, deliver, or cause to be delivered, to the said Genealogist a Copy to be entered in the Books of the said Order, according to the Statutes of the said Order, and for which Copy no Fees shall be charged or taken by the Register, or any other Officer of the College: Now We, having duly considered such Recommendation and such Order of Our College of Arms, do hereby command and enjoin all the Knights who have been invested with this Most Honorable Military Order since the Fifteenth Day of June One thousand seven hundred and ninety-two, (being the Date of the Patent of the present Genealogist,) and their Esquires, Governors, and Young Esquires, that they shall record their respective Pedigrees and Coat-Arms in the College of Arms, paying therefor the accustomed Fees; and that the said Genealogist, or the Genealogist for the Time being, shall procure a Copy of the same from the Register of Our said College of Arms, and examine and transcribe the same in the Genealogical Books of the said Order: And We do hereby further command and enjoin, That each and every of the said Knights, their Esquires, Governors, and their Young Esquires, shall pay to the aforesaid Genealogist, or to the Genealogist for the Time being, for the examining and entering of such Pedigrees and Coat-Arms in the Genealogical Books of the said Order in Manner following, to wit—For the first Descent or Generation the Sum of Six Shillings and Eight Pence, and for every additional Descent or Generation the Sum of Five Shillings, and for entering the Armorial Ensigns of a Knight Companion the Sum of One Pound Ten Shillings, (all which Fees have been the usual Fees paid by Us out of Our Treasury in Cases where We have been graciously pleased to discharge the Expences incurred by the Investiture of any Knight Elect,) and for entering the Armorial Ensigns of an Esquire Fifteen Shillings, the aforesaid Sums being conformable to a Table of Fees, dated the Seventeenth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, issued under the Hand of Our dear entirely beloved Son Frederick acting as Great Maller, and under the Seal of the said Order, which said Table We do, by these Presents, confirm and ratify; and each and every of such Knights, Esquires, Governors, and Young Esquires, shall also pay to the Officer who may be employed to record their said Pedigrees and Coat-Arms in the College of Arms, the accustomed Fee for so doing: And We do hereby direct all the said Knights, Esquires, Governors, and Young Esquires, to certify their Belief of the Truth and Correctness of their respective Pedigrees in the Genealogical Books of the said Order: And We do hereby further ordain, That nothing herein contained shall prejudice or injure the Rights and Privileges of our said Genealogist, as given and secured to him by the aforesaid Statutes, which we, in all Respects, hereby confirm.

Given under Our Sign Manual the Eighth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and four, in the Forty-fourth Year of our Reign.

C. YORKE.

Westminster, May 16, 1804.

THIS Day the Lords being met, a Message was sent to the Honorable House of Commons by Sir Francis Molyneux, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorized by virtue of His Majesty's Commission for declaring His Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate Attendance of the Honorable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

COPIES of Letters from Commodore Hood, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the Leeward Islands, to William Marsden, Esq.

Centaur, Carlisle-Bay, Barbadoes, March 1804.

SIR,

IBEG Leave to enclose you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, Copy of a Letter from Lieutenant Carr, commanding His Majesty's Armed Schooner L'Eclair, giving an Account of the cutting out an Enemy's Privateer by Mr. Salmon, the Master, and Ten Men in a Boat, from under the Batteries of La Hayes, Guadaloupe.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

W. Marsden, Esq.

SAM. HOOD.

His Majesty's Schooner L'Eclair, St. John's Roads, 10th March 1804.

SIR,

IT is with great Pleasure I have the Honor to acquaint you, that on Tuesday the 5th Instant, at Two P. M. passing Englishman's-Head, Guadaloupe, in His Majesty's Schooner under my Command, I discovered a Schooner standing at the Northward; on drawing near her she hoisted a Red Pendant, stood into the Hayes, and anchored close under the Batteries. On standing in I discovered her to be a French Privateer full of Men. The Wind blowing fresh on Shore from the Westward prevented my sending the Cutter to attack her. At Seven, still laying off the Hayes, it fell Calm. I then proposed sending the Cutter to attempt her, when Mr. Salmon, the Master, volunteered this Service, to which I consented, from the Knowledge I had of his Resolution and good Conduct on former Occasions; and I hope, Sir, you will be of Opinion he merits the Confidence placed in him. The Boat containing only Ten Men, himself, and the Surgeon, who was also a Volunteer. At Two A. M. the Boat returned, having captured and brought out the Privateer, who commenced firing on them, as also the Batteries, immediately on their entering their Harbour; the Boat persevered, boarded, and carried her after a stout Resistance of Ten Minutes from the Crew, consisting, when boarded, of Forty-nine Men, well prepared to receive them, and obliged afterwards to tow and sweep her out in a dead Calm, under a heavy Fire from the Enemy's Batteries, as also the Musketry from the Shore: The Maller assures me that the very gallant Conduct of the Men, together with the Assistance of the Surgeon, in Opposition to all Difficulties, enabled him to execute this Service. She proves to be Le Rose Schooner Privateer, carrying Fifty Men, well armed, and One long Brass Nine-Pounder; sails extremely fast, well found, and victualled complete for Three Months for Fifty Men; just going on a Cruise.

I am happy to add that no Loss has been sustained on the Part of the Boat. On the Part of the Enemy Five Men killed and Ten wounded, Four of whom jumped overboard, including the Captain, who was wounded on the first of the Attack.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

W. CARR.

Centaur, Carlisle Bay, Barbadoes, March 28, 1804.

SIR,

I BEG leave to enclose you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a Letter I have received from Captain Younghusband, of His Majesty's Sloop Osprey, giving an Account of a most spirited Action he fought with the Egyptienne, a French Frigate of Thirty-six Guns and Two Hundred and Sixty Men, which must certainly have fallen to his superior Skill and Bravery, had not she availed herself of her sailing, to get away. Captain Younghusband's gallant Conduct, with that of his Officers and Men, against such superior Force, merits my warmest Applause.

This Ship was formerly the Railleure, and given to the Merchants of Bourdeaux, to fit out as a private Ship of War; she had made several Captures, one of which has been retaken by the Hippomenes.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

W. Marsden, Esq.

SAM. HOOD.

His Majesty's Sloop Osprey, Barbadoes, March 28, 1804.

SIR,

I BEG leave to inform you, that on the 23d Instant, I discovered Four Sail on the S. W. Quarter; I immediately chased, and upon nearing them, I found them to be a large Frigate and Three Merchant Ships; upon coming within Hail of the Frigate, she hoisted French Colours, and fired her Broadside, which was instantly returned, and the Two Ships continued in close Action for an Hour and Twenty Minutes, when the Enemy ceased firing, and began to make off, and her Convoy to separate on different Courses; I then found with Regret, that she outailed the Osprey under her Topsails upon the Cap; I however continued the Chase firing our Bow Chasers as long as they could reach, but we lost Sight of her during the Night.

The French Ship's Sails, Rigging, and Hull were very much cut; the Osprey has also suffered very much in her Sails and Rigging; and I am sorry to add, that we have one Man killed and Sixteen wounded.

Lieut. Collier, the Officers, and Ship's Company behaved with the greatest Bravery and Activity.

I have further to inform you, that on the 25th, the Osprey and Hippomenes retook the Ship Reliance, and I am informed from the French Prize-Master, that the Ship the Osprey engaged, was the Frigate Egyptienne, fitted out as a Privateer by the Merchants of Bourdeaux, mounting Thirty-six Guns, and having on board Two Hundred and Fifty-five Men.

I am, Sir, &c.

G. YOUNGHUSBAND.

To Samuel Hood, Esq; Commodore and Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c.

Centaur, Carlisle Bay, Barbadoes, March 29, 1804.

SIR,

I HAVE the Satisfaction to send you Copy of a Letter I have received from Captain Shipley, of His Majesty's Sloop Hippomenes, giving an Account of the Capture of the Egyptienne French Frigate, of Thirty-six Guns, by that Sloop. The Firmness and Perseverance of Captain Shipley in the Pursuit of a Ship of such Force, does him, the Officers, and Sloop's Company, the highest Credit; and being well marked with Judgment and Decision he so surprised the Enemy that he struck the Moment the Hippomenes came alongside, after Three Hours running Fight. No doubt the spirited Action of the Osprey contributed; of which Captain Shipley speaks in the handiest Terms.

I am, &c. &c. &c.

SAM. HOOD.

William Marsden, Esq.

His Majesty's Sloop Hippomenes, March 29, 1804.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to acquaint you with the Capture of L'Egyptienne French Privateer (formerly a Republican Frigate), mounting Thirty-six Guns, Twelves and Nines, commanded by M. Placard, and having Two Hundred and Forty Men on board, on the Evening of the 27th, after an arduous Chase of Fifty-four Hours, and a running Fight of Three Hours and Twenty Minutes, by His Majesty's Sloop under my Command, for she struck the Moment we fairly got alongside of her. I feel much Pleasure in saying the Officers and Men behaved with that Coolness and Intrepidity inherent in Englishmen; and had the Enemy allowed them a Trial alongside I am convinced her superior Force would not have availed them much. However, I cannot forbear recommending to your Protection my First Lieutenant, for his good Conduct on this as on all former Occasions. The slight Resistance she made I can only attribute to the Fear of being as severely beat as she had been Four Days previous by the Osprey, who killed Eight of her Men and wounded Nineteen, and whose Gallantry astonished them. Mr. John Lloyd, Master's Mate, is the only Person hurt on this Occasion, and he slightly.

I have further to inform you of the Recapture of the Reliance of London, taken by the above Frigate.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

CONWAY SHIPLEY.

Commodore Hood, &c. &c. &c.

Centaur, Carlisle Bay, Barbadoes, March 31, 1804.

SIR,

I HEREWITH enclose Copy of a Letter from Lieutenant King, of this Ship, acting in Command of His Majesty's Sloop Drake, giving an Account of his having, with that Sloop, recaptured the Enterprize of Biddeford, loaded with Camp Equipage, Medicines, &c. for the Army; also of Two of his Boats (after having drove an Enemy's Privateer under the Batteries of La Hayes) commanded by the Master, recaptured another Ship which the Enemy abandoned.

I also enclose Copy of a Letter from Captain O'Bryen, of His Majesty's Ship Emerald, stating Lieutenant Gregory, with the Boats of that Ship, having destroyed a Schooner and a Sloop at Port Diable, Martinique.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

W. Marsden, Esq.

*His Majesty's Sloop Drake,
March 17, 1804.*

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to acquaint you, on the Morning of the 14th Instant, off Englishman's Head, Guadaloupe, I fell in with a French Privateer Schooner, and a large Ship in Company, apparently her Prize, but could not come up with either until the Ship run on Shore near the Batteries at the Haye; I endeavoured to cut off the Schooner from the Protection of the Fort, but was prevented doing so by its falling calm, and frequent Changes of the Wind, and having the Main-Top Shot away, and the Rigging much cut; another Ship appearing in the Offing, and steering, as if intentionally to run ashore. I made sail after her, leaving Two Boats, under the Direction of Mr. Robson, the Master, to watch the Ship, having perceived her to be off the Shore, and to attack her should they come out, which was obviated by the Enemy's abandoning her at the Approach of the Boats, only leaving one of their Crew, who had not Time to get into their Boats. But I am sorry to add, when in Possession of the Ship more than Half an Hour, she blew up, by which Accident, a Master's Mate, Three Seamen, and one Marine were lost; Mr. Robson, the Master, expired a few Hours after, and several others much bruised. The Name of the Ship I could not learn; she had Eighteen Guns mounted, and was a very large Ship.

The other Ship which I recaptured proved to be the Enterprize, of Biddeford, taken by the Decider.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) W. KING.

Diamond, March 21, 1804.*

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to inform you, that on the Evening of the 20th of this Month, observing a Sloop and a Schooner at Port-au-Diable, Lieutenant Gregory, with the Boats of this Ship, was directed to bring them out, which not being able to do, he set fire to and destroyed them.

Copy of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Vashon, to William Marsden, Esq; dated at Leith, the 14th Instant.

SIR,

YOU will be pleased to acquaint the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that His Majesty's Ship the Ethalion arrived in Leith-Roads Yesterday after Post; and I herewith enclose a Letter from Captain Stuart, giving an Account of the Capture of the Dutch National Brig Le Union, of Sixteen Guns, which he has brought in with him.

I am, &c.

J. VASHON.

SIR, Ethalion, off Bergen. May 10, 1804.

I BEG to acquaint you, that, last Night, after Six Hours Chace, I captured L'Union, a Dutch National Brig, fitted out by a Company of Merchants at Amsterdam, carrying Sixteen long Guns, Twelve Nine, and Four Six Pounders, and Eighty-one Men, commanded by Captain Charles Theunisse; two Days from Bergen.

L'Union is a remarkable fine Vessel, about Two Hundred and Eighty Tons, Copper fastened, and in my Opinion calculated for His Majesty's Service.

I have great Satisfaction in communicating this Intelligence, as L'Union, in Company with L'Espion, a Dutch Corvette, lately annoyed our Trade on this Station.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

CHARLES STUART.

The Right Honorable William Pitt.

War Office, May 10, 1804.

ALL Officers on the Half Pay of the Land Forces, whether resident in Great Britain, Ireland, or the adjacent Islands, are hereby required immediately to transmit to the Secretary at War, an Account, in Writing, of their Age, past Services, Rank, and present Place of Abode; and such as think themselves, from Age or Infirmities, unfit for further Service, even in this Country, are to accompany their Reports with sufficient Vouchers of their Inability, and the Causes thereof.

The Officers on Half Pay who are serving in the Militia, Fencibles, or Volunteers, are to specify the Commission, which they respectively hold, and those otherwise employed under Government, the Nature of the public Situation, which they possess.

Every such Officer who shall neglect to make his Report within one Month from the Date hereof, will be considered as otherwise provided for, or dead, and his Name will be struck off the Half Pay List accordingly.

By His Majesty's Command,

C. BRAGGE.

Whitehall, May 15, 1804.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to the King, that, on the 17th of March last, between the Hours of Eight and Nine o'Clock in the Evening, as Benjamin Skene, an Officer employed under Captain Birchall, on the Service of raising Men for the Fleet at the City of Chester, was conducting, in a peaceable Manner, one Edward Jones, whom he had impressed, along Bridge-Street, in the said City, assisted by George Marshall (one of the Men employed under Captain Birchall on the above mentioned Service), who was walking behind him, a Stone was thrown by some Person unknown, which struck the said George Marshall on the Left Side of his Head, and fractured his Skull, and that he died in consequence thereof on the 30th Day of April last;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in this atrocious act, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One or more of the Offenders (except the Person who actually threw the said Stone) who shall discover his or their Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HAWKESBURY.

And the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty do hereby offer a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS to any Person or Persons (except as is before excepted) who shall apprehend, or cause to be apprehended, any of the said

Offenders, to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of them by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy.

N. B. One James Fleming, who had been impressed, and was afterwards discharged on the Ground of his being an Apprentice, was in Company with the above-named Edward Jones at the Time he was impressed, and having left Chester on the Night the Blow was given, and not having been since heard of, strong Suspicions are entertained that he was the Person who threw the said Stone.

Navy-Office, May 11, 1804.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Wednesday the 23d Instant, at Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon, Commissioner Sir Charles Saxton, Bart. will expose to Sale at the Pay-Office, in His Majesty's Yard near Portsmouth, several Lots of Old Stores, consisting of Old Canvas, in Paper-Stuff,

Junk, in Shakings,

Rope, in Paper Stuff,

Lashing, Rounding, &c.

White Ocham,

Rubbish, in Paper-Stuff, &c. &c.

all lying in the said Yard, where any Persons, wishing to become Purchasers, may have the Liberty of viewing the same during the common working Hours of the Yard, until the Day of Sale.

Inventories and Conditions of Sale may be had here and at the Yard.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

Bank of England, May 12, 1804.

THE Court of Directors of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, with the Approbation of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, having caused Dollars to be stamped at Mr. Boulton's Manufactory, with His Majesty's Head and an Inscription "Georgius III. Dei Gratia Rex," on the Obverse, and Britannia, with the Words "Five Shillings, Dollar, Bank of England, 1804" on the Reverse, which they propose to issue instead of the Dollars which have been lately stamped at His Majesty's Mint, at the Tower, the latter of which it is expedient to withdraw from Circulation, hereby give Notice, that those Dollars which have been stamped at the Tower since the 1st Day of January last, and which are now in circulation, will not be current, nor be received at the Bank at the Rate of 5s each, after the 2d Day of June next; and that from and after the 20th Instant, until the said 2d Day of June inclusive, they may be exchanged for Dollars with the new Stamp, or for Bank Notes, after the Rate of 5s. for each Dollar. Attendance will be given at the Bank for this Purpose, on Monday the 21st Instant, and the following Days, (Sundays and Fast Day excepted) until Saturday the 2d Day of June inclusive. But to avoid Confusion from a Crowd of Persons applying at the same Time, the Court finds it necessary to give Notice, that smaller Sums than Eight Dollars cannot be exchanged at the Bank.

Robert Bell, Secretary.

Bank of England, May 16, 1804.

Notice is hereby given, that the Dollars stamped at Mr. Boulton's Manufactory, which the Bank of England is about to issue for Five Shillings each, will be received in Payment again at the Bank, at the same Rate, provided they shall not be defaced or mutilated, or in any way rendered lighter, except from the Operation of common Wear.

Robert Bell, Secretary.

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Twenty-first of December last, to prohibit, until the Thirty-first Day of March then ensuing, the Exportation of the several Articles of Provision mentioned in the said Order; and also to permit, for and during the like Term, the Importation, Duty free, of the several Articles of Provision also specified in the said Order, which expired on the Thirty-first of March last; And whereas it is judged expedient that the Permission to import certain Articles of Provision free of Duty should be revived, and be in Force for some Time longer, His Majesty, in virtue of the Powers vested in His Majesty by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue several Laws relating to the suspending the Operation of Two Acts of the Fifteenth and Seventeenth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty for restraining the Negotiation of Promissory Notes and Bills of Exchange, under a limited Sum, in England; and to the prohibiting the Exportation from, and permitting the Importation to, Great Britain, of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision, without Payment of Duty, until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and five; and to the regulating the Trade and Commerce to and from the Isle of Malta, until Six Months after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace;" is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to allow, and doth hereby allow, for and during the Space of Three Months from the Date of this Order, the Importation into any Port or Place of Great Britain of any Beans called Kidney or French Beans, Tares, Lentiles, Calavancies, and all other Sorts of Pulse; and also Bulls, Cows, Oxen, Calves, Sheep, Lambs, and Swine; Beef, Pork, Mutton, Veal, and Lamb, whether salted or otherwise; Bacon, Hams, Tongues, Butter, Cheese, Potatoes, Sago, Sago-Powder, Tapioca, Vermicelli, Millet-Seed, Poultry, Fowls, Eggs, Game, and Sour Crout, in any British Ship or Vessel, or in any other Ship or Vessel belonging to Persons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majesty, and navigated in any Manner whatever, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever; provided that a due Entry shall be made of all such Articles as aforesaid, that shall be so imported, with the proper Officers of the Customs at the Port where the same shall be imported, under the Penalties and Forfeitures mentioned and referred to in the said above-recited Act.—And the Right Honorable the Lords Comtreasurers of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

ORDER OF THE BATH.

GEORGE R.

GEORGE the Third, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland King, Defender of the Faith, &c. and Sovereign of the Most Honorable Military Order of the Bath, to all to whom these Presents shall come, Greeting: Whereas, by the Statute of Our said Most Honorable Military Order of the Bath, it is provided, that We, the Sovereign thereof, have the Power of adding to the same from Time to Time, and of explaining any Particular therein, as to Us shall seem expedient, all which Additions and Explanations, under Our Sign Manual, are to be taken as Part and Parcel of the Statutes of our said Order: And whereas, in and by the Eighteenth Statute, it is (amongst other Things) declared to be the Duty of the Genealogist of the said Order to examine and enter the Pedigrees of the respective Persons then already created, and of such as shall hereafter be created into the said Order, and of their Esquires, Governors, and of the Young Esquires, with their several Coat-Arms; and that he was likewise fairly to enter the same into Books, to remain to Posterity for the Memorial of their Families: And whereas certain Differences have arisen between Our Servants the King's Herald and Pursuivants of Our College of Arms, and the Genealogist of the said Most Honorable Order, respecting the Exercise of the Duties, which by the said Eighteenth Statute are assigned to Our said Genealogist, for the Adjustment of which a Chapter of the said Most Honorable Military Order was held on the 10th Day of June last: And whereas it was by the said Chapter resolved, That as it appeared to the Chapter to be the Opinion of the Lay Officers of the Crown, that the Heralds (that is to say, Our Servants the King's Herald and Pursuivants of Our College of Arms,) have the Original Cognizance of Pedigrees and Coat-Armour, and that the Genealogist cannot properly receive any Evidence of Pedigree or Coat-Armour to be entered in his Books in pursuance of the Statutes, except from the College of Arms, The Chapter therefore humbly recommended to Us, that We would be pleased to command, that the Pedigrees and Arms of the Knights and Esquires of this Order should be recorded in the College of Arms, upon Payment of the accustomed Fees, and that Copies of such Pedigrees and Arms be communicated to the Genealogist of the Order, who shall enter the same in Books of the Order to be provided for that Purpose; and that We would also be graciously pleased to determine such Fees as the said Genealogist should be entitled to for making such Transcripts in those Books: And whereas at a Chapter of Our College of Arms, held at Our said College on the Twenty-third Day of January One thousand eight hundred and four, it was ordered, That the Treasurer of Our said College should provide, at the Office Expence, a Book to be used only for the Entry of the Pedigrees and Arms of the Knights Companions of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, and another for those of their respective Esquires: and that of every Entry so to be made, and for which the accustomed Fees shall have been paid to the College, the Registrar shall, upon the Application of the Genealogist of the said Order for the Time being, deliver, or cause to be delivered, to the said Genealogist a Copy to be entered in the Books of the said Order, according to the Statutes of the said Order, and for which Copy no Fees shall be charged or taken by the Registrar, or any other Officer of the College: Now We, having duly considered such Recommendation and such Order of Our College of Arms, do hereby command and enjoin all the Knights who have been invested with this Most Honorable Military Order since the Fifteenth Day of June One thousand seven hundred and ninety two, (being the Date of the Patent of the present Genealogist,) and their Esquires, Governors, and Young Esquires, that they shall record their respective Pedigrees and Coat-Arms in the College of Arms, paying therefor the accustomed Fees; and that the said Genealogist, or the Genealogist for the Time being, shall procure a Copy of the same from the Registrar of Our said College of Arms, and examine and transcribe the same in the Genealogical Books of the said Order: And We do hereby further command and enjoin, That each and every of the said Knights, their Esquires, Governors, and their Young Esquires, shall pay to the aforesaid Genealogist, or to the Genealogist for the Time being, for the examining and entering of such Pedigrees and Coat-Arms in the Genealogical Books of the said Order in Manner following, to wit:—For the first Descent or Generation the Sum of Six Shillings and Eight Pence, and for every additional Descent or Generation the Sum of Five Shillings, and for entering the Armorial Ensigns of a Knight Companion the Sum of One Pound Ten Shillings, (all which Fees have been the usual Fees paid by Us out of Our Treasury in Cases where We have been graciously pleased to discharge the Expences incurred by the Investiture of any Knight Elect, and for entering the Armorial Ensigns of an Esquire Fifteen Shillings, the aforesaid Sums being conformable to a Table of Fees, dated the Seventeenth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, issued under the Hand of Our dear entirely beloved Son Frederick acting as Great Maller, and under the Seal of the said Order, which said Table We do, by these Presents, confirm and ratify; and each and every of such Knights, Esquires, Governors, and Young Esquires, shall also pay to the Officer who may be employed to record their said Pedigrees and Coat-Arms in the College of Arms, the accustomed Fee for so doing: And We do hereby direct all the said Knights, Esquires, Governors, and Young Esquires, to certify their Belief of the Truth and Correctness of their respective Pedigrees in the Genealogical Books of the said Order: And We do hereby further ordain, That nothing herein contained shall prejudice or injure the Rights and Privileges of our said Genealogist, as given and secured to him by the aforesaid Statutes, which we, in all Respects, hereby confirm.

Given under Our Sign Manual the Eighth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and four, in the Forty-fourth Year of our Reign.

C. YORKE.

W A R R A N T

Signed by His Royal Highness the Duke of York, acting as Great Master of the Military Most Honorable Order of the Bath, directing the Fees to be paid by the Knights Companions, their Esquires Governors, and young Esquires, in the Genalogist of the said Order, referred to and confirmed by the preceding Royal Sign Manual.

¶ O all and singular the Knights Companions, the Esquires Governors, and Young Esquires of the Most Honorable Military Order of the Bath, &c. &c. &c. Whereas His Most Gracious Majesty King George the First, for divers wise and honourable Considerations His said Most Gracious Majesty thereunto moving, did, by Letters Patent, bearing Date the Eighteenth Day of the Month of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and twenty-four, re-establish the Most Honorable Military Order of the Bath, whereof His said Most Gracious Majesty's Successors, Kings of England, were declared to be Sovereigns for ever; and it was also directed by the said Letters Patent, that the Officers of the said Most Honorable Order should consist of a Dean, Genealogist, King of Arms, Register, Secretary, Usher, and Messenger: And whereas upon the Re-establishment of the said Most Honorable Order, certain Statutes were ordained and enacted by His said Most Gracious Majesty, for the Government of the said Most Honorable Order, to be inviolably and perpetually observed within the said Most Honorable Order, and in the Second Section of such Statutes, His said Most Gracious Majesty nominated divers honorable Persons to be Companions of the said Most Honorable Order, and also nominated the proper Officers to belong thereto: And whereas by the Eighteenth Section of the said Statutes, the Duty of the Genealogist is set forth, and Power given to the Great Master for the Time being, to nominate and constitute the said Genealogist, and also to regulate the Fees, in the Words following:

“ The Genealogist, whom our Great Master is “ to nominate and constitute, to continue during his good Behaviour, shall examine and “ enter the Pedigrees of the respective Persons
 “ now elected, and of such who shall hereafter
 “ be elected into this Order, and of their Esquires Governors, and of the Young Esquires, with their several Coat-Arms, and “ faithfully to enter the same into Books, to remain to Posterity for the Memorial of their Families; for which he shall receive such “ Reward as shall be determined by the Great Master, with Regard to the Length of the Pedigree, the authentic Proofs thereof, and
 “ the Pains taken therein.”

And whereas it hath been represented unto me by the humble Petition of George Naylor, Esq; of His Majesty's College of Arms, Genealogist of the said Most Honorable Order, that no such Fees having yet been established, neither he the said Petitioner, nor his Predecessors, Genealogists of the said Most Honorable Order, have been enabled to ascertain the fair and just Reward to which they were or may be entitled for the Performance of their Duty, as set forth by the said Statutes; wherefore, and also for the Certainty and Security of all new and lately-elected Companions, as also for those who shall hereafter be elected Companions of the said Most Honorable Order, and their Esquires Governors and Young Esquires, he the said Petitioner hath most humbly solicited my Aid in this Behalf, praying that I would be graciously pleased, by virtue of the special Power and Authority so given to me, in and by the Eighteenth Section of the said Statutes as aforesaid, to direct the Secretary of the said Most Honorable Order, by and with the Advice, and under the Direction of, the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of Rochester, the Dean of the said Most Honorable Order, to prepare a Warrant for my Signature, setting forth the Fees and Dues to which the Genealogist of the said Most Honorable Order is rightly entitled, whereby the said Petitioner's Claim, and his Successors, Genealogists of the said Most Honorable Order, may hereafter be fully and clearly known and ascertained. And I, having well and duly weighed and considered the Justice and Equity of the said Petition, by virtue of the special Power and Authority so given to me, in and by the Eighteenth Section of the said Statutes, do by these Presents enact and ordain, that from henceforth it shall and may be lawful for the said Genealogist and his Successors, Genealogists of the said Most Honorable Order, to ask, demand, and take of the respective Persons now elected, and of such who shall hereafter be elected into this Order, and of their Esquires Governors, and of the Young Esquires, the following Fees and Charges as a Reward for his and their Trouble and Pains in examining and entering their respective Pedigrees, with their Armorial Ensigns, to wit, For the First Descent or Generation, the Sum of Six Shillings and Eight Pence; and for every additional Descent or Generation, the Sum of Five Shillings; and for entering the Armorial Ensigns of a Knight Companion, the Sum of One Pound Ten Shillings; and those of an Esquire, the Sum of Fifteen Shillings. And I will and direct that these Presents shall be deposited with and remain in the Custody of the Genealogist, for the Time being, of the said Most Honorable Order, to be by him carefully preserved in the Office of the said Genealogist, together with the Books and Monuments belonging to the said Most Honorable Order; which are, by virtue of his said Office, entrusted to the Care and Custody of the said Genealogist for the Time being.

Given under the Seal of the Order this Seventeenth Day of March, in the Thirty fifth Year of the Reign of Our Sovereign Lord George the Third, by the Grace of God King of Great Britain, France, and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, &c. and in the Year of Our Lord One thousand seven hundred and ninety-five.

FREDERICK, acting as Great Master.

Whitehall, May 11, 1804.

The King has been pleased to grant unto the Right Honorable Charles Bragge, of Lydney Park, in the County of Gloucester, His Royal License and Authority, that he and his Issue may assume, take, and use the Surname, and also bear the Arms of Bathurst only, in Compliance with an Injunction contained in the last Will and Testament, and out of grateful and affectionate Respect for the Memory of his late maternal Uncle Poole Bathurst, of Lydney Park aforesaid, Esq; deceased; such Arms being first duly exemplified according to the Laws of Arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office:

And also to order, that this His Majesty's Concession and Declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, May 15, 1804.

Doctor Samuel Foast Simmons was this Day sworn and admitted Physician Extraordinary to His Majesty.

Admiralty-Office, May 22, 1804.

Copy of a Letter from the Right Honorable Lord Keith, K. B. Admiral of the Blue, &c. to William Marsden, Esq; dated at Ramsgate, the 20th Instant.

SIR,

I HEREWITH transmit, for the Information of their Lordships, a Letter which I have this Day received from Commodore Sir Sidney Smith, acquainting me that the Enemy's Flotilla at Flushing had been pushed out from that Port on the 16th Instant to form a Junction with that at Ostend, and that the greatest Part of them had succeeded in reaching the latter Place, notwithstanding the vigorous Measures that were used by the Commodore and his Squadron to resist their Progress; a Circumstance which is to be imputed only to the numerous Disadvantages to which His Majesty's Ships were subjected in consequence of the Shallowness of the Water, and the Effect of the Enemy's Field-Artillery and their Batteries on the Shore; for the Commodore appears to have used every practicable Exertion to defeat the Design, and to have been very gallantly seconded by all the Officers serving under his Orders.

I also enclose a List of the Killed and Wounded on this Occasion; and have the Honor to be, &c.

KEITH.

*Antelope, at Anchor, off Ostend,
May 17. 1804.*

MY LORD,
INFORMATION from all Quarters, and the evident State of Readiness in which the Enemy's Armaments were in Helvoet, Flushing, and Ostend, indicating the Probability of a general Movement from those Ports, I reinforced Captain Manby, off Helvoet, with one Ship, and directed Captain Hancock, of the Cruiser, stationed in Shore, to combine his Operations and the Rattler's, with the Squadron of Gun-Boats stationed off Ostend.

The Antelope, Penelope, and Aimable, occupied a central Position in Sight both of Flushing and Ostend, in anxious Expectation of the Enemy's Appearance. Yesterday at Half past Five A. M. I received Information from Captain Hancock, then off Ostend, that the Enemy's Flotilla was hauling out of that Pier, and had already Twenty-one one-masted Vessels and one Schooner outside in the Roads; and at Half-past Seven the same Morning, I had the Satisfaction to see the Flushing Flotilla of Fifty-nine Sail, viz. Two Ship-rigged Praams, Nineteen Schooners, and Thirty-eight Schuyts, steering along Shore from that Port towards Ostend, under Circumstances which allowed me to hope I should be able to bring them to Action. The Signal was made to the Cruiser and Rattler for an Enemy, in the E. S. E. to call their Attention from Ostend; the Squadron weighed the Moment the Flood made, and allowed of the heavier Ships following them over the Banks; the Signals to chase and to engage were obeyed with Alacrity, Spirit, and Judgment, by the active and experienced Officers your Lordship has done me the Honor to place under my Orders. Captains Hancock and Mason attacked this formidable Line with the greatest Gallantry and Address, attaching themselves particularly to the Two Praams, both of them of greater Force than themselves, independent of the Cross-Fire from the Schooners and Schuyts: I sent the Aimable, by Signal, to support them. The Penelope, (having an able Pilot, Mr. Thoroton,) on Signal being made to engage, Captain Broughton worked up to the Centre of the Enemy's Line, as near as the Shoal Water would allow, while the Antelope went round the Stroom Sand to cut the Van off from Ostend; unfortunately our Gun-Boats were not in Sight, having, as I have understood, since devoted their Attention to preventing the Ostend Division from moving Westward.

The Enemy attempted to get back to Flushing; but, being harassed by the Cruiser and the Rattler, and the Wind coming more Easterly against them, they were obliged to run the Gauntlet to the Westward, keeping close to the Beach, under the Protection of the Batteries.

Having found a Passage for the Antelope within the Stroom-Sand, she was enabled to bring her Broadside to bear on the headmost Schooners before they got the length of Ostend. The Leader struck immediately, and her Crew deserted her: She was however recovered by the followers; the Artillery from the Town and Camp, and the Rowing Gun-Boats from the Pier, kept up a constant and well-directed Fire for their Support; our Shot, however, which went over the Schooners, going on Shore among the Horse Artillery interrupted it in a Degree; still however it was from the Shore we received the greatest Annoyance; for the Schooners and Schuyts crowding along could not bring their Prow Guns to bear without altering their Course towards us, which they could not venture; and their Side Guns, though numerous and well served, were very light. In this Manner the Penelope and Antelope engaged every Part of their long Line from Four till Eight, while the Aimable, Cruiser, and Rattler continued to press their Rear. Since Two o'Clock the sternmost Praam struck her Colours and ran on Shore; but the Artillery-Men from the Army got on board, and she renewed her Fire on the Aimable with the Precision of a Land Battery, from which that Ship suffered much: Captain Bolton speaks much in Praise of Lieutenant Mather, who is wounded.

Several of the Schooners and Schuyts immediately under the Fire of the Ships were driven on Shore in like Manner, and recovered by the Army. At Eight, the Tide falling, and leaving us in little more Water than we drew, we were reluctantly obliged to haul off into deeper Water to keep afloat, and the Enemy's Vessels that were not on Shore, or too much shattered, were thus able to reach Offend; these and the Ostend Division have hauled into the Bafon. I have anchored in such a Position as to keep an Eye on them; and I shall endeavour to close with them again if they move into deeper Water. I have to regret that, from the Depth of the Water in which these Vessels move, Gun-Boats alone can act against them with Effect. Four have joined me, and I have sent them in to see what they can do with the Praam that is on Shore. I have great Satisfaction in bearing Testimony to your Lordship of the gallant and steady Conduct of the Captains, Commanders, Officers, Seamen, and Marines under my Orders. Captains Hancock and Mason bore the Brunt of the Attack, and continued it for Six Hours against a great Superiority of Fire, particularly from the Army on Shore, the Howitzer-Shells annoying them much. These Officers deserve the highest Praise I can give them. They speak of the Conduct of their Lieutenants, Officers, and Crews in Terms of warm Panegyric. Messrs. Budd and Dalyell from the Antelope acted in the Absence of Two Lieutenants of those Ships. Lieutenants Garrety and Patful, commanding the Favourite and Stag Cutters, did their best with their small Guns against greater Numbers of greater Calibre. Lieutenant Hillier, of the Antelope, gave me all the Assistance and Support on her Quarter-Deck his ill State of Health would permit. Lieutenant Stokes and Mr. Sleffer, Acting Lieutenant, directed the Fire on the Lower and Main-Decks with Coolness and Precision. It would be the highest Injustice if I omitted to mention the intrepid Conduct of Mr. Lewis, the Master, Mr. Nunn and Mr. Webb, Pilots, to whose Steadiness, Skill, and Attention, particularly the former, I shall ever feel myself indebted, for having brought the Antelope into Action within the Sands, where, certainly, the Enemy could not expect to be met by a Ship of her Size; and for having allowed her to continue engaged with Commodore Verhuel to the last Minute it was possible to remain in such Shoal Water, with a falling Tide. It is but Justice to say the Enemy's Commodore pursued a steady Course notwithstanding our Fire, and returned it with Spirit to the last.

I could not detach open Boats into the Enemy's Line to pick up those Vessels which had struck, and were deserted, mixed as they were with those still fighting. Captain Hancock sent me One Schuyt that had hauled out of the Line and surrendered. She had a Lieutenant and Twenty-three Soldiers of the 48th-Regiment, with Five Dutch Seamen on board. She is so useful here I cannot part with her yet. Enclosed is a List of our Loss, which, though great, is less than might have been expected, owing to the Enemy's directing their Fire at our Masts. The Rattler and the Cruiser have of course suffered most in the latter Respect, but are nearly ready for Service again. The Smoke would not allow us to see the Effect of our Shot on the Enemy; but their Loss, considering the Number of them under our Guns for so long, must be great in Proportion. We see the Malt-Heads above Water of Three of the Schooners and One of the Schuyts which were sunk. I have the Honor to be, &c.

THE following Addresses of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland having been transmitted by Francis Lord Napier, His Majesty's Commissioner, to the Right Honorable Lord Hawkebury, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, have been by him presented to the King, which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

May it please your Majesty,

THE gracious Letter with which your Majesty has been pleased to honor the present General Assembly of the Church of Scotland was received with the most lively Sentiments of Respect and Gratitude.

The entire Approbation, which from the Experience of a long Course of Years, your Majesty has condescended to express of former General Assemblies, is to us a most valuable Recompence for our past Labours in the Discharge of our Duty; and it forcibly reminds us of the many signal Blessings which, by the Favor of Divine Providence, our Church and Nation have enjoyed, under the Auspices of a King to whose Heart nothing is dearer than the Happiness of His people, and to whose Regard nothing is a more effectual Recommendation than a sincere desire to promote that Object.

The Confidence which your Majesty is pleased to repose in this General Assembly we are anxious to justify and confirm, as well by persevering Attention to the great Interests of Religion and Order, as by that Moderation in our Proceedings, and that mutual Charity, which are so congenial to the Spirit of the Gospel, and so conducive to the Dignity and Usefulness of our Deliberations.

We receive with the utmost Satisfaction the renewed Assurance of your Majesty's unalterable Resolution to maintain the Church we represent in the full Possession and Enjoyment of all its Rights and Privileges as by Law established; and in the Exercise of our Functions we firmly rely upon your Majesty's effectual Co-operation and Support.

We are deeply sensible of the Importance of the Objects of our Care. We know and feel, that to our Charge are committed the most essential Interests of your Majesty's People in this Part of the United Kingdom, their Morals and their Religion, the indispensable Means of their Happiness here, and the only Ground of their Hopes hereafter.

Animated in the Work of our Ministry by your Majesty's affectionate Recommendations, we will watch over the Flock with unceasing Vigilance, and be careful to lead them in those Paths of Righteousness in which we may hope to obtain the Continuance of that Divine Protection with which we have hitherto been so signally favored. We feel that this is at all Times our bounden Duty, and that a peculiar Degree of Importance is attached to the effectual Discharge of it in the present Times of Difficulty and Danger. We should be wanting, however, in the Duty we owe to those over whom we preside in the Offices of Religion, if we did not assure your Majesty, that their good Dispositions in the present trying Circumstances at once encourage and assist our Exertions.

The Re-appointment of the Right Honorable Francis Lord Napier to represent your Majesty's Royal Person in this General Assembly is to us most acceptable. The Experience we have had of the Affection of that Noble Lord for your Majesty's Person and Government, of the Knowledge and Uprightness with which he has formerly fulfilled the Duties of that high Office, and of his Zeal for the Interest of the Church of Scotland entitles him to our highest Honor and regard.

We receive your Majesty's Royal Donation for the Propagation of Christian Knowledge, and the Principles of the Reformed Religion, in the Highlands and Islands of Scotland, as a pleasing Expression of your Majesty's unremitting Attention to the best Interests of your People. It shall be our Care to secure, by a faithful and considerate Application of this Bounty, the valuable Objects for which it has been bestowed.

That Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, may protect your Majesty's Person, and prosper the Administration of your Government; that he may bless the Queen, the Prince and Princess of Wales, and all the Royal Family; and that, after a long and happy Reign over a loyal and affectionate People, you may at length be received to the Glories of the Heavenly Kingdom, are the fervent Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient,
and most loyal Subjects,

The Ministers and Elders met in this National Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by

(Signed) John Inglis, Moderator
Edinburgh, May 19, 1804.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, met in the General Assembly, beg Leave to approach the Throne, in the present alarming Situation of the Affairs of Europe, with Sentiments of the most sincere and affectionate Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Persuaded that your Majesty's paternal Care preserved to us the Blessings of Peace, so long as they could be retained with Safety and Honour, we beheld with Indignation that Spirit of Aggression and Aggrandizement in the Ruler of France, which obliged your Majesty to draw the Sword in Defence of every Thing we regard as dear. His lawless Ambition, not satisfied with the Overthrow of several independent Governments, with the Extinction of some of the most free and prosperous States, and with the Subjugation of France itself to a most odious Tyranny, seems to aim at nothing less than universal Domination.

Regarding the Prosperity and Power of Britain as the chief Obstacles to the Progress of his Despotism, he directs all his Force, and that of his Allies, to the Invasion of our Country, and by a mighty and unprecedented Armament, in the Fierceness of his Rage, threatens us with Desolation.

Although we consider the present War as the most arduous and important Contest in which our Country has ever been engaged; although we feel that our Religion, our Liberties, our Laws, and our Existence as a Nation are at Stake; yet trusting in the Justice of our Cause, and looking up with humble Confidence for the Continuance of that Divine Protection which has hitherto supported us, we behold the immense Preparations of the Enemy without Dismay.

We rejoice in that Ardour and Enthusiasm in the Cause of their Country which animate all Classes of your Majesty's Subjects; and we have peculiar Satisfaction in being able to assure your Majesty, that this generous and patriotic Spirit glows in the Hearts of the People of Scotland.

We beg leave to congratulate your Majesty on the Success which has attended your Arms in continuing within their Ports, formidable Armaments, intended to carry War in all its Horrors, into the Heart of our Country; and on the important Conquests achieved by your Forces in the East and West Indies.

Happy in the inestimable Privileges we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and paternal Rule, we trust that the united Efforts of a brave Nation will, by the Blessing of the Almighty, defend and maintain our free Constitution against the hostile Enterprises of a haughty Enemy, and convince him, that he shall never be able to wrest from us, and from our Children, the Prosperity at which he may repine.

That the God of Armies, the Arbitrer of Battles, may give Success to the Means employed for the Protection and Security of our Country; that He may shield your Majesty's Fleets and Armies, and lead them to Victory; that He may speedily restore to us the Blessings of an honourable, an advantageous, and a lasting Peace; that, happy in your Family and Government, your Majesty may long reign in the Hearts of your Subjects; and that Descendants of your illustrious House, steadily maintaining the civil and religious Rights of a free People, may sway the British Sceptre to latest Posterity, are the fervent Prayers of

Most Gracious Sovereign,

Your Majesty's most dutiful, most faithful and most obedient Subjects,

The Ministers and Elders, met in this General Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by (Signed) John Inglis, Moderator.

Edinburgh, May 19, 1804.

Whitehall, May 15, 1804.

*W*Hereas it hath been humbly represented to the King, that, on the 17th of March last, between the Hours of Eight and Nine o'Clock in the Evening, as Benjamin Skene, an Officer employed under Captain Birchall, on the Service of raising Men for the Fleet at the City of Chester, was conducting, in a peaceable Manner, one Edward Jones, whom he had impressed, along Bridge-Street, in the said City, assisted by George Marshall (one of the Men employed under Captain Birchall on the above mentioned Service), who was walking behind him, a Stone was thrown by some Person unknown, which struck the said George Marshall on the Left Side of his Head, and fractured his Skull, and that he died in consequence thereof on the 30th Day of April last;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in this atrocious Act, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One or more of the Offenders (except the Person who actually threw the said Stone) who shall discover his or their Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HAWKESBURY.

And the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty do hereby offer a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS to any Person or Persons (except as is before excepted) who shall apprehend, or cause to be apprehended, any of the said Offenders, to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of them by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy.

N. B. One James Fleming, who had been impressed, and was afterwards discharged on the Ground of his being an Apprentice, was in Company with the above-named Edward Jones at the Time he was impressed, and having left Chester on the Night the Blow was given, and not having been since heard of, strong Suspicions are entertained that he was the Person who threw the said Stone.

Admiralty-Office, May 23, 1804.

*W*Hereas several Lieutenants of His Majesty's Fleet, who are not employed, have omitted to send to this Office the Places of their Residence, it is the Direction of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty that such Lieutenants as come within the above Description do forthwith transmit to this Office their respective Addresses; and that such of them as are incapable of Service, either from Age or bodily Infirmary, do, at the same Time, in the latter Case, transmit a Certificate from a Surgeon of such Inability, that their Lordships may judge how far it may be proper to call upon them for Service.

WM. MAREDEN.

Office of Ordnance, May 22, 1804.

*T*HE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give Notice, that Proposals will be received at their Office, in St. Margaret's-Street, Westminster, on or before Thursday the 14th Day of June next, from such Persons as may be willing to undertake the Supply of Coppersmith's Articles, upon Contract, for the Service of this Department.

Further Particulars, together with the Terms and Conditions of the Contract, may be known upon Application at the Secretary's Office in Saint Margaret Street, any Day between the Hours of Ten and Four o'Clock, where the Proposals are to be delivered sealed up, and marked on the Outside "Proposals for the Supply of Coppersmith's Articles; but no Proposal can be admitted after the said 14th Day of June.

By Order of the Board,

R. H. CREW, Secretary.

Crown-Office, June 2, 1804.

MEMBER returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT.

Borough of Ipswich.

William Dickinson, Esq.

NOTICE TO MARINERS SAILING TO THE BALTIC.

THAT, from the 1st of May next ensuing, the Pfandbude near Pillau, in which the old Pillau Light has hitherto been burning, and which also served Navigators to know the Land, will be pulled down, and the Hill upon which this Building stood, cut down, and levelled to a certain Height. But, in order to indemnify Mariners with respect to the Loss of this Land-Mark, a substantial Light-House shall be built on a high Hill situated N. N. W. $\frac{1}{4}$ N. distant about one-eighth of a League from the Pfandbude.

But as this Light-House cannot be erected till the 1st of May, next, therefore a temporary Light-House will be previously built on the same Hill, and in the same Place, where the future Light-House is to stand, painted White, and the former Light put to it; and near it there will also be erected a high Beacon, painted Black, in order to know the Land better.

Ships coming from Sea which draw too much Water, and therefore cannot run into the Channel of Pillau, must, in order to come to Anchor in the right Road off the Entrance, bring the following Land-Marks to bear by the Compass:

- (1) The temporary White-painted Light-House and the Black Beacon, East;
- (2) The City and Harbour of Pillau South East, East; and
- (3) The Castle Loehstaedt, on the North Side of the Wood, for the most Part close to the same, East North East, in Ten or Eleven Fathom Water at this Distance, and in stormy Weather at a greater Distance from the Shore; they will also meet the Pilots at Sea, with a Boat like unto a Liverpool Pilot Boat, either lying at Anchor in the right Road, or under Sail, with a Red Flag flying at the Mast-Head.

Given at Königsberg the 14th of March 1804,

Admiralty-Office, May 23, 1804.

WHereas several Lieutenants of His Majesty's Fleet, who are not employed, have omitted to send to this Office the Places of their Residence, it is the Direction of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty that such Lieutenants as come within the above Description do forthwith transmit to this Office their respective Addresses; and that such of them as are incapable of Service, either from Age or bodily Infirmary, do, at the same Time, in the latter Case, transmit a Certificate from a Surgeon of such Inability, that their Lordships may judge how far it may be proper to call upon them for Service.

WM. MARSDEN.

Office of Ordnance, May 22, 1804.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give Notice, that Proposals will be received at their Office, in St. Margaret's-Street, Westminster, on or before Thursday the 14th Day of June next, from such Persons as may be willing to undertake the Supply of Copper-smith's Articles, upon Contract, for the Service of this Department.

Further Particulars, together with the Terms and Conditions of the Contract, may be known upon Application at the Secretary's Office in Saint Margaret Street, any Day between the Hours of Ten and Four o'Clock, where the Proposals are to be delivered sealed up, and marked on the Outside "Proposals for the Supply of Copper-smith's Articles; but no Proposal can be admitted after the said 14th Day of June.

By Order of the Board,

R. H. Crew, Secretary.

HENRY NETTLESHIPP, Clerk of the Grocers' Company.

East India-House, May 30, 1804.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England, trading to the East Indies, do hereby give Notice,

That the Quarterly General Court appointed to be held on Wednesday the 20th of June next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, is made special, at the Desire of Twelve Proprietors, for the Purpose of reconsidering the Subject of the late Act of Parliament, called the Property Act, so far as it may be found to affect India Stock.

William Ramfay, Secretary.

Exchequer-Bill Office, May 30, 1804.

All Exchequer-Bills dated in April and May 1803,
TO BE PAID OFF.

THE Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having given Directions for paying off the Principal of the above-mentioned Exchequer-Bills, with the Interest thereon, at the Exchequer-Bill Office in St. Margaret's-Street, between the Two Palace-Yards, Westminster, on Monday the 18th Day of June 1804, Attendance will be given daily (Sundays and Holidays excepted) until Wednesday the 13th June inclusive, from Ten o'Clock in the Morning till One in the Afternoon, for the Purpose of receiving the same: And, for the greater Dispatch, the Bearers of the said Bills are desired to bring Lists thereof, containing the Numbers in Numerical Order, according to the Value of the said Bills and Times of Commencement of Interest, with the Principal Sums and Interest due thereon, computed from the Days on which they are respectively dated, exclusive to the said 18th Day of June inclusive, when the Interest will cease; and they are desired to write their Names and Places of Abode on such Lists, and indorse their Names on the said Bills.

If any of the Holders of the aforesaid Bills should be desirous of receiving Payment of the Principal and Interest, previous to the said 18th Day of June 1804, they may be accommodated, on computing the Interest to the Day on which they wish to be paid, and leaving the said Bills for Examination One Day prior thereto.

Such Persons as may be desirous of having New Exchequer-Bills in Part Payment, upon mentioning the Amount at the Bottom of their Lists delivered on or before the 13th June 1804, may be accommodated with New Bills carrying an Interest of Three Pence Halfpenny by the Day on every One Hundred Pounds, which said New Bills will bear Date the said 18th Day of June 1804, and will be delivered on Tuesday the 19th of June, and the following Days.

N. B. All Exchequer-Bills dated prior to April 1803 have been advertised to be paid off, and the Interest thereon has ceased.

Bank of England, May 12, 1804.

THE Court of Directors of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, with the Approbation of His Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, having caused Dollars to be stamped at Mr. Boulton's Manufactory, with His Majesty's Head and an Inscription "Georgius III. Dei Gratia Rex" on the Obverse, and Britannia, with the Words "Five Shillings Dollar Bank of England, 1804" on the Reverse, which they propose to issue instead of the Dollars which have been lately stamped at His Majesty's Mint at the Tower; the latter of which it is expedient to withdraw from Circulation, hereby give Notice, that those Dollars which have been stamped at the Tower since the 1st Day of January last, and which are now in Circulation, will not be current, nor be received at the Bank at the Rate of 5s. each, after the 21st Day of June next; and that from and after the 20th Instant, until the said 21st Day of June inclusive, they may be exchanged for Dollars with the new Stamp, or for Bank Notes, after the Rate of 5s. for each Dollar. Attendance will be given at the Bank for this Purpose on Monday the 21st Instant, and the following Days, (Sundays and Fest Days excepted,) until Saturday the 24th of June inclusive. But to avoid Confusion from a Crowd of Persons applying at the same Time, the Court finds it necessary to give Notice, that smaller Sums than Eight Dollars cannot be exchanged at the Bank.

Robert Bell, Secretary.

Bank of England, May 16, 1804.

Notice is hereby given, that the Dollars stamped at Mr. Boulton's Manufactory, which the Bank of England is about to take for Five Shillings each, will be received in Payment again at the Bank at the same Time, provided they shall not be defaced or mutilated, or in any Way rendered lighter, except from the Operation of common Wear.

Robert Bell, Secretary.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 6th of June 1804,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS Day the Right Honorable Henry Lord Mulgrave was, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

His Majesty having been pleased, on the 14th Day of May last, to appoint the Right Honorable George Earl of Dartmouth Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household, his Lordship this Day, by His Majesty's Command, took the Oaths as Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household.

His Majesty having been pleased, on the 10th Day of May last, to appoint the Right Honorable George Earl of Winchelsea and Nottingham, Groom of the Stole to His Majesty, his Lordship this Day, by His Majesty's Command, took the Oaths as Groom of the Stole to His Majesty.

His Majesty having been graciously pleased to deliver the Custody of the Seals of the Duchy and County-Palatine of Lancaster to the Right Honorable Henry Lord Mulgrave, the Oath of Chancellor of the said Duchy was this Day, by His Majesty's Command, administered to his Lordship.

His Majesty in Council was this Day pleased to appoint his Grace James Duke of Montrose, and, in his Grace's Absence, the Right Honorable George Rose, President of the Committee of Council appointed for the Consideration of all Matters relating to Trade and Foreign Plantations.

His Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Right Honorable Edward Earl of Powis to be Lord Lieutenant of the Counties of Salop and Montgomery, his Lordship this Day took the Oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

His Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Right Honorable George Talbot Lord Dynevor to be Lord Lieutenant of the County of Carmarthen, his Lordship this Day took the Oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

His Majesty in Council was this Day pleased to make the following Amendment upon the Roll of Sheriffs, viz.

Worcestershire, Thomas Holmes, made Thomas Hunter, in consequence of Mr. Holmes having obtained His Majesty's Licence to take and use the Surname of Hunter only.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 6th of June 1804,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the Twenty-first Day of November last, for prohibiting the Exportation out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coastwise, Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, will expire this Day: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever, (except the Master General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service,) do at any Time, during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the Date of this Order, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or ship or lade any Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on board any Ship or Vessel in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by an Act passed in the Twenty-ninth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Salt-Petre, and to enforce the Law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition; and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying Coastwise of Salt-Petre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition:"—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Admiralty-Office, June 8, 1804.

THIS is to give Notice to the Concerned, that Information has been received at this Office, that several Boats from the Scilly Islands towed into St. Mary's Pool, on the 2d Instant, a Vessel dismasted, and full of Water, without any Person on board. The Vessel has neither Anchors, Cables, Rudder, Masts, Bowspit, Sails, or Rigging: There appears a Name in the Stern—William Wiscasset, (supposed to mean Wiscasset, the first Letter being defaced;) the Cargo, as far as can be discovered, consists of Bark, Deals, and Staves; and she appears to be an American built Vessel. W. MARSDEN.

Whitehall, June 9, 1804.

As several Artificers and Manufacturers, Subjects of Great Britain, have, from Time to Time, gone into Foreign Countries to exercise their several Callings, contrary to the Laws of these Kingdoms, the following Abstracts of Acts of Parliament of Their late Majesties King George the First and Second, and of His present Majesty, for preventing such Practices, are published, for the Information of all Persons who may be ignorant of the Penalties they may incur by Disobedience to them: And it will be observed, that such Penalties likewise extend to those who are any ways concerned or instrumental in the Sending or Enticing Artificers or Manufacturers out of these Kingdoms, or in the Exportation of the Tools and Instruments used by them, as well as to the Artificers or Manufacturers themselves.

Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

IF any Person shall contract with, entice, or solicit, any Artificer in Wool, Iron, Steel, Brass, or other Metal, Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer of Great Britain, to go into Foreign Countries out of the King's Dominions, and shall be convicted thereof, upon Indictment or Information in any of the Courts at Westminster, or at the Assizes or Quarter Sessions, he shall be fined any Sum not exceeding ONE HUNDRED POUNDS for the first Offence, and shall be imprisoned Three Months, and till the Fine be paid. And if any Person having been once convicted shall offend again, he shall be fined at the Discretion of the Court, and imprisoned Twelve Months, and till the Fine be paid.

If any of the King's Subjects, being such Artificers, shall go into any Country out of His Majesty's Dominions, to exercise or teach the said Trades to Foreigners; and if any of the King's Subjects in any such Foreign Country, exercising any of the said Trades, shall not return into this Realm within Six Months after Warning given by the Ambassador, Minister, or Consul of Great Britain, in the Country where such Artificers shall be, or by any Person authorised by such Ambassador, &c. or by one of the Secretaries of State, and from henceforth inhabit within this Realm; such Persons shall be incapable of taking any Legacy, or of being an Executor or Administrator, or of taking any Lands, &c. within this Kingdom, by Descent, Devise, or Purchase, and shall forfeit all Lands, Goods, &c. within this Kingdom, to His Majesty's Use, and shall be deemed Alien, and out of His Majesty's Protection.

Upon Complaint made, upon Oath, before any Justice of Peace, that any Person is endeavouring to seduce any such Artificer, or that any such Artificer hath contracted or is preparing to go out of His Majesty's Dominions, for the Purposes aforesaid, such Justice may send his Warrant to bring the Person complained of before him, or before some other Justice; and if it shall appear by the Oath of One Witness, or by Confession, that he was guilty of any of the said Offences, such Justice may bind him to appear at the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions: And if such Person shall refuse to give Security, the Justice may commit him to Gaol till the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions, and until he shall be delivered by due Course of Law. And if any such Artificer shall be convicted, upon Indictment, of any such Promise, Contract, or Preparation to go beyond the Seas, for the Purpose aforesaid, he shall give such Security to the King not to depart out of His Majesty's Dominions, as such Court shall think reasonable, and shall be imprisoned till Security given.

If any of the above Offences shall be committed in Scotland, the same shall be prosecuted in the Court of Justiciary or the Circuits there.

Statute 23 George II. Chap. 13.

IF any Person shall contract with, or endeavour to seduce any Artificer in Wool, Mohair, Cotton, or Silk, or in Iron, Steel, Brasses, or other Metal, or any Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer in any other of the Manufactures of Great Britain or Ireland, to go out of this Kingdom or Ireland into any Foreign Country not within the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, and shall be convicted, upon Indictment or Information, in the Kings Bench at Westminster, or by Indictment at the Assizes or General Gaol Delivery for the County, &c. wherein such Offence shall be committed in England, or by Indictment in the Court of Justiciary or any of the Circuit Courts in Scotland, or by Indictment or Information in the King's Bench at Dublin, if such Offence be committed in Ireland; the Person so convicted shall, for every Artificer contracted with or seduced, forfeit FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, and shall suffer Imprisonment in the Common Gaol of the County or Stewartry wherein such Offender shall be convicted for Twelve Calendar Months, and until Forfeiture be paid: And in case of a subsequent Offence of the same Kind, the Persons so again offending shall forfeit, for every Person contracted with or seduced, ONE THOUSAND POUNDS, and shall suffer Imprisonment in the Common Gaol of the County or Stewartry wherein such Offender shall be convicted, for Two Years, and until such Forfeiture be paid.

If any Person in Great Britain or Ireland shall put on board any Ship or Boat, not bound directly to some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, any such Tools or Utensils as are commonly used in, or proper for the Preparing, Working up, or Finishing of the Woollen or Silk Manufactures, or any Part of such Tools, he shall, for every Offence, forfeit all such Tools, or Parts thereof, put on board, and TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered by Action of Debt, &c. in any Court of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Session in Scotland, or at any of the Four Courts in Dublin respectively, wherein no Essoin, &c. shall be allowed.

It shall be lawful for any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain, or for any Officer of the Revenue in Ireland, to seize and secure, in some of His Majesty's Warehouses, all such Tools or Utensils prohibited to be exported, as such Officer shall find on board any Vessel not bound directly to some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain; and all Tools so seized shall, after Condemnation, be publicly sold to the best Bidder; and one Moiety of the Produce shall be to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Officer who shall seize and secure the same.

If the Captain of any Vessel in Great Britain or Ireland knowingly permit any of the said Tools, prohibited to be exported, to be put on board his Vessel, he shall, for every such Offence, forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as the Penalties inflicted upon Persons exporting the Tools; and, if the Vessel belongs to His Majesty, the Captain shall not only forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, but shall also forfeit his Employment, and be incapable of any Employment under His Majesty.

If any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain or of the Revenue in Ireland, take, or knowingly suffer to be taken, any Entry outward, or sign any Cocket or Sufferance for the Shipping or Exporting of any of the said Tools, or knowingly suffer the same to be done, he shall forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as aforesaid, and also forfeit his Office, and be incapable of any Office under His Majesty.

One Moiety of the Forfeitures shall be applied to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Use of the Person who shall sue for the same.

Statutes 14, 21, 25, and 26 of His present Majesty.

BY these Statutes the like Penalties and Forfeitures as above-mentioned are extended to Persons packing or putting on board any Vessel, not bound directly for some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, any Machine, Engine, Tool, Press, Paper, Utensil, or Implement whatsoever, used in or proper for the working or finishing of the Cotton, Steel, or Iron Manufactures of this Kingdom, or any Part or Parts of such Machines or Implements, or any Models or Plans thereof; and all Captains of Ships and other Persons receiving or being in Possession of any such Articles, with an Intent to export the same to Foreign Parts, and all Custom-house Officers suffering an Entry to be made thereof, are respectively liable to the like Penalties as are above-mentioned, in the case of Tools and Utensils used in the Woollen and Silk Manufactures.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 6th of June 1804,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the Twenty-first Day of November last, for prohibiting the Exportation out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coastwise, Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, will expire this Day: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever, (except the Master General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service,) do at any Time, during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the Date of this Order, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or ship or lade any Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on board any Ship or Vessel in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties justified by an Act passed in the Twenty-ninth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Salt-Petre, and to enforce the Law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition; and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying Coastwise of Salt-Petre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition:"—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Copy of a Letter from the Honorable William Cornwallis, Admiral of the White, &c to William Marsden, Esq; dated off Usbant, the 7th Instant.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to enclose, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Copies of Two Letters to me from Captain Campbell, of the Doris, containing an Account of his having captured Two of the Enemy's Gun-Boats in the Bay of Hodiernne.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

W. CORNWALLIS.

His Majesty's Ship Doris, off Point du Raze,

SIR, 10th March 1804.

I BEG Leave to inform you of my having taken and destroyed the French Gun-Boat No. 351. of the Second Class, carrying One Eighteen-Pounder and Thirty Men, being One of a small Convoy from Quimper to Brest, ultimately to Bonlogne, laden with Ammunition, Provisions, &c.: the rest escaped into Hodiernne, owing to my having sprung the Main-topmast, and split the Sail, in Chase. I have the Honor to be, &c.

PAT. CAMPBELL.

The Honorable Admiral Cornwallis,

&c. &c. &c.

His Majesty's Ship Doris, off Point du

SIR, Raze, April 30, 1804.

HAVING observed, on the clearing up of a Fog, a Number of Gun Brigs, Boats, and Chasse Marees, anchored at the Entrance of Hodiernne Harbour; I stood in at Night, and anchored as near as I could to protect the Boats which were dispatched under the Orders of Lieutenant Aderson, who succeeded in bringing out the Gun-Boat No. 360, of the Second Class, carrying One Eighteen-Pounder and Thirty Men, but owing to a rapid and heavy Surf which broke at the Harbour's Mouth, as well as their being protected by strong Batteries prevented his being more successful.

I am, &c. PAT. CAMPBELL.

The Honorable Admiral Cornwallis.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 6th of June 1804,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, in pursuance of the Powers vested in His Majesty by an Act passed in the Forty-second Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for enabling His Majesty to permit the Importation and Exportation of certain Goods and Commodities into and from the Port of Road-Harbour, in the Island of Tortola, until the First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, and from thence until Six Weeks after the Commencement of the then next Session of Parliament;" His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Sixteenth of August One thousand eight hundred and two, to permit, and did thereby permit, during the Time limited by the said Act, the Importation into the said Port of Road-Harbour, in the Island of Tortola, one of the Virgin Islands, from Countries and Plantations in America and the West Indies belonging to, or under the Dominion of any Foreign European Sovereign or State, of all such Articles, Goods, and Commodities enumerated in certain Acts, passed in the Twenty-seventh, Thirty-second, and Thirty third Years of His Majesty's Reign, as are permitted by the said Acts to be imported into the Port of Nassau, in the Island of New Providence, one of the Bahama Islands; and also the Exportation thereof from the said Port of Road-Harbour, in the Island of Tortola aforesaid, in the same Manner, and subject to the same Duties, Rules, Regulations, Conditions, and Restrictions, and to the same Penalties and Forfeitures for the Breach thereof, as are provided in the said Acts, or any of them, respecting such Importation into the said Port of Nassau, in the Island of New Providence, and the Exportation from thence to this Kingdom, and subject also to the Conditions, Rules, and Regulations thereinafter-mentioned; that is to say, That before any Sugar or Coffee, the Produce of Tortola and its Dependencies, shall be permitted or suffered to be shipped or laden on board any Ship or Vessel, each and every Package shall be stamped or marked by the proper Officer of the Customs in Roman Letters of not less than Two Inches in Length, with the Words BRITISH PN. :

That all Sugar and Coffee not being the Produce of any of the British Plantations, Islands, or Territories, shall, upon Importation into Road-Harbour, be laid on Land and examined, and shall be deposited in safe and secure Warehouses, under the Joint Locks of His Majesty and the Owner or Proprietor of such Sugar and Coffee, and the same shall not be afterwards shipped or laden on board any Ship or Vessel, unless directly from such Warehouses, (upon due Entry thereof being first made,) under the Care and Inspection of the proper Officer of the Customs; and before any such Sugar or Coffee shall be permitted or suffered to be shipped or laden on board any Ship or Vessel, each and every Package shall be stamped or marked by the proper Officer of the Customs in Roman Letters of not less than Two Inches in Length, with the Word FOREIGN, and shall also be numbered progressively; and whereas the said above recited Act, passed in the Forty-second Year of His Majesty's Reign, has been by another Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, continued until the Twentieth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and eight, His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to permit, and doth by this His Order in Council permit, until further Order, the Importation into the said Port of Road-Harbour, in the Island of Tortola, one of the Virgin Islands, from Countries and Plantations in America and the West Indies, belonging to or under the Dominion of any Foreign European Sovereign or State, of all such Articles, Goods, and Commodities as were by His Majesty's said Order in Council, bearing Date the Sixteenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and two, permitted to be so imported into the said Port of Road-Harbour, and also the Exportation thereof from the said Port of Road-Harbour, in the Island of Tortola, subject to the same Duties, Rules, Regulations, Conditions, and Restrictions, and to the same Penalties and Forfeitures for the Breach thereof, as were expressed and contained in His Majesty's said Order in Council bearing Date the Sixteenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and two:—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. W. Farwener.

Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Sir Andrew Mitchell, K. B. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at North America, to William Marsden, Esq; dated at Bermuda, the 17th of April 1804.

SIR,

HEREWITH I transmit Two Letters from Captain Bradley, of His Majesty's Ship the Cambrian, giving an Account of the Capture of Two French Privateers on his Passage to Bermuda.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

A. MITCHELL.

SIR, Cambrian, at Sea, March 22, 1804.

I HAVE to acquaint you, that I have this Day captured, in His Majesty's Ship under my Command, Le Tison French Privateer Schooner, mounting Six Twelve and Nine-Pounders, (which were thrown overboard during the Chase,) and Fifty-nine Men, commanded by Joseph Kallique, belonging to Guadaloupe, had been out Eleven Days, taken nothing. She held us a Chase of Twenty-five Hours.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) W. BRADLEY.

Vice-Admiral Sir Andrew Mitchell, K. B.

Copy of another Letter from Vice-Admiral Sir Andrew Mitchell, K. B. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in North America, to William Marsden, Esq; dated at Bermuda, the 17th of April 1804.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to transmit you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a Copy of a Letter from Captain Lyall, stating the Capture of the Batavian Republic Schooner Draak by His Majesty's Sloop Lilly, under his Command, on the 1st of March last, on his Passage to the Bahamas.

I am, &c. A. MITCHELL.

Lilly, Salt-Key Anchorage, New Providence,

SIR, March 27, 1804.

BY a Schooner who sails from this Place for Bermuda this Evening, I have to inform you, in pursuance of your Orders of the 3d Ultimo, that, on the 1st Instant, in Latitude 26 Deg. and Longitude 70 Deg. 3 Min. captured the Batavian Republic Schooner Draak, of Four Four-Pounders, One long Three-Pounder, and Fifty Men; commanded by a Lieutenant Jan Jullus Dingemans, from Curaçoa, out Seven Weeks, and taken nothing. She engaged us Fifteen Minutes, and made every Preparation to board. The Corporal of Marines lost his Arm, and the Schooner had Two Men killed and One severely wounded. She is a very fine Vessel, coppered, sails remarkably fast, well found in every Thing, Bermudian built, and Four Years old.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) W. LYALL.

Whitehall, June 12, 1804.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that, in the Night of Saturday the 9th Instant, the Chapel belonging to His Excellency the Ambassador from His Majesty the Emperor of all the Russias, situate in Marybone Street, was sacrilegiously, feloniously, and burglariously broken open, and several Vessels and Silver Articles used in the Service of the said Chapel, were stolen from thence;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Felony, is hereby graciously pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person who actually first broke into the said Chapel,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HAWKESBURY.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders, by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

The Articles stolen as above, are

A Silver Chalice, the inside Gilt:

A Silver Incense-Pot:

A large Silver-Gilt Spoon:

A Silver Belt-Buckle:

A Silver Candlestick:

Also Four Pieces of Silver, bearing Impressions respectively of the Four Evangelists; and One Round Piece of Silver bearing an Impression of Our Blessed Saviour.—On these Articles are engraved several Words in the Russian Language.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday June 16, to Tuesday June 19, 1804.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 6th of June 1804,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, in pursuance of the Powers vested in His Majesty by an Act passed in the Forty-second Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for enabling His Majesty to permit the Importation and Exportation of certain Goods and Commodities into and from the Port of Road-Harbour, in the Island of Tortola, until the First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, and from thence until Six Weeks after the Commencement of the then next Session of Parliament;" His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Sixteenth of August One thousand eight hundred and two, to permit, and did thereby permit, during the Time limited by the said Act, the Importation into the said Port of Road-Harbour, in the Island of Tortola, one of the Virgin Islands, from Countries and Plantations in America and the West Indies belonging to, or under the Dominion of any Foreign European Sovereign or State, of all such Articles, Goods, and Commodities enumerated in certain Acts, passed in the Twenty-seventh, Thirty-second, and Thirty-third Years of His Majesty's Reign, as are permitted by the said Acts to be imported into the Port of Nassau, in the Island of New Providence, one of the Bahama Islands; and also the Exportation thereof from the said Port of Road-Harbour, in the Island of Tortola aforesaid, in the same Manner, and subject to the same Duties, Rules, Regulations, Conditions, and Restrictions, and to the same Penalties and Forfeitures for the Breach thereof, as are provided in the said Acts, or any of them, respecting such Importation into the said Port of Nassau, in the Island of New Providence, and the Exportation from thence to this Kingdom, and subject also to the Conditions, Rules, and Regulations thereinafter-mentioned; that is to say, That before any Sugar or Coffee, the Produce of Tortola and its Dependencies, shall be permitted or suffered to be shipped or laden on board any Ship or Vessel, each and every Package shall be stamped or marked by the proper Officer of the Customs in Roman Letters of not less than Two Inches in Length, with the Words BRITISH PN.:

That all Sugar and Coffee not being the Produce of any of the British Plantations, Islands, or Territories, shall, upon Importation into Road-Harbour, be laid on Land and examined, and shall be deposited in safe and secure Warehouses, under the Joint Locks of His Majesty and the Owner or Proprietor of such Sugar and Coffee, and the same shall not be afterwards shipped or laden on board any Ship or Vessel, unless directly from such Warehouses, (upon due Entry thereof being first made,) under the Care and Inspection of the proper Officer of the Customs; and before any such Sugar or Coffee shall be permitted or suffered to be shipped or laden on board any Ship or Vessel, each and every Package shall be stamped or marked by the proper Officer of the Customs in Roman Letters of not less than Two Inches in Length, with the Word FOREIGN, and shall also be numbered progressively; and whereas the said above recited Act, passed in the Forty-second Year of His Majesty's Reign, has been by another Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, continued until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and eight, His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to permit, and doth by this His Order in Council permit, until further Order, the Importation into the said Port of Road-Harbour, in the Island of Tortola, one of the Virgin Islands, from Countries and Plantations in America and the West Indies, belonging to or under the Dominion of any Foreign European Sovereign or State, of all such Articles, Goods, and Commodities as were by His Majesty's said Order in Council, bearing Date the Sixteenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and two, permitted to be so imported into the said Port of Road-Harbour, and also the Exportation thereof from the said Port of Road-Harbour, in the Island of Tortola, subject to the same Duties, Rules, Regulations, Conditions, and Restrictions, and to the same Penalties and Forfeitures for the Breach thereof, as were expressed and contained in His Majesty's said Order in Council bearing Date the Sixteenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and two:—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury,

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 6th of June 1804,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the Twenty-first Day of November last, for prohibiting the Exportation out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coastwise, Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, will expire this Day: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever, (except the Master General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service,) do at any Time, during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the Date of this Order, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or ship or lade any Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on board any Ship or Vessel in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by an Act passed in the Twenty-ninth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Salt-Petre, and to enforce the Law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition; and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying Coastwise of Salt-Petre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition:"—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain. W. Fawkenner.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 8th of May 1804,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Twenty-first of December last, to prohibit, until the Thirty-first Day of March then ensuing, the Exportation of the several Articles of Provision mentioned in the said Order; and also to permit, for and during the like Term, the Importation, Duty free, of the several Articles of Provision also specified in the said

Order, which expired on the Thirty-first of March last; And whereas it is judged expedient that the Permission to import certain Articles of Provision free of Duty should be revived, and be in Force for some Time longer, His Majesty, in virtue of the Powers vested in His Majesty by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue several Laws relating to the suspending the Operation of Two Acts of the Fifteenth and Seventeenth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty for restraining the Negotiation of Promissory Notes and Bills of Exchange, under a limited Sum, in England; and to the prohibiting the Exportation from, and permitting the Importation to, Great Britain, of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision, without Payment of Duty, until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and five; and to the regulating the Trade and Commerce to and from the Isle of Malta, until Six Months after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace;" is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to allow, and doth hereby allow, for and during the Space of Three Months from the Date of this Order, the Importation into any Port or Place of Great Britain of any Beans called Kidney or French Beans, Tares, Lentiles, Calavancies, and all other Sorts of Pulse; and also Bulls, Cows, Oxen, Calves, Sheep, Lambs, and Swine; Beef, Pork, Mutton, Veal, and Lamb, whether salted or otherwise; Bacon, Hams, Tongues, Butter, Cheese, Potatoes, Sago, Sago-Powder, Tapioca, Vermicelli, Millet-Seed, Poultry, Fowls, Eggs, Game, and Sour Crout, in any British Ship or Vessel, or in any other Ship or Vessel belonging to Persons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majesty, and navigated in any Manner whatever, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever; provided that a due Entry shall be made of all such Articles as aforesaid, that shall be so imported, with the proper Officers of the Customs at the Port where the same shall be imported, under the Penalties and Forfeitures mentioned and referred to in the said above-recited Act.—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly. W. Fawkenner.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 14th of May 1804,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the Twenty-third ultimo, to direct that all Ships or Vessels which should be bound to the Port of Greenock, or any Member or Creek thereof, or other Place therein, from any Place or Places from whence Quarantine is required to be performed, shall perform their Quarantine in Holy Loch, in the Firth of Clyde, in place of Lamlash, in the Island of Arran; and that all Goods on board such Ships should be aired at the same Place; His Majesty is hereby pleased to order, that Holy Loch, in the Firth of Clyde, instead of Lamlash, in the Island of Arran, shall also be the Place for the Performance of Quarantine by all Ships and Vessels which shall be bound to any of the Western Ports of Scotland, comprehending the Ports of Port Glasgow, Greenock, Irvine, Campbeltown, Oban, Rothesay, Fort William, Air, Port Patrick, Stranraer, and Wigtown, or to any Member, Creek, or other Parts thereof, from any Place or Places from whence Quarantine is required to be performed; and that all Goods imported on board such Ships shall be aired at the same Place:—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Fawcener.

MEMBER returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT.

Borough of Milborne Port.

The Honorable Charles Paget, in the Room of the Right Honorable Henry William Paget, commonly called Lord Paget, who, since his Election for the said Borough, hath accepted the Office of Steward or Bailiff of His Majesty's Three Chiltern Hundreds of Stoke, Newborough, and Bokenham, in the County of Buckingham.

Whitehall, June 12, 1804.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that, in the Night of Saturday the 9th Instant, the Chapel belonging to His Excellency the Ambassador from His Majesty the Emperor of all the Russias, situate in Marybone Street, was sacrilegiously, feloniously, and burglariously broken open, and several Vessels and Silver Articles used in the Service of the said Chapel, were stolen from thence;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Felony, is hereby graciously pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person who actually first broke into the said Chapel,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HAWKESBURY.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders, by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

The Articles stolen as above, are

A Silver Incense-Pot:

A large Silver-Gilt Spoon:

A Silver Belt-Buckle:

A Silver Candlestick:

Also Four Pieces of Silver, bearing Impressions respectively of the Four Evangelists; and One Round Piece of Silver bearing an Impression of Our Blessed Saviour.—On these Articles are engraved several Words in the Russian Language.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is a Copy, has been received from Major-General Sir Charles Green by Earl Camden, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State :

MY LORD, Paramaribo, May 13, 1804.

IT is highly gratifying to me to have the Honor of informing your Lordship, that the Colony of Surinam has surrendered to His Majesty's Arms; and I have the farther Satisfaction to acquaint your Lordship, that this valuable Acquisition to the British Dominions has been made with very little Loss on the Part of His Majesty's Troops.

In my Dispatches from Barbadoes, of the 2d of April, I had the Honor to report to your Lordship that the Arrangements for proceeding on the Expedition against Surinam being nearly completed, I had reason to expect we should be enabled to sail from Barbadoes in the Course of Three or Four Days; and Commodore Hood having previously signified to me that every Thing in the Naval Department was ready, I directed the final Embarkation of the Troops, Stores, &c. on the 6th of the same Month. The following Day the whole Fleet weighed Anchor and sailed.

On the 25th, His Majesty's Ship Centaur, having the Commodore's broad Pendant, and on board of which I was embarked, came to Anchor about Ten Miles off the Mouth of the River Surinam; and during that and the next Day the greater Part of the Fleet also anchored.

On the 26th, a Corps, consisting of the Flank Companies of the 16th and 64th Regiments, the Rifle Company of the 2d Battalion 60th Regiment, made up by Detachments from the Battalion Companies of the 16th, 64th, and 6th West India Regiments, to about Six Hundred Men, and the 1st Brigade of Royal Artillery, besides Armed Seamen, was detached in different Vessels under Convoy of His Majesty's Ship Hippomenes, Captain Shipley. This Corps was commanded by Brigadier-General Mainland, who was directed to effect a Landing at the Warappa Creek, about Ten Leagues to the Eastward of the Surinam River, where the Enemy occupied a Post. The Object of this Operation was to obtain a Water Communication with the Commewyne River, to procure Plantation Boats in sufficient Number to transport the Troops down that River towards its Junction with the Surinam, and thereby facilitate our Approach to take a Position in the Rear of Fort New Amsterdam; and also with a view to cut off a considerable Detachment of the Enemy stationed at Fort Brandwacht, on the Mud Creek.

On the same Day Preparations were made for landing a Body of Troops to take Possession of Bram's Point, where there is a Battery of Seven Eighteen-Pounders, which defends the Entrance of the River Surinam. Brigadier General Hughes undertook to superintend this Service; the Wind proving favourable, His Majesty's Ships Emerald, Pandour, (having the 64th Regiment on board,) and Drake Brig of War, got under weigh to attack the Battery, when a Fire was opened on the Ships, which, however, was soon silenced by a few Broadfides, and the Enemy struck their Colours. A Detachment of Troops under Brigadier General Hughes, immediately landed, and took Possession of Bram's Point, making Prisoners a Captain and Forty-four Men. The Entrance being thus secured, the Commodore made Signal for the Ships to go into the River as soon as possible; in the Course of that and the following Day, the most considerable Part of the Fleet anchored in the River.

At this Period the Commodore shifted his Pendant to the Emerald, and I accompanied him on board that Ship. We then judged it expedient to send a Summons to the Governor of Surinam, with Proposals for the Surrender of the Colony.

Captain Maxwell, of the Royal Navy, and Captain Drummond, of the 60th Regiment, (acting as my Aid-de-Camp,) proceeded up the River with a Flag of Truce; and, having delivered our Summons to the Governor, returned in the Night with Information that an Answer would be sent next Morning.

On the 28th we received the Governor's Answer, conveying a Refusal to capitulate. (Copies of our Summons, with the proposed Terms, and the Answer thereto, are herewith transmitted.) It was determined that we should lose no Time in endeavouring to make some Impression on the Enemy's Posts; but I must here beg Leave to observe to your Lordship, that the Coast of Surinam is of very difficult Approach, shallow, and full of Banks; that a Landing is only to be attempted at the Top of the Tide, and at particular Points; the Coast is uncleared, and from Wood, and the marshy Nature of the Soil, it is impossible to penetrate into the Interior, except by the Rivers and the Creeks.

The Shores on both Sides of the River Surinam are equally difficult of Access, for the same Causes, until you reach the Battery Frederici, with the Exception of one Spot on the Eastern Shore, where a Plantation, called Resolution, has been lately established. Our Points of Attack were therefore confined; and the Enemy, by Means of their Forts, Ships of War, and other armed Vessels, were completely Masters of the Navigation of the River Surinam above Fort Amsterdam.

The Defences of the River, after passing Bram's Point, are Fort Amsterdam, situated on the Confluence of the Rivers Surinam and Commewyne: upwards of Eighty Pieces of Ordnance are mounted in this Fort.

Fort Leyden is armed with Twelve heavy Guns, and situated on the right Bank of the Surinam, where it meets the Commewyne; is opposite to and commanded by Fort Amsterdam, at the Distance of about Two Thousand Yards.

The Battery Frederici is about Two Hundred Yards lower down, and armed with Twelve heavy Guns.

On the Left Bank of the River, nearly opposite to Fort Amsterdam, is Fort Purnement, having Ten Guns mounted: its Rear and Flanks protected by impassible Marsh and Woods.

The Fire of all these Works and Batteries intersect in the Channel for Ships going up the River.

The Town of Paramaribo is defended towards the Water by a Battery of about Ten Guns, mounted in Fort Zeelandia, a Place otherwise of no Defence.

The 28th. The Ships of War and other Vessels proceeded up the River as fast as the Tides would admit of.

A Plan was formed for making an Attempt on Fort Purnement: a Detachment of the 64th Regiment, under Captain Burton, accompanied by Captain Drummond, my Aide-de-Camp, with a Body of armed Seamen, commanded by Captain Jarvis, embarked at Eight o'Clock at Night for that Purpose. But on approaching the Fort, they found the Tide was unfavourable for the Undertaking, and returned.

On the 29th, Lieutenant-Colonel Shipley, commanding Engineer, went on Shore at the Plantation before stated, below the Enemy's Batteries, to endeavour to procure Intelligence; and on returning reported, that he had every Reason to believe that there was a practicable Way through the Woods, by which a Body of Men might be conducted to the Rear of the Forts Leyden and Frederici. Lieutenant-Colonel Shipley was indefatigable in ascertaining the Accuracy of this Information, in which he was ably assisted by Lieutenant Arnold, of the Royal Engineers, and Mr. Hobbs, Acting-Engineer, and the Result was such, that a Detachment of One Hundred and Forty Men, of the 64th Regiment, under the Command of the Honorable Lieutenant-Colonel Crauford, with Major Stirke, of the 6th West India Regiment, Ten Men of the 6th West India Regiment, with Side Arms, having felling Axes, Twenty of the Artillery's Corps provided in the same Manner, and about Thirty armed Seamen, commanded by Captains Maxwell, Ferris, and Richardson, of the Royal Navy, the Whole under the Command of Brigadier-General Hughes, accompanied by Lieutenant-Colonel Shipley, Lieutenant Arnold, of the Royal Engineers, and Mr. Hobbs, Acting Engineer, whose local Knowledge proved extremely useful on this Occasion, landed between the Hours of Ten and Eleven at Night, at Resolution Plantation, and proceeded through the Woods with Negro Guides.

A great Quantity of Rain having recently fallen, it was found that the Path, at all Times difficult, had become almost impassable, but no Obstacle could damp the enterprising Spirit of our Seamen and Soldiers, who, with persevering Courage, after a laborious March of five Hours, arrived near the Rear of Frederici Battery. The Alarm having been given, a considerable Fire of Grape Shot was made upon the Troops before they quitted the Wood, whilst forming for the Attack, and of Musketry as they approached the Battery. The Assault of our intrepid Seamen and Troops with fixed Bayonets, was so animated and rigorous as to prevent any further Resistance. The Enemy fled to Fort Leyden, having set Fire to the Powder Magazine, by the Explosion of which a few British Officers and Men were severely wounded. Brigadier-General Hughes used no Delay in moving on to the Attack of Fort Leyden, but being under the Necessity of marching by a narrow Road, which was enfiladed by Four or Five Guns, received a considerable Fire of Grape Shot on his March, and of Musketry on his nearer Approach, which, however, was soon put a Stop to by a Repetition of the same impetuous Attack on our Part, and the Enemy, after some firing, called for Quarter, which was generously granted by the Conquerors, although in the Moment they were highly exasperated at the Conduct of the Batavian Troops in blowing up the Powder Magazine at Fort Frederici, after it had been in our Possession. A Captain with some other Officers and One Hundred and Twenty Men were taken at this Post, about Thirty having made their Escape across the River Commewyne to Fort New Amsterdam.

By this brilliant Affair a Position was secured, by which a heavy Fire could be brought on Fort New Amsterdam, a Communication with the River Commewyne opened, the Means of forming a Junction with Brigadier-General Maitland's Corps established, and the Command of the finest Part of the Colony, abounding with Resources of all Kinds, obtained.

Brigadier-General Hughes's Exertions upon this Occasion were highly meritorious, and by his animating Example contributed much to the Success of the Day.

On the 30th in the Morning, the Commodore and myself went on Shore at the captured Fort, and Directions were given for covering the Troops and Guns from the Fire of Fort New Amsterdam, to which they were greatly exposed, and for pointing the Fire of the Forts towards the Enemy. The Troops underwent great Fatigue in executing these Works, which, however, they cheerfully submitted to, under the Direction of Lieutenant-Colonel Shipley, who, as usual, was unequalled in his Exertions. Brigadier-General Hughes remained in the Command there, giving every necessary Support and Countenance. The Enemy fired from Time to Time from Fort New Amsterdam, by which Three Men at Fort Leyden were wounded, but some Shells being thrown in Return from Two Mortars, which we had got on Shore at Fort Leyden, the Firing on the Part of the Enemy ceased.

On the same Day I received a Report from Brigadier-General Maitland, that a Landing had been effected at the Warappa Creek by the first Division of his Corps, under the Command of Major Hardyman, of the 1st Battalion of the Royals, who took Possession of the Enemy's Post, where there were Two Guns, after a short Resistance; and the Brigadier-General further stated, that he was proceeding to land with the Whole of his Corps. Under these Circumstances no Time was lost in disembarking at Fort Leyden the rest of the Troops, and pushing them on by the North Bank of the Commewyne to nearly opposite Zooland's Plantation, where it was intended to cross the River to form a Junction with Brigadier-General Maitland's Corps on its expected Arrival there. The Artillery, Stores, and Provisions were also conveyed in Boats by the indefatigable Exertions of the Navy, into the Commewyne River, and an Armed Naval Force established therein.

On the 3d May, Brigadier-General Maitland, having, with Great Diligence, procured a Number of Plantation Boats to convey his Corps, appeared coming down the Commewyne in very good Order, and landed at a Plantation on the South Side of that River.

On the same Evening Part of the 16th Regiment, crossed the Commewyne to join Brigadier-General Maitland, and were followed the next Day by the Remainder of that Regiment; Orders were also given for all the Troops to pass as quickly as possible.

On the 4th, between Two and Three o'Clock, Brigadier-General Maitland's Corps moved on through a Wood, and approached Fort New Amsterdam within a Mile to reconnoitre, with a view to extend their Position towards the River Surinam, and thereby invest that Fortress. Some Shots were fired by the Enemy's advanced Centinels, who retired. At this Time Commodore Hood being with me at Head Quarters on the Commewyne, we received a Flag of Truce from the Commanding Officer of the Batavian Troops, with Proposals to surrender on Terms of Capitulation, a Copy of which is herewith inclosed; Orders were in consequence issued to suspend Hostilities until the Conditions should be finally agreed upon.

Lieutenant-Colonel Shipley and Captain Maxwell of the Royal Navy, were sent to settle the Terms. They returned early on the Morning of the 5th, with Two separate Capitulations, signed by Lieutenant Colonel Batenburgh, commanding the Batavian Troops, and Commodore Ploys, Chief of the Naval Department; but an Article in the One signed by the Military Commandant not being sufficiently clear, Brigadier-General Maitland was employed to arrange the Business, which being completed to our Satisfaction, at Five o'Clock on the same Evening, the advanced Corps, under the Command of Brigadier-General Maitland, marched in and took Possession of Fort New Amsterdam. The Batavian Frigate and Sloop of War were also taken Possession of at the same Hour.

Having thus detailed the Particulars of our short, but active Operations, it is a very pleasing Part of my Duty to state to your Lordship, the Names of those Officers whose Situations enabled them to come forward with distinguished Honor and Credit to themselves.

I have the greatest Obligations to Brigadier-General Maitland, Quarter-Master and Barrack-Master General, for his ready and cheerful Aid and Advice upon all Occasions, and for his unwearied, zealous, and able Exertions to promote the public Service, both previous to the Expedition leaving Barbadoes, and during the whole of our Operations here.

The Officer-like Manner in which the Brigadier-General fulfilled the important Objects of his detached Command is highly creditable to his military Character; and I am well persuaded, that if there had been further Occasion for his Services, I should have continued to find in him a most useful Second. May I therefore beg Leave to recommend him, through your Lordship, to His Majesty's gracious Notice.

Brigadier-General Maitland, in his Report, expresses his Satisfaction at the Co-operation and Assistance he had received from Captain Shipley, of His Majesty's Ship Hippomenes. He mentions in Terms of great Approbation, Colonel McLean of the 60th Regiment, Major Hardyman, First Battalion Royals, both acting with the advanced Corps, and he describes the Exertions of Captain McKenzie of the Royal Navy, commanding the Seamen, who proceeded up the River with the Troops, as being unremitting, and of great Advantage to the public Service.

I am also extremely indebted to Brigadier-General Hughes, who has shown a constant Readiness to undertake every Duty that required the Direction of so experienced an Officer. The bare Relation of the Attack of Forts Leyden and Frederici, which he headed with most distinguished Perseverance and Gallantry, sufficiently marks the Merit of that Officer; but I must beg leave to add, that Brigadier-General Hughes's steady and encouraging Example, during the Time of his Command at Fort Leyden, whilst exposed to the Fire of the Enemy's Batteries, must ever entitle him to the Reputation of a brave and excellent Officer, and I hope will ensure to him His Majesty's gracious Approbation.

The Brigadier-General reports the following Officers as having distinguished themselves; the Commanding Officers of the different Corps employed under him at the Storming of the Forts, viz. The Honorable Lieutenant-Colonel Crauford, 64th Regiment; Lieutenant-Colonel Shipley, commanding Royal Engineers; Captains Maxwell, Ferris, and Richardson of the Royal Navy; Major Stuke, 6th West India Regiment; Major of Brigade Bromley; Lieutenant Jamison, 64th Regiment; Lieutenant Arnold, Royal Engineers; and Mr. Hobbs, acting Engineer.

To Lieutenant-Colonel Shipley, the Commanding Engineer, I have Obligations far beyond my Power to express. Having been upon the former Expedition to Surinam, his local Knowledge enabled him to furnish most useful Information; and upon every Occasion he was foremost to execute in Person the Plans adopted in consequence of his intelligent Suggestions: Such, indeed, is my Sense of his Services on this Expedition, that I cannot help attributing to early Success, in a great Measure, to his Exertions; and I shall consider as a Kindness done to myself, any favorable Representation your Lordship may be pleased to make to His Majesty, respecting Lieutenant Colonel Shipley.

I have great Reason to be satisfied with the diligent Assistance afforded me by all the Heads of Departments, Major Wilson, commanding the Royal Artillery and the Officers and Men of that excellent Corps; Major Robertson, Acting Adjutant-General, Acting Commissary General Glassford, Captain McGeachy, Assistant Quarter Master General; and I take the Liberty to mention Captain Drummond, of the 60th Regiment, acting as my Aid-de-Camp, who has been very active and useful to me on many Occasions.

In all conjunct Expeditions the zealous Co-operation of the Navy becomes of the most essential Importance, but such is the peculiar Nature of the Military Positions in this Country, that our Success depended chiefly upon their Exertions, no Movements being possibly made without their Assistance. It is therefore incumbent upon me to bear my sincere Testimony to the cordial, zealous, and able Support the Army has received from Commodore Hood, and all the Captains and other Officers of the Squadron under his Command, which must ever be remembered with Gratitude. Captain Maxwell, of the Centaur, having been more particularly attached to the Troops under my immediate Command on Shore, I am bound to Notice his spirited and exemplary Behaviour; and I use the Freedom to mention Captain Kempt, Agent of Transports, as having discharged the laborious Duties of his Office, with every possible Skill and Diligence.

I have the Pleasure to assure your Lordship, that the principal Inhabitants of the Colony appear in general to be extremely rejoiced at the Event which has taken Place, restoring to them the powerful Protection of the British Government, and the solid Advantages arising therefrom.

Captain Campbell, my Aid de Camp, will have the Honor to deliver this Dispatch to your Lordship; he is a very old and deserving Officer, and I beg Leave to refer your Lordship to him for further Information. I have, &c.

To His Excellency the Governor of the Colony of Surinam.

A CONSIDERABLE British Armament of Sea and Land Forces being arrived in the River Surinam, We, the Commanders in Chief of the same, judge it expedient at this Crisis to summon the Colony to an immediate Surrender to His Britannic Majesty's Arms.

The important Situation which we now possess, with the decided Superiority of our Force, must, in case Resistance be attempted, ensure a speedy and favorable Issue to our Operations; but the Motives which have chiefly actuated His Majesty in sending this Expedition, and upon the Principles of which we are directed to govern our Conduct, induce us to propose a Capitulation, so highly beneficial to the Interests of the Colony of Surinam, as to leave little Doubt on our Minds of being joyfully accepted.

But if, contrary to our well-founded Expectations, the Offer we now make should be rejected, it becomes us to state, in the clearest Manner, that the Effusion of Blood, and all the Calamities of War in particular, the Destruction and Ruin brought upon private Property, which will be the inevitable Consequence, must be attributed to you, and not to us.

Being desirous to evince our Inclination to allow every possible Indulgence to the Colony, consistent with our Duty, and knowing it may require some Time to assemble the constituted Authorities for their Decision, we are willing to wait Twelve Hours Time for your Answer, and at the Expiration of which, should you not accede to our Proposals, we shall consider it incumbent upon us to proceed to such further Measures as our Instructions point out.

Dated on board His Majesty's Ship Centaur, off Bram's Point, 27th April, 1804.

TERMS proposed by their Excellencies Major-General Sir Charles Green, and Commodore Samuel Hood, Commanders in Chief of His Majesty's Land and Sea Forces, for the Surrender to the British Government of the Colony of Surinam.

Art. I. The Colony of Surinam to be surrendered in Twenty-four Hours to the Arms and Protection of the British Government.

Art. II. The Inhabitants of the Colony shall enjoy full Security for their Persons, and the free Exercise of their Religion, with the immediate and entire Possession of their private Property, whether on Shore or afloat.

Art. III. The Laws of the Colony, as they existed at the Period of its being given up by the British Government, shall remain in Force until His Majesty's Pleasure shall be known; but this Article is not meant to restrict His Majesty's Representative from making such temporary Regulations as may appear to him absolutely necessary for the Security and Defence of the Colony; nor must it be construed to militate against such Establishments as may be necessary for regulating the Commerce of the Colony, agreeable to the Practice in the British West India Possessions.

Art. IV. The different Persons at present employed in the Civil Administration of the Colony, shall all of them, the Governor excepted, continue in Office, provided they take the Oath of Allegiance and Fidelity to the British Government, and that their Conduct is such as to afford no reasonable Ground for suspecting their Submission thereto.

Art. V. All Ships of War, Artillery, Provisions and Stores in the public Magazines and Warehouses, as well as the Effects of every Description belonging to the Batavian Government, shall be given up to His Britannic Majesty in the State they now are, regular Lists being immediately taken by Officers appointed for the Purpose, by each of the contracting Parties.

Art. VI. The Batavian Troops in the different Garrisons of this Colony are to surrender as Prisoners of War, to remain so until exchanged or released; they are to deliver up their Arms, Accoutrements, and Ammunition, to the Persons appointed to receive them; they will be allowed all the usual Honors of War, and the Officers and Men will be allowed to retain their private Baggage.

Art. VII. The Fort of New Amsterdam is to be delivered up to the British Troops before the Expiration of the Twenty-four Hours stipulated in the First Article, and all the other Forts and Batteries in the Colony are to be surrendered as soon as possible.

SIR,

WE have had the Honor to receive your Answer to our Summons of Yesterday's Date, by which it appears that you refuse to accept the Terms of Capitulation we have proposed, and, as on your Part no Proposals are made, we shall consider ourselves at Liberty to act accordingly.

We have the Honor to be, &c.

CHARLES GREEN.
SAMUEL HOOD.

To His Excellency the Governor of the Colony of Surinam.

(COPY.)

To Lieutenant-Colonel B. A. Batenburg, commanding the Batavian Troops in the Colony of Surinam.

SIR,

WE have had the Honor to receive the Proposals upon which you offer to capitulate, and to each Article, as specified by you, we have sent our Answer, and for any further Arrangements we refer you to Lieutenant-Colonel Shipley, of the Royal Engineers, and Captain Maxwell, of the Royal Navy, the Bearer of this.

The Lieutenant-Colonel in Chief of the 5th Battalion of Batavian Chasseurs, commanding the Troops in the Colony of Surinam, to the Commanders in Chief of the Land and Sea Forces of His Britannic Majesty, in and near the River Surinam.

GENTLEMEN,

THE Force with which I have for a considerable Time been expecting to be attacked, has not caused in me any Deviation from the Duty I owe to my Country.

But with a view to the Interests of the Inhabitants of this Colony, and of the brave Troops under my Command, for which I have to answer to the Batavian Republic, for an honorable Capitulation, I am induced to propose to you the following Articles:

Art. I. That the Garrison shall retain their Arms and their Baggage, and march out with all the Honors of War.

Answer.—The Garrison shall be allowed to march out with the usual Honors of War. The Officers to retain their Side-Arms, and the Officers and Soldiers their private Baggage; but the Soldiers must lay down their Arms.

Art. II. That the Garrison shall be sent over within Four Weeks to some Port of the Batavian Republic, all at the Expence of His Britannic Majesty.

Answer.—Granted; or as soon as proper Vessels for that Purpose can be provided.

Art. III. That they shall be allowed, as soon as they arrive, to serve under the Batavian Republic, but not against His Britannic Majesty, nor any of his Allies.

Answer.—Granted.

Art. IV. Fort New Amsterdam, and the other Posts, together with the Magazines and Stores in this Colony, shall be delivered up to Commissioners, to be nominated on both Sides, to commence within Forty-eight Hours from the signing of the Capitulation.

Answer.—The principal Gates and Barriers of Fort New Amsterdam, must be put in Possession of the British Forces at Two o'Clock To-morrow Afternoon.

The Remainder of this Article is agreed to.

Art. V. That none of the Troops under my Command shall be engaged into the Service of His Britannic Majesty.

Answer.—His Britannic Majesty receives no other Soldiers but such as voluntarily enter into his Service.

Art. VI. All the Articles proposed in the late Summons to the Advantage of the Inhabitants shall be fulfilled.

Answer.—His Majesty having instructed us to favour the Colony of Surinam as much as possible, we are willing to grant it the same Terms as first proposed.

Art. VII. Women and Children, and all Persons whatever annexed to the Garrison, shall be comprehended in this Capitulation, and enjoy all the Advantages attached to it.

Answer.—Granted.

Flattering myself that I shall be honoured with your Answer, I remain with the greatest Respect,

Gentlemen,

Your Servant,

(Signed) B. A. BATENBURG.

ADDITIONAL ARTICLE proposed on the Part of His Britannic Majesty.

It is to be clearly understood that all the Ships, Vessels, and Boats employed in the Colony in the Service of the Batavian Republic, are to be delivered up at the same Hour as specified in the 4th Article for the delivering up of the principal Gates and Barriers of Fort New Amsterdam, the Officers and Men to be placed on the same Footing as those of the Army.

Two Hours will be granted for your Consideration of these Articles.

Head-Quarters of the Army, Six o'Clock Afternoon, 4th May 1804.

(Signed) CHAS. GREEN, Maj. Gen.
SAM. HOOD, Commodore.

Lieut. Col. Batenburg, Commander in Chief of the Batavian Troops in the Colony of Surinam, to the Commanders in Chief of His Britannic Majesty's Land and Sea Forces in and near the River of the said Colony.

GENTLEMEN,

I AM highly honored with the Answer which you sent me this Evening, to the Proposals which I have made, and am satisfied with the same, with a few Exceptions, which, with some Additions, I now offer for your Consideration.

Art. I. That all the Batavian Troops occupying the Posts in this Colony, shall be comprehended in the Terms of this Capitulation, and that immediate Orders be given to them to surrender the same to the British Troops.

Answer.—Agreed, so far as relates to the Batavian Troops, occupying Posts not yet captured by the British Forces.

Art. II. All that relates to the White and Black Corps of Chasseurs, shall be arranged with the Colonial Government.

Answer.—Agreed.

Art. III. With regard to the Fourth Article, a farther Delay of Twenty-four Hours is required.

Answer.—The principal Gates and Barriers of Fort New Amsterdam must be put in Possession of the British Troops at Four o'Clock To-morrow Afternoon. The Barracks to remain occupied by the Batavian Troops until they are embarked.

Art. IV. That the Corps remain entire under the Command of their respective Officers. They shall receive all Arrears of Pay due to them from the Batavian Government.

Answer.—The Disposition of the Batavian Troops on board the Ships which may carry them to Holland must be left to Commodore Hood. Certainly all Arrears of Pay due to them to be paid as heretofore, but without any Claim on the British Government.

Art. V. It is to be understood that the Batavian Troops, already Prisoners of War, and in the Power of His Britannic Majesty, shall, equally with the others, enjoy all the Privileges of this Capitulation.

Answer.—Refused.

Art. VI. That the Officers of the Batavian Garrison, immediately on delivering up of their Posts, shall be allowed to go on their Parole during their Stay in this Colony to Paramaribo, or elsewhere in the Country, having previously obtained Leave from Colonel Batenburg.

Answer.—Agreed.

Art. VII. That all Necessaries of Clothing, such as Cloth and Linnen Pantaloon, Shoes, Stockings, &c. now due from the Batavian Government, shall be issued to them out of the public Stores before their Departure from this Colony.

Answer.—Agreed.

ARTICLES of CAPITULATION agreed upon between the Commandant of the Batavian Ships in the West Indies, H. O. Bloys, Van Tresslong, commanding the Frigate Proserpine, lying opposite Fort New Amsterdam, in the Colony of Surinam, and the Commanders in Chief of the Land and Sea Forces of His Britannic Majesty, lying near the Forts Paramaribo and Leyden, in the River Surinam.

Extract from the Capitulation between Lieutenant-Colonel Batenburg, and the Commanders of His Britannic Majesty's Forces.

"IT is to be clearly understood that all the Ships, Vessels, and Boats employed in the Colony in the Service of the Batavian Republic, are to be delivered up at the same Hour as specified in the 4th Article, for the delivering up of the principal Gates and Barriers of Fort New Amsterdam, the Officers and Men to be placed on the same Footing as those of the Army."

The Commandant of the Batavian Ships in this Colony on considering the Capitulation between Colonel Batenburg and the Commanders of His Britannic Majesty's Land and Sea Forces, whereby Fort New Amsterdam and its Dependencies are to be surrendered to the Forces of His Britannic Majesty, is induced to offer the following Conditions:

Art. 1. There are at present in this Colony no Ships belonging to the Batavian Republic, except the Frigate Proserpine and a Corvette, the latter captured from the English at the Commencement of the War, and which not being condemned cannot be said to whom it may yet belong.

Answer.—As it may hereafter be decided.

Art. II. The three Merchant Ships and the Schooner George, with their Cargoes, are private Property, and consequently come under the Stipulations of the Sixth Article of the Terms proposed in the Summons concerning the Colony.

Answer.—As it may hereafter be decided, being called private Property by Commodore Bloys.

Art. III. The Frigate Proserpine, and Sloop of War Pylades, shall, To-morrow at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, be put in Possession of His Britannic Majesty's Forces.

Answer.—Agreed. The Frigate Proserpine and Sloop of War Pylades, to be delivered up at Four o'Clock To-morrow Afternoon, in the same State they now are.

Art. IV. The private Property of the Commandant, Officers, and Crew, including the Provisions and Effects in the Naval Hospital, where they now stand, shall be retained, to secure which the necessary Assistance to be given on the Part of the British.

Answer.—Agreed.

Art. V. The Commandant, Officers, and Crews of the two Ships before mentioned shall be sent within the Period of Four Weeks to some Port of the Batavian Republic, at the Expence of His Britannic Majesty.

Answer.—Agreed.

Art. VI. The Commandant and Officers shall be allowed, on leaving the Ships, to wear their Side Arms, and also the Flag and Standard to fly until the same are evacuated, and the Commandant, Officers and Crews shall, on their Arrival in Holland, be permitted to serve, but not against His Britannic Majesty and His Allies.

Answer.—Agreed.

Art. VII. The Commandant and Officers shall be permitted, after they have surrendered, to go to Paramaribo to settle their Affairs, and also to enjoy the same Privileges granted to the Officers of the Army.

Answer.—Agreed.

Admiralty-Office, June 22, 1804.

Copy of a Letter received at this Office by Captain Maxwell from Commodore Hood, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at the Leeward Islands, to William Marsden, Esq., dated on board His Majesty's Ship Emerald, in Surinam River, the 6th May, 1804.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to inform you, I arrived off this River in the Centaur, with the Pandour, Serapis, Alligator, Hippomenes, Drake, Unique armed Schooner, and Transports having on board near Two Thousand Troops, under Major General Sir Charles Green, on the 25th Ultimo, after a Passage of Twenty Days from Barbadoes, when immediate Measures were taken to send a Division of the Army, of about Seven Hundred Men, to land at Warapa Creek, under the Command of Brigadier General Maitland, the Direction of which was left to Captain Shipley of the Hippomenes, who, with that Sloop, a Transport, and three Army Vessels, landed the Troops on the Night of the 30th, assisted by Captain McKenzie of His Majesty's Sloop Guachopin, who had with great Zeal quitted his Sloop fifty Leagues to Leeward with all her Boats, on finding from baffling Winds and Currents she could not get up.

That no Time should be lost, Brigadier General Hughes was ordered on board the Pandour, to endeavour to gain Possession the next Night (26th) of Braam's Point, and Instructions sent to Captain O'Brien, then lying off the Bar in the Emerald, to carry this Service in concert with the Brigadier into Execution; he, with his usual Intrepidity, lost not a Moment, but as the Tide flowed, pushed in over the Bar, and anchored close to the Battery of Seven Eighteen-Pounders, followed by Captains Nash and Ferijs, in the Pandour and Drake. The Fort commenced a brisk Fire on the Emerald, but was silenced by a few Broadshots, after the Ships had anchored, without any Loss on our Side; in it were captured Forty-three Officers and Men, three of whom were wounded.

Not being able to approach nearer in the Centaur, the General and myself the next Morning removed to this Ship at the Entrance of the River, and having summoned the Colony, the Answer* was received, containing a Refusal of the Terms. The Moment therefore the Tide served, every Effort was made to get up the River, which, from the Shallowness of the Water, was very difficult, the Emerald having passed through the Mud in three Feet less than the drew, and it was only till last Night we were enabled to get her to this Station near the Forts, from the Lowness of the Tides.

The Officers of Engineers having explored the Road through the Woods, close to the Battery of Friderici, which communicated with Leyden Redoubt, an Attack was made on the Morning of the 30th by a Detachment of Troops under Brigadier-General Hughes, conducted in the Boats by Captain Maxwell of the Centaur, and Captains Ferris and Richardson: they landed at Plantation Resolution, and after a tedious March through Woods and Swamps, the Brigadier and Detachment, accompanied by the two first named Captains, with some Officers and about Thirty Seamen, carried the Battery of Friderici, and though the Enemy blew up the Magazine, by which many of our brave People suffered on entering the Work, they were not delayed in passing a Causeway of Seven Hundred Yards, with Five Pieces of Cannon bearing thereon, and carried the Redoubt of Leyden in a few Minutes. The gallant Conduct of the Brigadier, his Officers and Men, will no Doubt be sufficiently set forth by the Major-General, but it is impossible to do Justice to their Merit; and the Brigadier has spoken in the handsomest Terms of Captain Maxwell, who commanded the Seamen, and Captain Ferris, who led on with the advanced Party, as well as all the Officers and Men; and Captain Richardson, left ready to support them in the Boats, gave every Aid to secure the Polls.

I subjoin a List of Killed and Wounded; amongst the Number belonging to the Centaur, I am sorry to add, is Lieutenant Smith, mortally, Lieutenants King and Henderson severely, and Mr. Shuldem, Midshipman, killed; Lieutenant Brand of the Unique is also severely wounded.

Brigadier General Maitland having come down the River Commowina, and the Ships all got up near Friderici, with the Troops advancing, and the Enemy's Communication nearly intercepted by the Activity of our armed Boats, as well as Provisions, Stores, and Cannon, prepared for attacking Fort New Amsterdam, Yesterday the Batavian Commandant, Lieutenant-Colonel Batenburg, thought proper to send a Flag of Truce, when a Capitulation was soon after signed.

Commodore Bloys Van Treslong, on our claiming the Surrender of the Ships, entered into the Terms. He had placed the Proserpine, of Thirty-two Guns, Eighteen-Pounders, near to Fort New Amsterdam, and extended a Line of Defence across the River, with the Pylades Corvette, of Eighteen Guns, at the other Extreme, about a Mile above the Redoubt Purmurent; Three Merchantmen in the Centre, from Eight to Twelve Guns, and a Schooner of Ten Guns, employed to reconnoitre and cover the Shore at Voorburg, should our Troops have attempted to advance by that Side, beside Seven Gun-Boats stationed as Occasion required.

The indefatigable Zeal of Captains O'Bryen and Nash, in arranging and forwarding the Supplies, and Captains Maxwell, Ferris, Waring, and Richardson, in giving Aid to the Army, as well as Captain Kempt, Agent for Transports, claims my warmest Applause, as does that of Captain Shipley in landing Brigadier-General Maitland's Division, and Captain M'Kenzie for his Services with Fifty Seamen, in aiding that Part of the Army on their Route from the Warapa Creek. It is with much Satisfaction I relate, that the Co-operation of the Army and Navy, employed on this Expedition, has been carried on with an eager Emulation to assist each other, which indeed could but be expected from the cordial Measures adopted by Major-General Sir Charles Green.

Captain Maxwell will have the Honor to deliver this Dispatch; and from the able Manner he has conducted himself, as my Captain, will, I am confident, give their Lordships every satisfactory Information.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

Whitehall, June 21, 1804.

COPIES of the following Letters, written by Major-General Wellesley to His Excellency the Governor-General, have been received at the East-India House, enclosed in a Dispatch from the Governor and Council at Bombay, dated the 10th of January 1804:

MY LORD, Camp at Doagaum, Dec. 15, 1803.

AFTER the Battle of Argaum I determined to lose no Time in commencing the Siege of Gaulghur, and accordingly marched on, and arrived at Elechpoor on the 5th Instant with both Divisions, and halted on the 6th in order to establish an Hospital for the Wounded in the Battle of Argaum.

The Fort of Gaulghur is situated in a Range of Mountains between the Sources of the Rivers Poorna and Taptee. It stands on a lofty Mountain in this Range, and consists of One complete Inner Fort, which points to the South, where the Rock is most steep, and an Outer Fort, which covers the Inner to the North Westward and North. This Outer Fort has a Third Wall, which covers the Approach to it from the North by the Village of Labada. All these Walls are strongly built, and fortified by Ramparts and Towers.

The Communications with the Forts are through Three Gates; One to the South with the Inner Fort, One to the North West with the Outer Fort, and One to the North with the Third Wall. The Ascent to the first is very long and steep, and is practicable only by Men; that to the Second is by a Road used for the common Communications of the Garrison with the Countries to the Southward, but the Road passes round the West Side of the Fort, and is exposed for a great Distance to its Fire, it is so narrow as to make it impracticable to approach regularly by it, and the Rock is scraped on each Side; this Road also leads no farther than the Gate.

The Communication with the Northern Gate is direct from the Village of Labada, and here the Ground is level with that of the Fort, but the Road to Labada leads through the Mountains for about Thirty Miles from Elechpoor, and it was obvious that the Difficulty and Labour of moving Ordnance and Stores to Labada would be very great.

However, after making Enquiry at Elechpoor, it appeared both to Colonel Stevenson and me, that this Point of Attack was, upon the whole, the most advantageous, and we accordingly adopted it.

Colonel Stevenson had equipped his Corps at Assurghur for the Siege of Gaulghur, for which Service it had long been destined; and I therefore determined that he should make the principal Attack by Labada, while I should cover his Operations with my own Division, and all the Cavalry, and, if possible, assist them by other Attacks to the Southward and Westward.

On the 6th Instant, the 1st Battalion of the 2d Regiment, under Lieutenant Colonel Chalmers, and Two Companies of the 94th, and the 1st of the 6th, under Captain Maitland were detached, the former to drive in the Enemy from the Ground which they occupied to the Southward of the Fort, and the latter to seize the fortified Village of Damargaum, which covers the Entrance of the Mountains by the Road by which Colonel Stevenson was to pass towards Labada, and to protect the Parties sent forward to reconnoitre, and repair the Roads in the Mountain. Both these Detachments succeeded. On the 7th, both Divisions marched from Elechpoor, Colonel Stevenson into the Mountains by Damargaum, and my Division towards the Southern Face of the Fort of Gaulghur. From that Day till the 12th, on which Colonel Stevenson broke Ground near Labada, the Troops in his Division went through a Series of laborious Services, such as I never before witnessed, with the utmost Cheerfulness and Perseverance. The heavy Ordnance and Stores were dragged by Hand over Mountains and through Ravines, for nearly the whole Distance, by Roads which it had been previously necessary for the Troops to make for themselves.

On the 12th at Night, Colonel Stevenson erected Two Batteries in Front of the North Face of the Fort, one consisting of Two Iron Eighteen-Pounders and Three Iron Twelve-Pounders, to breach the Outer Fort and Third Wall, and one consisting of Two Brass Twelve-Pounders, and Two Five Half Inch Howitzers to destroy and clear the Defences on the Point of Attack.

On the same Night the Troops of my Division constructed a Battery for Two Iron and Two Brass Twelve-Pounders on the Mountain under the Southern Gate, with a view, if possible, to breach the Wall near that Gate, or at all Events to draw the Enemy's Attention to that Quarter. Unfortunately the Iron Guns could not be moved into the Battery, notwithstanding the utmost Exertions of the Troops, and the Fire of the Brass Guns produced but little Effect.

The Fire of all these Batteries opened on the 13th in the Morning, and on the 14th at Night, the Breaches in the Walls of the Outer Fort were practicable: All the Arrangements were made for storming on this Day, Lieutenant-Colonel Kenny, of the 11th Regiment, commanded the Party for the Storm, consisting of the Flank Companies of the 94th Regiment, and of the Native Corps in Colonel Stevenson's Division, supported by the 94th Regiment, and Lieutenant-Colonel Haliburton's Brigade, with Lieutenant-Colonel Maclean's Brigade in a Reserve. At the same Hour I made Two Attacks from the Southward to draw the Enemy's Attention to this Quarter, one under Lieutenant-Colonel Wallace, consisting of the 74th Regiment, Five Companies of the 78th, and the 1st Battalion of the 8th Regiment on the Southern Gate, and one under Lieutenant-Colonel Chalmers, consisting of Five Companies of the 78th, and the 1st Battalion of the 10th Regiment on the North-West Gate. These last Attacks could be of no Service excepting to draw the Enemy's Attention from that from the North, unless they should succeed in blowing open the Gates, till they should communicate with Detachments from Colonel Stevenson's Corps, as they had no other Means of entering this Fort.

All the Troops advanced about Ten in the Morning. The Detachment under Lieutenant-Colonel Chalmers arrived at the N. W. Gate at the Moment that the Enemy were endeavouring to escape through it from the Detachment of Colonel Stevenson's Corps, which had been sent to communicate with Colonel Chalmers; and he entered without Difficulty.

The Wall in the Inner Fort, in which no Breach had been made, was then to be carried; after some Attempts upon the Gate of Communication between the Inner and Outward Fort, a Place was found at which it was possible to escalade the Wall. Captain Campbell, with the Light Infantry of the 94th Regiment, fixed the Ladders against this Place, escaladed the Wall, opened the Gates for the storming Party, and the Fort was shortly in our Possession.

The Enemy's Garrison was numerous; it consisted of Rajah Poot's and of a great Part of Bury Sing's regular Infantry, which had escaped from the Battle of Argaum, commanded by Bury Sing himself; they were all armed with Company's new Muskets and Bayonets; vast Numbers were killed, particularly at the different Gates.

This Service has been performed, I hope, with small Loss on our Side; no Officer has been killed, and none wounded, that I have heard of, excepting Lieutenant-Colonel Kenny, of the 11th Regiment, and Lieutenant Young, of the 2d Battalion of the 7th.

In the Performance of this Service all the good Qualities of British Troops have been conspicuous to a Degree which I have seldom witnessed. In bringing on their Ordnance and Stores to the Point of Attack, the Troops of Colonel Stevenson's Division performed the most laborious Work with a Zeal for the Service, and Patience and Perseverance never surpassed; and, when opposed to the Enemy, their Conduct shewed the same gallant Spirit that has carried the British Troops through so many Difficulties in the Course of this War.

I am particularly indebted to Colonel Stevenson for the Manner in which he conducted the Service entrusted to him, from the Moment of his March from Ellichpoor to that of the Capture of Ganilghur; to Lieutenant Colonel Kenny for the Manner in which he led on the storming Party; to Captain Campbell, and the Light Infantry of the 94th Regiment, for the Escalade of the Inner Fort; to Major Campbell and the 94th Regiment, and to Lieutenant-Colonel Haliburton and his Brigade, which Troops supported the Attack; Captain Barke, who commanded the Artillery, with the subsidiary Force, and Captain Heiland, of the Pioneers, and Captain Johnson, of the Bombay Engineers, are also entitled to my Acknowledgments. These Two latter were sent from my Division to assist Colonel Stevenson. Upon the Occasion of mentioning the Name of Captain Johnson, I cannot omit to inform your Excellency, that throughout this Campaign that Officer has performed the most important Service in the Department of the Guides entrusted to his Charge; and I have no Doubt but that his Surveys will be a valuable public Acquisition.

Although the most laborious and most brilliant Part of this Service did not fall to the Lot of the Troops of my Division, I have to apprise your Excellency that they performed that Part allotted to them in a Manner perfectly satisfactory to me; and Lieutenant Colonel Wallace, and Lieutenant-Colonel Chalmers, and Captain Beommon, commanding the Artillery, have received my Thanks for the Manner in which the Two former led their Divisions to the Attack, and the latter exerted himself to forward the Service of his Department.

I shall hereafter have the Honor of transmitting to your Excellency Lists of the Killed and Wounded, and Returns of the Ordnance and Property captured in the Fort.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

MY LORD, Camp at Ellichpoor, Dec. 18, 1803.

I HAVE the Honor to enclose a Return of the Killed and Wounded at the Siege and in the Storm of Ganilghur. Lieutenant Young died after I addressed your Excellency on the 15th.

I have likewise the Honor to enclose a Return of the Ordnance, &c. captured in Ganilghur. The Quantity of Property captured has not yet been ascertained, but I imagine that there will not be much.

After I had addressed your Excellency on the 15th Instant I received from Colonel Stevenson a detailed Report of the Proceedings of the Division under his Command in the Storm of the Fort, from which I observe that Lieutenant-Colonel Lang and Lieutenant-Colonel Duffé had Opportunities of distinguishing themselves, of which they availed themselves. In the Course of the Campaign I have more than once had Occasion to observe the Zeal of these Officers in the Service, and their Exertions to forward it; they have received my Thanks for their Conduct on the 15th Instant; and I beg Leave to recommend them to your Excellency's Notice.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) ARTHUR WELLESLEY.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 6th of June 1804,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, in pursuance of the Powers vested in His Majesty by an Act passed in the Forty-second Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for enabling His Majesty to permit the Importation and Exportation of certain Goods and Commodities into and from the Port of Road-Harbour, in the Island of Tortola, until the First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, and from thence until Six Weeks after the Commencement of the then next Session of Parliament;" His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Sixteenth of August One thousand eight hundred and two, to permit, and did thereby permit, during the Time limited by the said Act, the Importation into the said Port of Road-Harbour, in the Island of Tortola, one of the Virgin Islands, from Countries and Plantations in America and the West Indies belonging to, or under the Dominion of any Foreign European Sovereign or State, of all such Articles, Goods, and Commodities enumerated in certain Acts, passed in the Twenty-seventh, Thirty-second, and Thirty-third Years of His Majesty's Reign, as are permitted by the said Acts to be imported into the Port of Nassau, in the Island of New Providence, one of the Bahama Islands; and also the Exportation thereof from the said Port of Road-Harbour, in the Island of Tortola aforesaid, in the same Manner, and subject to the same Duties, Rules, Regulations, Conditions, and Restrictions, and to the same Penalties and Forfeitures for the Breach thereof, as are provided in the said Acts, or any of them, respecting such Importation into the said Port of Nassau, in the Island of New Providence, and the Exportation from thence to this Kingdom, and subject also to the Conditions, Rules, and Regulations thereinafter mentioned; that is to say, That before any Sugar or Coffee, the Produce of Tortola and its Dependencies, shall be permitted or suffered to be shipped or laden on board any Ship or Vessel, each and every Package shall be stamped or marked by the proper Officer of the Customs in Roman Letters of not less than Two Inches in Length, with the Words BRITISH PN.:

That all Sugar and Coffee not being the Produce of any of the British Plantations, Islands, or Territories, shall, upon Importation into Road-Harbour, be laid on Land and examined, and shall be deposited in safe and secure Warehouses, under the Joint Locks of His Majesty and the Owner or Proprietor of such Sugar and Coffee, and the same shall not be afterwards shipped or laden on board any Ship or Vessel, unless directly from such Warehouses, (upon due Entry thereof being first made,) under the Care and Inspection of the proper Officer of the Customs; and before any such Sugar or Coffee shall be permitted or suffered to be shipped or laden on board any Ship or Vessel, each and every Package shall be stamped or marked by the proper Officer of the Customs in Roman Letters of not less than Two Inches in Length, with the Word FOREIGN, and shall also be numbered progressively; and whereas the said above recited Act, passed in the Forty-second Year of His Majesty's Reign, has been by another Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, continued until the Twentieth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and eight, His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to permit, and doth by this His Order in Council permit, until further Order, the Importation into the said Port of Road-Harbour, in the Island of Tortola, one of the Virgin Islands, from Countries and Plantations in America and the West Indies, belonging to or under the Dominion of any Foreign European Sovereign or State, of all such Articles, Goods, and Commodities as were by His Majesty's said Order in Council, bearing Date the Sixteenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and two, permitted to be so imported into the said Port of Road-Harbour, and also the Exportation thereof from the said Port of Road-Harbour, in the Island of Tortola, subject to the same Duties, Rules, Regulations, Conditions, and Restrictions, and to the same Penalties and Forfeitures for the Breach thereof, as were expressed and contained in His Majesty's said Order in Council bearing Date the Sixteenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and two:—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. W. Farquhar.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 27th of June 1804,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS Day the Right Honorable William Drummond and the Right Honorable Charles Arbutnot were, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, and took their respective Places at the Board accordingly.

His Majesty in Council was this Day pleased to appoint Charles Evans, of Trefeilin, Esq; to be Sheriff of the County of Anglesey, in North Wales, for the Year One thousand eight hundred and four, in the Room of Thomas Parry Jones, of Cefia Coch, Esq.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 27th of June 1804,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Colony of Surinam, in South America, has been surrendered to His Majesty's Arms, and the Territory and Forts of the same are delivered up to His Majesty, and the said Colony is now in His Majesty's Possession; His Majesty is thereupon pleased to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, That all His loving Subjects may lawfully trade to and from the said Colony of Surinam, subject, nevertheless, to the same Duties, Rules, Regulations, Conditions, Restrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, to which the Trade to and from His Majesty's Colonies, Plantations, and Islands in the West Indies, is or shall be subject by Law: And His Majesty is further pleased to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, that all Commodities, being of the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of the said Colony of Surinam, being in His Majesty's Possession, shall be permitted to be imported into any of the Ports of this Kingdom in British Ships, owned by His Majesty's Subjects, and navigated according to Law, subject to the same Duties, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Conditions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as Articles of the like Sort are subject to, coming from His Majesty's Colonies, Plantations, or Islands in the West Indies: And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Farwaker.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 27th of June 1804,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Eleventh Day of May One thousand eight hundred and three, and by subsequent Orders continuing the said former Order from Time to Time, to order, require, prohibit, and command that no Person or Persons, whatsoever should at any Time, during the Space of Six Months from the Date of the said Order, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Oker, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, or ship or lade any of the Articles before-mentioned, on board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same to any Parts beyond the Seas, without Leave or Permission being first had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council: (except for the Purposes and to the Places mentioned in the said Order :) And whereas it hath been represented on Behalf of the principal Importers and Venders of Bar-Iron in the City of London, that great Loss and Inconvenience will result to the Trade by the Exportation of Bar-Iron continuing to be prohibited to Countries in Amity with His Majesty, without special Orders being obtained for that Purpose; His Majesty taking the same into Consideration, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, (as it is hereby ordered,) that, from and after the Date hereof, the Exportation of Bar-Iron and Pig-Iron shall, notwithstanding the said Orders, be permitted and allowed from any of the Ports of this Kingdom to any Country in or out of Europe, in Amity with His Majesty, in British built Ships, owned by His Majesty's Subjects, and navigated according to Law; provided the Merchant Exporter of any such Bar-Iron and Pig-Iron do first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which such Bar-Iron and Pig-Iron shall be entered Outwards before the Entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient Security by Bond to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs to carry the said Bar-Iron and Pig-Iron to the Places for which they are so entered Outwards, and for the Purposes specified, and none other, and to produce within Twelve Months from the Date of the Bond, from the British Consul or Vice-Consul resident at the Port for which such Bar-Iron and Pig-Iron shall be cleared out, or in case there shall be no Consul there resident, or he shall be absent from the same, then from Two British Merchants, resident there, a Certificate or Certificates that such Bar-Iron and Pig-Iron has been duly delivered at the Ports for which the same was cleared out, and the Bonds or Securities shall not be cancelled or delivered up but on Production of such Certificate or Certificates; and the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly. W. Fawcener.

Westminster, June 29, 1804.

THIS Day the Lords being met, a Message was sent to the Honorable House of Commons by Sir Francis Mulrenux, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorised by virtue of His Majesty's Commission for declaring His Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate Attendance of this Honorable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to
